Modern Islamic Literature James Kritzeck, 1972-12-01 Modern Islamic Literature James Kritzeck, 1970 Modern Islamic Literature from 1800 to the Present, 1972 Modern Islamic Literature: from 1800 to the Present. With an Introd. and Commentaries by James Kritzeck James Kritzeck (comp), The Literature of Islam Paula Youngman Skreslet, Rebecca Skreslet, 2006-09-20 This book introduces the literature of Islam as it is presented in English translation For scholars in other fields who need to understand the vast and complex literary heritage of this erudite and vigorous faith community but are unable to devote years of their lives to achieving a reading proficiency in classical Arabic for faculty members called upon to teach introductory or survey courses outside their own disciplines and for graduate students in theology medieval studies world religions or related fields who need access to these primary sources in English translation The Literature of Islam is a welcome resource Even lay readers who are interested in understanding the modern Arab or Islamic world may grasp something of the currents of thought and belief through the centuries that produced these important works which continue to exert a powerful influence upon Muslims today The primary literatures of Islam are normally classified into several areas of study the canonical literature the interpretation of scripture and tradition law theology philosophy history and mysticism Entries here are organized into these areas of study and represent the most significant texts from important trends in the discipline The volume also includes an extensive bibliography that lists the editions of primary sources analyzed in each chapter There are also some suggestions for secondary reading which might be helpful to a student seeking additional information about each genre of literature Contemporary Turkish Writers Louis Mitler, 1988 Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilisation and Religion Ian Richard Netton, 2013-12-19 The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides scholarly coverage of the religion culture and history of the Islamic world at a time when that world is undergoing considerable change and is a focus of international study and debate The non Muslim world's perceptions of Islam have often tended to be dominated by unrepresentative radical extremist movements and media interpretations of events involving such movements to the extent that many people are unaware of the depth and variety of Islamic thought At the same time many who have had a formal training in Islamic studies have tended to concentrate on the traditional to the exclusion of the contemporary The Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion covers the full range of Islamic thought in historical depth but it also provides substantial coverage of contemporary trends across the Muslim world With well over a thousand entries on Islamic theology history arts science law and institutions and coverage of Islam in individual countries and cities around the world the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion provides an extremely rich resource for students and researchers in religious studies and Middle Eastern studies Entries are cross referenced and bibliographies are provided There is a full index Routledge published The Quran An Encyclopedia in 2005 an excellent companion to the Encyclopedia of Islamic Civilization and Religion Voices of Islam Virginia G. Blakemore-Henry, Vincent

J. Cornell, Omid Safi, 2006-12-30 Despite frequent and extensive publications on Islam very few Americans indeed very few non Muslims truly understand the faith or the more than one billion adherents who live it This set presents the diversity and richness of Islam filling in the blanks and expanding our knowledge and understanding Portraying Muslims in all their humanity and diversity balances the images that have bombarded society and presents the reader with a fuller and more accurate picture of the Islamic faith and what it means to live as a Muslim in Muslim communities and as part of a broader tapestry of pluralism in the nations of the world What does it mean to share Muslim concerns To experience Muslim spirituality What is the difference between Sunni and Shiite sects Why do Muslims pray so frequently What is the reality of Muslim marriage and gender relations What is the meaning of jihad and martyrdom to a practicing Muslim What role do the arts and humanities play in modern Muslim life How are Islamic children raised These questions and others are answered in these volumes which bring together Muslim voices from around the world including men and women scholars and laypersons fundamentalists and progressives and others from various cultural political and Islamic backgrounds Personal experiences and poetry are included to illustrate the many different expressions of Islam

The Penguin Dictionary of Islam Azim Nanji, 2008-04-24 Islam today is a truly global faith yet it remains somewhat of an enigma to many of us Each and every day our newspapers are saturated with references to Islam Quran Taliban Hijab Fatwa Allah Sunni Jihad Shia the list goes on But how much do we really understand Are we in fact misunderstanding The Penguin Dictionary of Islam provides complete impartial answers It includes extensive coverage of the historical formations of the worldwide Muslim community and highlights key modern Muslim figures and events Understanding Islam is vital to understanding our world and this text is the definitive authority designed for both general and academic readers

Islam's Political Culture Nasim Ahmad Jawed, 2010-07-05 This book examines the political dimension of Islam in predivided Pakistan 1947 1971 one of the first new Muslim nations to commit itself to an Islamic political order and one in which the national debate on Islamic political and ideological issues has been the most persistent focused and rich of any dialogues in the contemporary Muslim world Nasim Jawed draws on the findings of a survey he conducted among two influential social groups the ulama traditional religious leaders and the modern professionals as well as on the writings of Muslim intellectuals He probes the major Islamic positions on critical issues concerning national identity the purpose of the state the form of government and free socialist and mixed economies This study contributes to an enhanced understanding of Islam s political culture worldwide since the issues positions and arguments are often similar across the Muslim world The empirical findings of the study not only outline the ideological backdrop of contemporary Islamic reassertion but also reveal diversity as well as tensions within it The Bruce B.

Lawrence Reader Bruce B. Lawrence,2020-12-18 Over the course of his career Bruce B Lawrence has explored the central elements of Islamic civilization and Muslim networks This reader assembles more than two dozen of Lawrence s key writings among them analyses of premodern and modern Islamic discourses practices and institutions and methodological reflections on the contextual study of religion Six methodologies serve as the organizing rubric theorizing Islam revaluing Muslim comparativists translating Sufism deconstructing religious modernity networking Muslims and reflecting on the Divine Throughout Lawrence attributes the resilience of Islam to its cosmopolitan character and Muslims engagement in cross cultural dialogue Several essays also address the central role of institutional Sufism in various phases and domains of Islamic history The volume concludes with Lawrence s reflections on Islam s spiritual and aesthetic resources in the context of global comity Modeling what it means to study Islam beyond political and disciplinary borders as well as a commitment to linking empathetic imagination with critical reflection this reader presents the broad arc of Lawrence s prescient contributions to the study of Islam Jerusalem: The Future of the Holy City for Three Monotheisms United States.

Congress. House. Foreign Affairs,1971 Oriental Responses to the West Nasrin Rahimieh,2023-10-20 Modern writers and scholars from the Islamic East have represented actual or fictional encounters with the West in a surprising variety of ways Far from constituting a mono lithic approach to the West as Western Orientalism often tended to these writings reveal an interest in and sometimes acute perception of cross cultural conflict and synthesis The very difficulties experienced by writers and critics immersed in two or more cultures have led to new creative and innovative forms of response to the West By shifting focus in East West relations towards the East it initiates further interdisciplinary discussions Modern Arabic

Literature Reuven Snir,2017-06-02 The study of Arabic literature is blossoming This book provides a comprehensive theoretical framework to help research this highly prolific and diverse production of contemporary literary texts Based on the achievements of historical poetics in particular those of Russian formalism and its theoretical legacy this framework offers flexible transparent and unbiased tools to understand the relevant contexts within the literary system The aim is to enhance our understanding of Arabic literature throw light on areas of literary production that traditionally have been neglected and stimulate others to take up the fascinating challenge of mapping out and exploring them No Shame for the Sun Shahla Haeri,2002-11-01 This groundbreaking work sheds new light on the status conflicts and social realities of educated Muslim women in Pakistan Six candid interviews introduce readers to a class of professional Muslim women that is rarely if ever acknowledged in the West These women tell of conflicts and compromises with family kin and community while facing violence archaic marriage rules and locally entrenched codes of conduct With brave eloquence they speak of human dignity and gender equality of economic deprivation and social justice and of feminism and fundamentalism Challenging stereotypes No Shame for the Sun reveals the uniqueness of each person and diversity in the life experience of Pakistani Muslim women including their world views and the struggles to change their society Through their struggles professional Pakistani women have become conscious of their own and other women s situations in their country Because they exercise power and authority in their chosen fields they risk losing their families support and antagonizing their communities Carefully detailed and meticulously researched this book offers a much needed perspective on the changing circumstances of Pakistani women along with a view of established patterns and structural constraints within Pakistan On a broader level it examines Western misconceptions regarding Islam a religion that crosses many borders and cultures
