Race And Class The Dialectics Of Justice:

The Dialectics of Global Justice Bryant William Sculos, 2022-07-01 The Dialectics of Global Justice uses a novel application of negative dialectical interpretation to offer an immanent and ethical critique of prominent theories of global justice i e cosmopolitanism including how these theories manifest in political movements and policy agendas Drawing on the work of Theodor Adorno and Erich Fromm especially author Bryant William Sculos exposes the contradictory relationship between cosmopolitanism and core elements of capitalism particularly the domineering capitalistic mentality re produced by and through capitalism leading to the conclusion that cosmopolitanism on its own terms demands an alternative postcapitalistic political basis in order to make robust progress toward global justice While offering this critique Sculos also implicitly challenges the increasingly common view that cosmopolitanism today is inherently imperialistic and out of touch with the global resurgence of nationalism and anti cosmopolitan sentiment Race, Crime, and Justice Shaun Gabbidon, Helen Taylor Greene, 2013-10-18 A comprehensive collection of the essential writings on race and crime this important Reader spans more than a century and clearly demonstrates the long standing difficulties minorities have faced with the justice system The editors skillfully draw on the classic work of such thinkers as W E B DuBois and Gunnar Myrdal as well as the contemporary work of scholars such as Angela Davis Joan Petersilia John Hagen and Robert Sampson This anthology also covers all of the major topics and issues from policing courts drugs and urban violence to inequality racial profiling and capital punishment This is required reading for courses in criminology and criminal justice legal studies Black Women and The Criminal Justice System Biko Agozino, 2018-12-14 First sociology social work and race published in 1997 this book identifies the problems that face black women in the criminal justice system as the result of the articulation of unequal and oppressive class race and gender relations the research aims to be aware of all three rather than prioritising isolating or reducing one or two of these relations The focus of this research primarily on black women is based on the belief that they are marginalised in both society and criminological research Black women are poorly represented in education employment the professions commerce industry and politics while in prison their presence is highly disproportionate to their wider numbers in society The author examines the problems facing black women and compares these with those facing black men and white women to demonstrate the articulation of social relations He addresses the structural positions of black women in society their social relations and the nature of the institutional practices of the criminal justice system Race, Curriculum, and the Politics of Educational Justice Wayne Au, 2025-09-26 This one of a kind collection will help today s educators feel and understand the power that communities can harness through organizing and solidarity This volume highlights some of Wayne Au s most impactful essays and articles across his 25 years as an educator activist and scholar In this carefully curated collection Au traces the development of his politics and analyses of schooling education policy curriculum and racialization Featuring concrete examples chapters address antiracist education and the politics of knowledge the racial politics of high stakes testing and neoliberal education reforms and the racialization of Asian Americans as a model minority and its connection to anti Blackness Importantly this book illustrates the power of writing for different audiences by placing scholarly essays alongside those written for teachers parents and community members while also linking educational activism with educational research In addition to providing a broad examination of the politics of curriculum and educational policy in America Book Features Written by an internationally known scholar in the areas of curriculum multicultural and antiracist education high stakes testing and neoliberal reforms racial justice and critical education Provides a model for how to translate educational research and analysis between academic and public discourses embodying the intersections of theory practice and justice Combines searing political analysis of education with the hope offered through activism solidarity and educational justice Race, Class, Gender, and Justice in the United States Charles E. presented in an accessible fashion to encourage engagement of students activists and scholars with these important lines of inquiry Issues are analyzed utilizing various theories for furthering engagement in possibilities Struggles for justice from legal cases to on the ground movements are presented for historical context and to inform the way forward Racial Dialectics Richard A. Jones, 2015-12-07 Postmodern Racial Dialectics is a collection of ten essays on African American philosophy Addressing issues as disparate as why there are no graduate programs in philosophy at the more than one hundred traditionally black colleges and universities in the U S to conceptions of Black utopianism to the nature of postmodern revolutions these essays are beyond the bounds of traditional racial discourse The essays are dialectical in the sense that they are conversations between personal histories between ideologies and between changing ways that the races talk to one another The book is postmodern in that it is beyond modernity s linear logic Postmodern Racial Dialectics is also a political entreaty for African Americans to be wary of conventional ways of thinking and to begin thinking transgressively beyond narrowly prescribed conceptions from both sides of the color line King and the Other America Sylvie Laurent, 2019-01-08 Shortly before his assassination Martin Luther King Jr called for a radical redistribution of economic and political power to transform the whole of society In 1967 he envisioned and designed the Poor People's Campaign an interracial effort that was carried out after his death This campaign brought together impoverished Americans of all races to demand better wages better jobs better homes and better education King and the Other America explores this overlooked and obscured episode of the late civil rights movement deepening our understanding of King's commitment to social justice and also of the long term trajectory of the civil rights movement Digging into earlier radical arguments about economic inequality across America which King drew on throughout his entire political and religious life Sylvie Laurent argues that the Poor People's Campaign was the logical culmination of King's influences and ideas which have had lasting impact on young activists and the public Fifty years later growing inequality and grinding poverty in the United States have spurred new efforts to rejuvenate the campaign This book draws the connections between King's perceptive thoughts on substantive justice and the ongoing quest for equality for all Responding to the Call for Educational Justice L. Mickey Fenzel, Melodie Wyttenbach, 2018-10-01 The work presented in this volume attests to the innovative and successful educational alternatives designed and implemented by Catholic religious groups to improve educational career and life outcomes for urban children adolescents and adults placed at risk These efforts have helped thousands of urban citizens break away from the chains of poverty and poor academic preparation to succeed in high school and beyond and secure a place of meaning and influence in adult society In this volume we examine the contributions of networks of schools such as NativityMiguel and Cristo Rev schools in the U S and Canada and Fe y Alegr a based in South America and operating in multiple countries as well as more local initiatives. There is much to be learned from these initiatives that can improve urban education and this edited volume provides this opportunity to educators planners funders and others who are inclined to invest in effective urban education

Carpenter, 2021-08-03 In today s society many including Christians want to be woke But has woke become simply another religion another ploy of Satan's to shred the fabric of Christianity As woke critical theory seeps through the teachings of the Church many Christians are being misled by their own spiritual leaders to take part in the newest attempt for their souls In Woke Religion Unmasking the False Gospel of Social Justice Wes Carpenter unashamedly addresses these heretical teachings calling on those in spiritual authority to deny woke philosophies and cling to the teachings of Scripture Follow Wes as he takes the reader from the stirrings of woke critical theory in Church history to the teachings that are pervading the Church Handbook of Gender Studies in the Dutch Caribbean ,2024-04-30 Edited by Rose Mary Allen and Sruti Bala this comprehensive handbook of gender studies scholarship on the Dutch Caribbean islands thematically covers the history of movements for gender equality the relation of gender to race colonialism sexuality and the arts and popular culture The handbook offers unparalleled insights into a century of debates around gender from the six islands of the Dutch Caribbean Cura ao Bonaire Aruba St Maarten St Eustatius and Saba This handbook makes gender studies in the Dutch Caribbean accessible to an international readership Besides key academic writings it includes primary historical sources translations from Papiamento and Dutch as well as personal memoirs and poetry Multiculturalism, Dialectical Thought, and Social Justice Pedagogy Daniel Ian Rubin, 2017-02-01 This monograph lays out a qualitative collective case study designed to assess how students in a secondary Latina Latino Literature class began to think dialectically about issues of social justice By using various methods of data collection I ascertained how the students thoughts and perceptions of Latinas Latinos in this country changed over the course of the study I introduced the students to both print and nonprint texts e g news articles documentary films which when presented through Karl Marx s dialectical method helped them see social justice issues such as racism poverty and subjugation more clearly and critically After analysis several important themes emerged from the data stereotyping and invisibility in the media immigration the notion of power racism and discrimination education anger and frustration and questioning By the end of the Latina Latino Literature class all of the students in the study were able to identify particular social justice issues explain the historical context which framed the current debates e g immigration reform and articulate their opinions of the issues Each student participant started to use social justice terminology which I introduced and used frequently in class e g equity and these words became a part of the students everyday vocabularies Furthermore by the completion of the class the student participants began to realize that they had their own individual voices and could help transform societal issues in order to make the United States more equitable for all Intersectionality and Criminology Hillary Potter, 2015-05-15 The use of intersectionality theory in the social sciences has proliferated in the past several years putting forward the argument that the interconnected identities of individuals and the way these identities are perceived and responded to by others must be a necessary part of any analysis Fundamentally intersectionality claims that not only are people s lived experiences affected by their racial identity and by their gender identity but that these identities and others continually operate together and affect each other With official statistical data that indicate people of Color have higher offending and victimization rates than White people and with the overrepresentation of men and people of Color in the criminal legal system new theories are required that address these phenomena and that are devoid of stereotypical or debasing underpinnings Intersectionality and Criminology provides a comprehensive review of the need for and use of intersectionality in the study of crime criminality and the criminal legal system This is essential reading for academics and students researching and studying in the fields of crime criminal justice theoretical criminology and gender race and socioeconomic class Mass Supervision Vincent Schiraldi, 2023-09-12 With a foreword by Bruce Western Named one of the Best Books of the Year by NPR Shortlisted 2024 Stephan Russo Book Prize for Social Justice The most comprehensive critique of probation and parole and a provocative and compelling argument for abolishing both from the former Probation Commissioner of New York City Imagine if probation didn t exist And I came to you with 80 million and 30 000 people the courts considered troubled and troubling And you could do anything you wanted with that money to make New York City safer and help people turn their lives around Would you go out and hire a thousand civil service protected bureaucrats to supervise people as they piss in a cup once a week and to tell them to go forth and sin no more Vincent Schiraldi s Job Interview with NYC Mayor Mike Bloomberg We ve heard a lot in recent years about the nearly 2 1 million people incarcerated in American prisons and jails But what about the approximately 4 million more who are on probation and parole monitored by the state at great expense and at risk of being sent to prison at the whim of a probation or parole officer for the least imaginable infraction Vincent Schiraldi was New York City probation commissioner under Mayor Bloomberg supervising a system charged with monitoring 30 000 people on a daily basis In Mass Supervision he combines firsthand experience with deep research on the inadequately explored practices of probation and parole to illustrate how these forms of state supervision have strayed from their original goal of providing constructive and rehabilitative alternatives to prison They have become instead Schiraldi argues a recidivism trap for people trying to lead productive lives in the wake of a criminal conviction Schiraldi offers the first full and up to date account of these two key aspects of our criminal justice system showing that these practices increase incarceration have little impact on crime rates and needlessly disrupt countless lives Ultimately he argues that they should be dramatically downsized or even abolished completely Research Studies on Educating for Diversity and Social Justice Ashraf Esmail, Abul Pitre, Darren E. Lund, H. Prentice Baptiste, Gwendolyn Duhon-Owens, 2018-08-24 In the 21st century issues around diversity and social justice have become popular buzz words in the educational discourse This volume moves beyond popular buzz to critically explore issues of diversity and social justice through research studies that capture the complexity of educating in the 21st century Drawing from a wide range of topics such as race gender sexual orientation social class language parental involvement and special needs along with other issues this volume pushes the boundaries of exploring diversity and social justice through the lens of intersectionality It will be
