The image is a book cover for 'RABBITS'. It features a central illustration of rabbits in a field of tall grass, split into two panels by a vertical line. The left panel shows three rabbits: a large grey one in the background, a smaller grey one in the middle, and a black and white spotted one in the foreground. The right panel shows a large white rabbit in the background, a black and white spotted one in the middle, and a small black one in the foreground. The rabbits are depicted in a traditional Japanese style with soft, blended colors. The background is a warm, brownish-orange color with dark, thin lines representing grass blades. The title 'RABBITS' is written in a large, white, serif font across the top of the illustration. Below the illustration, there is a horizontal band with the text 'Panels from a Japanese Screen Painting' in a black, serif font.
