North Africa The Making of a Pariah State Martin Sicker, 1987-03-04 The Making of a Pariah State takes the reader behind the flamboyance and apparent irrationality of Libyan leader Muammar Qaddafi to expose his attempt to impose national cohesion on the Arab Muslim and Third World elements under his leadership Addressed to the general reader interested in foreign affairs this timely and unique book provides a coherent framework for understanding why Libya is involved in international terrorism and the danger Qaddafi poses to the Third World and the West Economic Crisis and Political Change in North Africa Azzedine Layachi, 1998-10-28 A collective effort by American and North African scholars this volume provides a comprehensive analysis of recent economic social and political events in North Africa It shows how the Maghrebi states and societies are currently at a very important junction as they try to adjust to different ways of doing things in new regional and international orders Using a political economy approach the book focuses on a series of issues raised by the interaction between economic crisis and reform on the one hand and political change or stagnation on the other The author and his contributors provide a comprehensive and up to date survey of particular value to scholars and researchers of the Arab world in general and North Africa in particular The Military and Modernization Henry Bienen, 2017-07-05 There is a growing body of work on the military in developing countries Few studies have explored in depth questions concerning the social origins of officers and enlisted men or trace career patterns within the armed forces of the developing world With the exception of Latin America it has been rare for a study to assess the performance of ruling or non ruling militaries for political development and modernization of their societies This oversight is exactly what Henry Bienen addresses in this collection
