Two Ways of Light James N. Judd,2000-10-01 There is an unique relationship that exists between the Jewish mystical teachings of Kabbalah and the highest spiritual philosophy of the Hindus the Vedanta Outwardly they appear to be vastly different but study them analyze them come to understand what they are really saying and the similarities become obvious And such a study is not just an academic exercise for it will be found that these ancient teachings not only augment each other in providing answers to the questions of life but they also contain some very practical advice that can bring a greater measure of harmony in the conducting of our daily affairs Kabbalah and Vedanta can be called unique as The dedicated proponents of each one hold that theirs is the earliest spiritual teaching in the world Neither teaching owes its origin to any single person Neither can be called a separate religion in the sense of having its own set of man made creeds and dogmas The profundity of their wisdom can be considered as equal In this book Two Ways of Light Dr Judd devotes the first two chapters in examining the six principles common to all kabbalistic schools of thought and the three essential points of Vedanta The third chapter shows the intrinsic harmony that exists between Kabbalah and Vedanta by comparing the six principles with the three points And the fourth chapter illustrates the practical value of both teachings through commentaries on kabbalistic verses that compare to the individual verses of a Vedantic scripture the Isha Upanishad Finally in the fifth chapter will be found not only the reasons for the basic harmony that exists between these two ancient spiritual philosophies and the major world religions but also the relevance they have for us today This book will be of interest for 1 Those who wish to have a greater understanding of Kabbalah and or Vedanta and 2 Those who are looking for greater spiritual meaning in their lives

Philosophy Qabbala and Ved nta Comparative Metaphysics and Ethics Retionalism and Mysticism of the Jews the Hindus and Most of the Historic Nations as Links and Developments of One Chain of Universal Philosophy The pioneer philologist and philosopher Frederick Schlegel correctly surmised in his linguistic studies that human speech human thought and human motives have really but one root one sap and one goal all basing and all culminating in monotheism In his work on Indian Language Literature and Philosophy p He says It cannot be denied that the early Indians possessed a knowledge of the true God All their writings are replete with such sentiments and utterances noble clear and austere grand as deeply conceived and reverentially expressed as in any human language The same writer again speaking of Hindu philosophy says The divine origin of man is there continually inculcated to stimulate his efforts to animate him in the struggle to consider a reunion and reincorporation with his divine origin as the one primary Object Of his exertions About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Kabbalah Adolphe Franck,1926 Two Ways of Light: Kabbalah and Vedanta James N. and 2 Those who are looking for greater spiritual meaning in their lives Essays on Vedanta and Western Philosophies Arun Chatterjee, 2018-07-10 Philosophical issues such as reality and appearance God and world self and not self rebirth and immortality free will and determination mysticism etc have been examined by eastern and western philosophers as far back as the sages of Upanishads 700 BCE in the East and Plato 400 BCE in the West However there was no significant communication among the philosophers of the East and West perhaps until the eighteenth century Arthur Schopenhauer 1788 1860 was one of the first among the great western philosophers to recognize the value of Indian philosophies Despite the lack of communication there are striking similarities of concepts and issues addressed by Indian and western philosophies Also interesting is how similar are the mystical versions of different religions of the East and West The author Dr Arun Chatterjee has attempted to bring out the similarities and differences in various chapters of this book dealing with different topics Among Indian philosophies the focus is on Vedanta philosophy and the views of Sri Aurobindo 1872 1950 The views of Swami Vivekananda 1863 1902 also are presented Other Indian philosophies such as Sankhya and Buddhism are discussed briefly Among western religions Judaism Christianity and Islam are discussed
