The Technological State in Indonesia Sulfikar Amir,2012 Using a historical sociology approach this book illustrates the formation of the technological state in Indonesia during the New Order period 1966 1998 It explores the nexus between power high technology development and authoritarianism situated in the Southeast Asian context The book discusses how the New Order regime shifted from the developmental state to the technological state which was characterized by desire for technological supremacy The process resulted in the establishment of a host of technological institutions and the undertaking of large scale high tech programs Shedding light on the political dimension of socio technological transformation this book looks at the relationship between authoritarian politics and high technology development and examines how effectively technology serves to sustain legitimacy of an authoritarian power It explores into multiple features of the Indonesian technological state covering the ideology of development the politics of technocracy the institutional structure and the material and symbolic embodiments of high technology and goes on to discuss the impact of globalization on the technological state. The book is an important contribution to studies on Southeast Asian Politics, Development and Science Technology and Society (STS).

Reinventing Indonesia Ginandjar Kartasasmita, Joseph J Stern, 2015-06-24. Reinventing Indonesia presents an insider's view of the tumultuous transition that took place in Indonesia from 1997 to 2004. This was a period of unprecedented changes in democratized governance and decentralizing power throughout the country amidst significant economic turmoil. The results of these changes were not pre-ordained but were the result of the social forces unleashed by the Asian Financial Crisis and the end of the New Order as well as the deft guidance of key policymakers. The book also examines the origins of the economic crisis of the late 1990s in Indonesia and the actions taken to address the crisis during those difficult years. The authors were directly involved in many of the events recounted in this book, particularly Ginandjar Kartasasmita through his career in the Indonesian government under various ministerial positions. Thus the book provides insights that could only come from those directly involved in the decision making. It also explains the transitions that occurred in Indonesia in the context of academic theories of democratic transition and consolidation, thereby adding to the body of knowledge in this area. The Indonesian story holds lessons therefore for the management of financial crisis and for the urgency of reform and development of economic and political institutions.

Cultural Dynamics in a Globalized World Melani Budianta, Manneke Budiman, Abidin Kusno, Mikihiro Moriyama, 2017-12-14. The book contains essays on current issues in arts and humanities in which peoples and cultures compete as well as collaborate in globalizing the world while maintaining their uniqueness as viewed from cross and interdisciplinary perspectives. The book covers areas such as literature, cultural studies, archaeology, philosophy, history, language studies, information and literacy studies, and area studies. Asia and the Pacific are the particular regions that the conference focuses on as they have become new centers of knowledge production in arts and humanities and in the future seem to be able to grow significantly as a major contributor of culture, science and arts to the globalized world. The book will help shed light on what arts and humanities scholars in Asia and the Pacific have done in terms of research and knowledge development as well as the new frontiers of research that have been explored and opening up which can connect the two regions with the rest of the globe.
