success only to find it an empty and shapeless place After a heavy bout of despair Brig turned to his faith which had been shelved like a dusty old book He sensed God asking him are you interested in a new approach Having nothing to lose he gave his life to Christ and in doing so gave Him the business as well Over time Brig realized that he like everyone is greatly loved by God In Moving Forward Brig gives us an inside look into his very average life as God unearths truth knowledge and lessons from a past full of hurt and pain Drawing from biblical principles and past mistakes and hardships Brig shows us that we can stop believing the lies others tell us and the lies we tell ourselves that we are not worthy or capable of a more meaningful life Instead we all have the ability to move forward and make something great of our lives if we are willing to trust in God's direction and use the specific talents he has given to each of us Moving Forward Karine

Young, 2016-01-11 Overture Theater music and the problem of Spanish nationalism Theatrical and political revolutions in nineteenth century Spain Urban life on the Spanish musical stage Staging history staging national identity Regenerationism Viennese operetta and Spanish nationalism The romance of rural Spain and the failure of the restoration settlement Zarzuela and the operatic tradition Classicism and historicism "Same Is Better" Cari Myers, 2022-10-31 As younger generations drift away from evangelical churches the number of religiously unaffiliated young adults grows Is the drift because of politics personal morality rebelliousness culture wars or something else In this project 16 young adults from the Churches of Christ participate in qualitative interviews over a five year span They describe messages they learned about success and survival from their faith communities as children and how they have embraced and reinterpreted those messages into helpful life principles as adults The resulting study explores issues of ethnicity in evangelical borderland communities and contrasts Latinx narratives with white narratives in religious and educative contexts Findings also revealed gendered narratives class based narratives and the glaring absence of helpful narratives around sexuality filtered through the lenses of religion and education The central finding of the interviews is this participants experienced the Church of Christ as rewarding conformity with community a strategy when it works which secures the future of the denomination and cements a conservative doctrine in the next generation of leadership However the study concludes that true survival narratives were the narratives participants constructed in response to the narratives provided by Churches of Christ
