(Reprinted from the Times Magazine of January 18, 1948.).* John Robinson JEFFERS, 1949 The Wild God of the World Robinson Jeffers, 2003-01-15 The forgotten giant of American poetry For those who would discover Jeffers this is the place to start and a place to return again and again Tim Hunt Washington State University Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 is not only the greatest poet that the American West has produced but also a major poet of the twentieth century in the tradition of American prophetic poetry This anthology serves as an introduction to Jeffers's work for the general reader and for students in courses on American poetry Jeffers composed each volume of his verse around one or two long narrative or dramatic poems The Wild God of the World follows this practice in it Cawdor one of Jeffers's most powerful narratives is surrounded by a representative selection of shorter poems At the end of the book the editor has provided revealing statements about Jeffers's poetry and poetics and about his philosophy of nature and human nature Of all the poets of his generation Robinson Jeffers made our relation to this earth and sea and sky and wheeling seasons and the evolutionary processes that made trees and salmon runs and hunting hawks his subject As that relation grows more troubled his words become more necessary To have this beautifully edited and freshly seen anthology is a gift Robert Hass University of California Berkeley Centennial Essays for Robinson Jeffers Robert Zaller, 1991 This work is the first volume of critical essays devoted to the poetry of Robinson Jeffers Although Jeffers was likened to some of the greatest figures in the literary world his work was controversial His preoccupation with violence and sexuality was denounced by some his alleged blasphemy by others Condemned by moralists Marxists and Cold Warriors alike Jeffers fell into obscurity until his death in 1962 Included are nine original essays by leading Jeffers scholars Wild Anthropocene Louise Economides, 2025-04-17 Wild Anthropocene examines four key areas the politics of deep time neoliberalism's socio ecological impacts global population growth and inter species entanglement to demonstrate how literature illuminates progressive solutions to Anthropocene challenges The book argues that technological mitigation of contemporary environmental crises must be complimented by a politics committed to multispecies justice Central to this new politics is the project of reimagining our relationship with time as something other than its status within capitalist praxis The book brings together poetry and fiction written by a diverse range of writers to demonstrate how contemporary literature addresses important connections between social oppression and environmental issues It also critiques techno managerial visions of the future that celebrate humanity's ever growing control over ecosystems by examining multiple sources of wildness temporal environmental and technological that expose the problematic ideology underwriting such aspirations Readers will be introduced to a way of understanding the Anthropocene that while being informed by recent discoveries in earth science and evolutionary biology also makes a strong case for humanities based understanding of environmental politics This interdisciplinary text will be a useful addition to theoretical discussions on the Anthropocene for scholars researchers and students in the environmental humanities literary studies ecocriticism and environmental philosophy

Towers of Myth and Stone Deborah Fleming, 2015-09-15 In this critical study of the influence of W B Yeats 1865 1939 on the poetry and drama of Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 Deborah Fleming examines similarities in imagery landscape belief in eternal recurrence use of myth distrust of rationalism and dedication to tradition Although Yeats's and Jeffers's styles differed widely Towers of Myth and Stone examines how the two men shared a vision of modernity rejected contemporary values in favor of traditions some of their own making and created poetry that sought to change those values Jeffers's well known opposition to modernist poetry forced him for decades to the margins of critical appraisal where he was seen as an eccentric without aesthetic content Yet both Yeats and Jeffers formulated social and poetic philosophies that continue to find relevance in critical and cultural theory Engaging Yeats's work enabled Jeffers to develop a related though distinct sense of what themes and subject matter were best suited for poetic endeavor His connection to Yeats helps to explain the nature of Jeffers's poetry even as it helps to clarify Yeats's influence on those who followed him Moreover Fleming argues Jeffers's interest in Yeats suggests that critics misunderstand Jeffers if they take his rejection of modernism as exemplified by Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound as a rejection of contemporary poetry or the process by which modern poetry came into being

Poesía Española Angel Flores, 1998-01-01 Presents more than two hundred poems by sixteen Spanish and Latin American poets from the Renaissance and baroque periods and the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in Spanish and in English translations by noted poets

Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Isabel Sobral Campos, 2018-12-27 Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Critical Essays surveys ecopoetry from a global perspective across different historical epochs Its comparative approach foregrounds the importance of ecopoetics within the context of distinct national literatures and cultures to reveal the ubiquitous intersection of poetry with ecocriticism The collection analyzes environmental problems resulting from the legacies of colonialism and focuses on issues of environmental justice and indigenous issues as well as on the intersection of genocide studies and environmentalism It also examines ecologically informed modes of relating to the world In particular it engages with interactions between the human and nonhuman as well as mind and matter Finally it broadens the scope of place to include both the absent land of exiled peoples and the urban built environment Darwin's Bards John Holmes,2013-10-16 A comprehensive study of Darwin s legacy for religion ecology and the arts Includes over 50 complete poems and long extracts with an interpretative framework and close readings Poets examined include Tennyson Browning Hardy Frost Ted Hughes Pattia Two Minds of a Western Poet David Mason,2011 Meditations on the life of poetry by an award winning poet Fifty Books of the Year 1949, 1950 Exhibition American Institute of Graphic Arts,1950

Robinson Jeffers and the American Sublime Robert Zaller,2012-01-25 Robinson Jeffers and the American Sublime is the most comprehensive and most substantial critical work ever devoted to the major American poet Robinson Jeffers 1887 1962 Jeffers the best known poet of California and the American West particularly valorized the Big Sur region making it his own as Frost did New England and Faulkner Mississippi and connecting it to the wider tradition of the American sublime in Emerson Thoreau and John Muir The book also links Jeffers to a Puritan sublime in early American verse and explores his response to the Darwinian and Freudian revolutions and his engagement with modern astronomy This discussion leads to a broad consideration of Jeffers focus on the figure of Christ as emblematic of the human aspiration toward God a God whom Jeffers defines not in Christian terms but in those of an older materialist pantheism and of modern science The later sections of the book develop a conspectus of the democratic sublime that addresses American exceptionalism through the prism of Jeffers Jeffersonian ethos A final chapter places Jeffers poetic thought in the larger cosmological perspective he sought in his late works Jeffers Bill Hotchkiss,1975 Poetry, Gongorism, and a Thousand Years Robinson Jeffers,1948

Jeffers Studies ,2007 Robinson Jeffers Mercedes Cunningham Monjian,2012-01-12 Robinson Jeffers name has been so inseparably linked with California that it is difficult to think of his origins being elsewhere Jeffers was both in 1887 in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania His father was a professor at Western Theological Seminary and a scholar of ancient languages who taught his son to read Greek before he started school In 1902 Jeffers enrolled in the University of Western Pennsylvania now the University of Pittsburgh but his family moved to California soon thereafter and he graduated from Occidental College at the age of eighteen Inhumanism was the label Jeffers first used in the preface to The Double Axe and Other Poems to explain the doctrine that permeates all of his poetry Defining humanism as a system of thinking in which man his interests and development are made dominant his addition of the negative prefix was his attempt to subdue human interests and development to something greater contrasting them against the magnificent beauty and immense worth of the natural world In addition to discussing Jeffers life and philosophy Monjian analyzes the form and style of his poetry calling it a singular style slashing its way across the page with violence of image and a free crashing rhythm She ends the book Whatever the future holds for this poet our own age is still awed by the magnificent talent and effort of a burdened mind struggling to free humanity from the shackles of an impoverished self love and the myths to which he believes it gave birth A Poetry of Two

Minds Sherod Santos, 2000 In his long awaited first book of prose poet and essayist Sherod Santos takes a compelling look into some of poetry's deepest secrets an investigation that leads him to the surprising conclusion that poems have minds of their own minds often inaccessible even to the one who composed them In these essays Santos explores not only what he thinks about poetry but also what and how poetry thinks about itself His writings range across the history of Western poetry from formative classical myths to modern experimental forms and touch on subjects as diverse as the rhetorical history of cannibalism the political and cultural uses of translation and the current state of American poetry Along the way he calls on past poets like Ovid Baudelaire and Phyllis Wheatley on twentieth century poets like Wallace Stevens H D and Rainer Maria Rilke and on writers and thinkers like Montaigne Walter Benjamin Simone Weil and Paul de Man These essays explore facets of poetry known best to one who has practiced the art for years From the methods of poetic attention to the processes by which perception is transformed into language and from the illusive relationship between poetry and meaning to the integral relationship between poetry and memory this collection delves into what it means to be a poet and how being a poet is intimately tied to one's social and cultural moment With Santos's trademark flair for seeking out the overlooked and unforeseeable A Poetry of Two Minds is an extraordinary collection that testifies to its author's far reaching intellectual curiosity Readers who have delighted in his insights over the years can now have the satisfaction of having them caught between the covers of this provocative book
