Race In Britain Continuity Change:

Race in Britain, 1980 Race, Faith and Planning in Britain Richard Gale, Huw Thomas, 2020-09-21 Race Faith and Planning in Britain adopts a Critical Race Theory perspective to analyse and discuss challenges of planning in contemporary multi ethnic Britain Exploring how planning is affected by and affects the racialisation of social relations this book charts the history of the UK planning system s approach in terms of the spatial consequences of immigration and discourses of diversity cohesion citizenship and belonging Authors Richard Gale and Huw Thomas pay special attention to the experiences of minority groups in Britain including Gypsies and Travellers and British Muslims They underline that the struggle over planning in racialised societies must be construed as part of a wider political struggle over equality This book is an essential read for students and practitioners of planning in multi cultural contexts Race, War and Nationalism Glenford D.

Howe, 2002 Glenford Howe s social history of the soldiers of the British West Indies Regiment assesses the impact of World War One on West Indian history and reveals the true nature of military relations and the gradual decline in morale

Citizenship and Immigration in Postwar Britain Randall Hansen, 2000-06-01 In this contentious and ground breaking study the author draws on extensive archival research to provide a new account of the transformation of the United Kingdom into a multicultural society through an analysis of the evolution of immigration and citizenship policy since 1945 Against the prevailing academic orthodoxy he argues that British immigration policy was not racist but both rational and liberal In this ground breaking book the author draws extensively on archival material and theoretical advances in the social science literature Citizenship and Immigration in Post war Britain examines the transformation since 1945 of the UK from a homogeneous into a multicultural society Rejecting a dominant strain of sociological and historical inquiry emphasizing state racism Hansen argues that politicians and civil servants were overall liberal relative to the public to which they owed their office and that they pursued policies that were rational for any liberal democratic politician He explains the trajectory of British migration and nationality policy its exceptional liberality in the 1950s its restrictiveness after then and its tortured and seemingly racist definition of citizenship The combined effect of a 1948 imperial definition of citizenship adopted independently of immigration and a primary commitment to migration from the Old Dominions locked British politicians into a series of policy choices resulting in a migration and nationality regime that was not racist in intention but was racist in effect In the context of a liberal elite and an illiberal public Britain s current restrictive migration policies result not from the failing of its policy makers but from those of its institutions 'Race', Sport and British Society Ben Carrington, Ian

McDonald, 2002-01-04 Contrary to the popular belief that sport is an arena largely free from the corrosive effects of racism this book argues that racism is evident throughout British sport From playing fields and boardrooms of sports organisations to the offices of sports policy makers and the media this book breaks new ground in showing how discourses of race and nation continue to pervade our sporting life Looking at a range of sports including football rugby league and cricket this book covers key topics such as British nationalism and nationalist ideology racial science and the images of Asian and black physicality sport racism and the law black feminism and the issues of race gender and sport the role of the media in perpetuating and challenging racial stereotypes Challenging the prevailing liberal view that sport is one area of society where good race relations are developed this book offers a wealth of research material and a strong theoretical perspective on contemporary British sport It will therefore be of vital interest to sociologists sports studies students sport policy makers and anyone with an interest in contemporary British sport

Commission for Racial Equality Ray Honeyford, 2017-11-30 In the United Kingdom as in the United States race relations are surrounded with taboos defined by the politically correct concepts of what Ray Honeyford calls the race relations lobby This lobby championed by the Commission for Racial Equality CRE has a vested interest in depicting the United Kingdom as a society rotten with endemic racism and its ethnic minorities as victims doomed to failure An outgrowth of the Race Relations Act of 1976 the Commission was founded in response to worthy concerns about race and patterned after its American prototype the Congress of Racial Equality Its constant demands for increased powers have only increased with the coming into power of the New Labour Party That makes Ray Honeyford's critique all the more urgent Honeyford exposes the policies and practices of the Commission to public view encouraging informed debate about its need to exist The CRE possesses considerable legal powers powers which seriously undermine the great freedoms of association contract and speech as associated with the United Kingdom Without denying the presence of racial prejudice Honeyford shows that the picture of the United Kingdom as a divisive nation is a serious misrepresentation Placing the CRE in its historical and political context Honeyford outlines its powers and analyzes its formal investigations in the fields of education employment and housing He also examines its publicity machine and its effect on public and educational libraries He points out the danger of uncritically replicating the American experience According to Honeyford Americans have replaced a melting pot notion of society with all citizens loyal to a national ideal with a tossed salad concept which encourages the creation of self-conscious separate and aggressive ethnic groups each claiming special access to the public purse and having little regard for national cohesion and individual liberties

Partnerships In Community Mental Health Nursing And Dementia Care: Practice Perspectives Keady, John, Clarke, Charlotte, Page, Sean, 2007-08-01 A companion volume to Community Mental Health Nursing and Dementia Care Taken together the two volumes provide a rounded and evidence-based account of the complexity breadth and diversity of community mental health nursing practice in this specialist field of care delivery

Anti-Racist Social Work Gurnam Singh, Shepard Masocha, 2019-12-04 Welfare health education conflict security and migration are examples of phenomena that are prevalent across all societies With chapters from leading scholars from around the world this exciting new book draws upon the impacts of globalisation colonialism and capitalism to explore the common challenges facing nations across the globe and provide an insight into the history theory and practice of a new anti-racist social work

Black Politics and Urban Crisis in Britain Brian D. Jacobs, 1986-06-19 This book considers the nature of the black constituency in Britain's inner cities Radicalism, Anti-Racism and Representation Alastair Bonnett, 2023-02-14 First published in 1993 Radicalism Anti Racism and Representation is a study set within a wider political context for the discussion of racial representation and anti racism The second half of the book is devoted to interview based exploration of the ambiguities and political characteristics of race equality consciousness amongst public educators It is shown that there is no one anti racism Different ideals and assumptions have been arrived at within different historical and geographical contexts It is suggested that this intellectual plurality provides a resource for those wishing to rethink anti racism in the light of its contemporary malaise The study also explores and explains the development of self critical reflexive anti racist and radical consciousness amongst educators The book provides the first sociological study of anti racism Indeed it is the first to provide a substantive critique of anti racism from outside the New Right It is also the first to look at this phenomenon geographically and to compare anti racism in multiracial and white areas This book will be of interest to students of human geography sociology history ethnic studies and race studies Racial Science and British Society, 1930-62 G. Schaffer, 2008-09-02 From 1930 62 the idea of race was studied across a range of academic disciplines This book explores expert thinkings on race in the period and explains the relationship between scientific racial research social policy and attitudes regarding immigration ultimately offering new insight into the evolving understanding of the idea of race Crossing Ben Rampton, 2017-10-10 Focusing on urban youth culture and language crossing this foundational volume by Ben Rampton has played a pivotal role in the shaping of language and ethnic identity as a domain of study It focuses on language crossing the use of Panjabi by adolescents of African Caribbean and Anglo descent the use of Creole by adolescents with Panjabi and Anglo backgrounds and the use of stylized Indian English Crossing's central question is how far and in what ways do these intricate processes of language sharing and exchange help to overcome race stratification and contribute to a new sense of mixed youth class and neighbourhood community Ben Rampton produces detailed ethnographic and interactional analyses of spontaneous speech data and integrates the discussion of particular incidents with theories of discourse code switching social movements resistance and ritual drawn from sociolinguistics sociology anthropology and cultural studies Now a Routledge Linguistics Classic with a new preface which sets the work in its current context this book remains key reading for all those working in the areas of applied linguistics sociolinguistics and linguistic anthropology Discourse and Communication Teun A. van Dijk, 2011-07-13 No detailed description available for Discourse and Communication Mental Health in a Multi-Ethnic Society Dr Suman Fernando, Frank Keating, 2008-08-21 This new edition of Mental Health in a Multi Ethnic Society is an authoritative comprehensive guide on issues around race culture and mental health service provision It has been updated to reflect the changes in the UK over the last ten years and features entirely new chapters by over twenty authors expanding the range of topics by including issues of particular concern for women family therapy and mental health of refugees and asylum seekers Divided into four sections the book covers issues around mental health service provision for black and minority ethnic BME communities including refugees and asylum seekers critical accounts of how these issues may be confronted with examples of projects that attempt to do just that programs and innovative services that appear to meet some of the needs of BME communities a critical but constructive account of lessons to be drawn from earlier sections and discussion of the way ahead With chapters on training service user involvement policy development and service provision Mental Health in a Multi Ethnic Society will appeal to academics professionals trainers and managers as well as providing up to date information for a general readership Economic Restructuring And Social Exclusion Canterbury. Phillip Brown; Rosemary Crompton both of the University of Kent, 2020-04-03 This book is intended for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in social structure and political sociology as well as academic sociologists and libraries It should have significant appeal to researchers and students in European studies and others interested in European integration The Routes of Resistance Máirín Kenny, 2019-05-20 First published in 1997 this study is an attempt to read and critique answers to that question answers offered in policy and provision and answers to those answers in talk and texts and in classroom performances an often fraught conversation which goes on in spirals Refugees, Citizenship and Social Policy in Europe A. Bloch, C. Levy, 1999-04-30 Recently global and European migration in the post Cold War world have received much attention This edited collection is a comprehensive up to date account of the social policies of European welfare states towards refugees and asylum seekers It also examines the contested boundaries between refugees and asylum seekers and citizenship within European nation states and the European Union The Failure of British Fascism Mike Cronin, 2016-07-27 This book focuses on the different fascist movements which have existed in Britain during the twentieth century from the British Fascists of the 1920s to the British National Party of the 1990s Three main themes are covered in the book an outline of the policies tactics and ideologies of the different movements a discussion of the notion of failure and how that term should be applied to British fascism and coverage of the different strengths of British political society which are seen to have prevented a breakthrough of British fascism in the arena of electoral politics Political Languages of Race and the Politics of Exclusion Andy R. Brown, 2018-08-16 First published in 1999 Political Languages of Race and the Politics of Exclusion examines the post race signification logic of languages used to promote and achieve the exclusion and stigmatisation of migrant groups within post war Britain Re examining the time of Smethwick and Powellism as well as extensive Parliamentary debates this book develops an original thesis to show how Backbench racism became legitimated as Frontbench commonsense The book argues that the achievement of the success of post war Parliamentary racism has been made possible by the development of a ubiquitously anecdotal narrative of the travails of the Forgotten Englishman awoken to a multi cultural nightmare in Britain's decaying inner cities While the concept of race has remained under erasure the logic of post race signification discourse has allowed the re making of racism in public Britain The Impact of Immigration Panikos Panayi, 1999 This book is a documentary history of immigration into post war Britain Using a range of sources it illustrates both the structural and personal reasons for immigration The author pays special attention to the social and economic lives of immigrants while some have found economic success the majority remain underprivileged Many have tried to maintain their ethnicity especially through language religion politics and culture As a result many immigrants have faced varying degrees of hostility from the state and from individual native Britons
