Modern Chinese Writers Helmut Martin, Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2016-09-16 This volume gathers personal reflections on life and literature by 44 of China's leading authors. It aims to illustrate how Chinese society and its creative writing have supported, competed and fought with each other for the past 40 years and more. Much of what is revealed here is mundane, but the pressure of bringing art to social and political causes, indeed the universal pressure to survive, forges this collection into a very human document. The strengths and weaknesses of these essays offer a window on those of modern Chinese literature itself. Realism was the favoured literary doctrine of the day and reflecting this, most of these essays speak for themselves about war, revolution, betrayal and commitment.

Modern Chinese Literary Thought Kirk A. Denton, 1996 This volume presents a broad range of writings on modern Chinese literature. Of the fifty-five essays included, forty-seven are translated here for the first time, including two essays by Lu Xun. In addition, the editor has provided an extensive general introduction and shorter introductions to the five parts of the book: historical background; a synthesis of current scholarship on modern views of Chinese literature; and an original thesis on the complex formation of Chinese literary modernity. The collection reflects both the mainstream Marxist interpretation of the literary values of modern China and the marginalized views proscribed at one time or another by the leftist canon. It offers a full spectrum of modern Chinese perceptions of fundamental literary issues.

Studies on Contemporary Chinese Philosophy (1949-2009) Qiyong GUO, 2018-01-29 Guo Qiyong's edited volume on contemporary Chinese philosophy offers a detailed look at research on Chinese philosophy published from 1949-2009 in Mainland China and Taiwan. The chapters in this volume are broken down into either major themes or time periods in the history of Chinese philosophy. In each chapter, after summarizing significant aspects of a particular theme or time period, lists are drawn up of the most important works along with comments on their individual contributions. This volume allows readers to both familiarize themselves with specific texts and become immersed in the more general philosophical discourse surrounding the history of Chinese philosophy. It provides an in-depth look into serious debates and major discoveries in Chinese language philosophical scholarship from 1949-2009.

Subjectivity and Sexuality in Contemporary Chinese Feminist Writing Ruttapond Swanpitak, 2025-02-17 This book explores representations of female sexuality and subjectivity in contemporary Chinese fiction by three women writers published from 1986 to 2000 from the perspective of poststructuralist feminism. It discusses the representative works of authors Wang Anyi, Tie Ning and Chi Li, who are well known in the Chinese literary field. However, their works have not to date been analysed through the poststructuralist feminism's notions of subjectivity, femininity and transgression. This book then provides detailed analysis of each writer and draws comparisons between their works to provide an extended consideration of female sexuality and subjectivity within post-Mao Chinese fiction. In this respect, this book not only offers fresh insights into the three authors' fiction but also contributes to the feminist study of Chinese women's writing. Additionally, the research contributes to a better understanding of contemporary Chinese culture in relation to patriarchy, misogyny, feminism, differences and resistance. It is relevant to scholars in the fields of China studies Chinese literature feminist literature and gender studies     The Genesis of Modern Chinese Literary Criticism (1917-1930) Marián Gálík, 2022-05-18 This book first published in 1980 is a history of modern Chinese literary criticism between the years 1917 and 1930 It examines its development within the overall frame of reference of Chinese national literature from the beginnings of the Chinese literary revolution in 1917 until the end of the first efforts at a revolutionary proletarian literature in 1930 Chinese literary criticism is also analysed within the framework of world literature of world literary thought especially of the impact of the progressive literary criticism     Contemporary Chinese Fiction by Su Tong and Yu Hua Hua Li, 2011-02-18 The book explores the coming of age fiction of two of the most critically acclaimed and frequently translated contemporary Chinese authors Yu Hua and Su Tong it is the first in depth book length treatise in English about the contemporary Chinese Bildungsroman Although various individual contemporary Chinese novelists and individual works of Chinese fiction have previously been discussed under the rubric of the Bildungsroman none of these efforts has approached the level of comprehensive and comparative analysis that this book brings to the genre and its social contexts in contemporary China This book will pique the interests not only of scholars and students of Chinese and comparative literature but also of historians and social scientists with an interest in the region
