Literature of the Early Twentieth Century: From the Constitutional Period to Reza Shah A. A. Seyed-Gohrab, 2015-07-22 The eleventh volume in this ground breaking series pays special attention to politically engaged poetry written during a turbulent period which saw the Constitutional Revolution in Iran as well as the rise to power of Reza Shah and his attempts to implement reform Throughout this time poets began to turn their attention towards the country's ordinary people rather than concentrate on its elites This volume also examines the prose fiction of the period which saw the rise of the novel and short story Additionally Persian satire began to grow in importance especially with the increased popularity of poets and novelists such as Iraj Mirza and Sadeq Hedayat This wide ranging volume is an invaluable companion for anyone who wants to understand how the Persian literary scene changed at the beginning of the twentieth century reflecting the social and political contexts in which this literature was created

Islamic Literature Lucy Sackett Smith, 2017-07-15 Written in various languages on multiple continents and over many centuries Islamic literature encompasses a rich and varied body of texts While mention is made of key historical and religious works this volume focuses on poetry and literary prose whether popular or courtly in inspiration Topics covered include dominant genres recurring patterns in imagery the influence of pre Islamic Arabian literature and the periods of development that Islamic literature passed through from the seventh century CE to the present day This insightful and wide ranging overview introduces readers to authors such as Yunus Emre Rumi afef and Fuzuli of Baghdad An invaluable resource

Women, Religion and Culture in Iran Sarah Ansari, Vanessa Martin, 2014-05-01 Investigates how women religion and culture have interacted in the context of 19th and 20th century Iran covering topics as seemingly diverse as the social and cultural history of Persian cuisine the work and attitudes of 19th century Christian missionaries the impact of growing female literacy and the consequences of developments since 1979

World Literature and Hedayat's Poetics of Modernity Omid Azadibougar, 2020-02-01 This book introduces the canonical figure Sadeq Hedayat 1903 1951 and draws a comprehensive image of a major intellectual force in the context of both modern Persian Literature and World Literature A prolific writer known for his magnum opus The Blind Owl 1936 Hedayat established the use of common language for literary purposes opened new horizons on imaginative literature and explored a variety of genres in his creative career This book looks beyond the reductive critical tendencies that read a rich and diverse literary profile in light of Hedayat's suicide arguing instead that his literary imagination was not solely the result of genius but rather enriched by a vast network of the world's literary traditions This study reflects on Hedayat's attempts at various genres of artistic creation including painting fiction writing satire and scholarly research as well as his persistent struggles for artistic authenticity which transcended solidly established literary and artistic norms Providing a critical reading of Hedayat's work to untangle aspects of his writing including reflections on science religion nationalism and coloniality alongside his pioneering work on folk culture and how humor informs his writings this text offers a critical review of the status of Persian literature in the contemporary landscape of the world's literary studies

Iran and The West Cyrus Ghani, 2013-09-05 First Published in 1987 this volume offers a bibliography of biographies autobiographies and books on contemporary politics by prominent 20th century figures on the topic of Iran

World View in Pre-revolutionary Iran Claus V. Pedersen, 2002 The Iranian revolution of 1978 1979 and its transformation into an Islamic revolution has been an object of study the last couple of decades The book does not attempt to explain the revolution and the theocracy it resulted in but takes interest in the modes of thought world views that preceded the revolution in order to understand the cultural context in which the revolution happened However only a limited part of the Iranian culture is studied namely the literary part more precisely five of the leading shortstory writers Seyyed Mohammad Al Jamalzadeh Sadeq Hedayat Sadeq Chubak Jamal Ale Ahmad and Hu ang Gol hiri The analyses of the short stories show that the underlying world views are strictly secular As a contextualisation of the literary works four Iranian thinkers and ideologists Jamal al Din Afghani 1838 1897 Ahmad Kasravi 1890 1946 Seyyed Hoseyn Nasr b 1933 and Ali hariati 1933 1977 are presented With Seyyed Hoseyn Nasr as an exception the study of the world views of these four shows a development towards secular modes of thought Iran Homa Katouzian,2013-03-05 This book offers a view of Iran through politics history and literature showing how the three angles combine Iran being a revolutionary society experienced two great revolutions within the short span of just seventy years from the 1900s to the 1970s Both were massive revolts of the society against the state the main objective of the first being to establish lawful government to make modernisation possible and the second to overthrow the absolute and arbitrary state though this time mainly under the banner of religion and Marxism Leninism and anti Westernism Neither of them succeeded in their lofty ideals for reasons that are explained and analysed within The author also offers a detailed description of Iran s short term society examining the political and intellectual lives of two of the most remarkable intellectuals cum politicians of the twentieth century This book provides an overview of modern Persian literature both poetry and prose and discusses the works of three of the most remarkable Persian poets and writers of the period It considers classical Persian literature through the great variety of its form and substance and neo classical literary developments in the nineteenth century covering the whole history of Persian literature This is crowned in the last chapter by the love poetry of one of the greatest Persian poets Iran will be of interest to students and scholars of Iranian studies and Middle East Politics University of Michigan Official Publication University of Michigan,1973 Each number is the catalogue of a specific school or college of the University 2000-2999, Language and literature Princeton University. Library,1920 Iranian Folk Narrative Juliet Radhayrapetian,2016-10-04 For centuries Iran hosted numerous travellers and visitors of diverse nationalities and backgrounds Many of these travellers left behind documents in which they recorded their observations during their residence in Iran and these embody a vast range of firsthand information about the land and its people at different periods of time This book first published in 1990 takes as its subjects the nature and history of Iranian folk narrative scholarship The contributions of travellers are given their due recognition as important source documents Oriental Responses to the West Nasrin Rahimieh,2023-10-20 Modern writers and scholars from the Islamic East have represented actual or fictional encounters with the West in a surprising variety of ways Far from constituting a mono lithic approach to the West as Western Orientalism often tended to these writings reveal an interest in and sometimes acute perception of cross cultural conflict and synthesis The very difficulties experienced by writers and critics immersed in two or more cultures have led to new creative and innovative forms of response to the West By shifting focus in East West relations towards the East it initiates further interdisciplinary discussions
