Race Science And Medicine 1700 196:

Race, Science and Medicine, 1700-1960 Waltraud Ernst, Bernard Harris, 2002-01-04 Considering cases from Europe to India this collection brings together current critical research into the role played by racial issues in the production of medical knowledge Confronting such controversial themes as colonialism and medicine the origins of racial thinking and health and migration the distinguished contributors examine the role played by medicine in the construction of racial categories

Empires of Panic Robert Peckham, 2015-01-01 Empires of Panic is the first book to explore how panics have been historically produced defined and managed across different colonial imperial and post imperial settings from early nineteenth century East Asia to twenty first century America Contributors consider panic in relation to colonial anxieties rumors indigenous resistance and crises particularly in relation to epidemic disease How did Western government agencies policymakers planners and other authorities understand deal with and neutralize panics What role did evolving technologies of communication play in the amplification of local panics into global events Engaging with these questions the book challenges conventional histories to show how intensifying processes of intelligence gathering did not consolidate empire but rather served to produce critical uncertainties the uneven terrain of imperial panic Robert Peckham is associate professor in the Department of History and co director of the Centre for the Humanities and Medicine at the University of Hong Kong Charting the relays of rumor and knowledge that stoke colonial fears of disease disorder and disaster Empires of Panic offers timely and cautionary insight into how viscerally epidemics inflame imperial anxieties and how words and their communication over new technologies accelerate panic rally government intervention and unsettle and entrench the exercise of global power Relevant a century ago and even more so today Nayan Shah University of Southern California author of Contagious Divides Epidemics and Race in San Francisco s Chinatown Empires generated anxiety as much as ambition This fine study focuses on anxieties generated by disease It is the first book of its kind to track shifting forms of panic through different geopolitical regimes and imperial formations over the course of two centuries Working across medical and imperial histories it is a major contribution to both Andrew S Thompson University of Exeter author of Empire and Globalisation Networks of People Goods and Capital in the British World c 1850 1914 with Gary B Magee

The Certification of Insanity Filippo Maria Sposini, 2023-11-30 This book represents the first systematic study of the certification of lunacy in the British Empire Considering a variety of legal archival and published sources it traces the origins and dissemination of a peculiar method for determining mental unsoundness defined as the Victorian system Shaped by the dynamics surrounding the clandestine committal of wealthy Londoners in private madhouses this system featured three distinctive tenets standardized forms independent medical examinations and written facts of insanity Despite their complexity Victorian certificates achieved a remarkable success Not only did they survive in the UK for more than a century but they also served as a model for the development of mental health laws around the world By the start of the Second World War more than seventy colonial and non colonial jurisdictions adopted the Victorian formula for making lunacy official with some countries still relying on it to this very day Using case studies from Europe the Americas and the Pacific this book charts the temporal and geographical trajectory of an imperial technology used to determine a person s destiny Shifting the focus from metropolitan policies to colonial dynamics and from macro developments to micro histories it explores the perspectives of families doctors and public officials as they began to deal with the delicate business of certification This book will be of interest to scholars working on mental health policy the history of medicine disability studies and the British Empire

Slouch Beth Linker,2024-04-09 The strange and surprising history of the so called epidemic of bad posture in modern America from eugenics and posture pageants to today s promoters of paleo posture In 1995 a scandal erupted when the New York Times revealed that the Smithsonian possessed a century s worth of nude posture photos of college students In this riveting history Beth Linker tells why these photos were only a small part of the incredible story of twentieth century America s largely forgotten posture panic a decades long episode in which it was widely accepted as scientific fact that Americans were suffering from an epidemic of bad posture with potentially catastrophic health consequences Tracing the rise and fall of this socially manufactured epidemic Slouch also tells how this period continues to feed today s widespread anxieties about posture In the early twentieth century the eugenics movement and fears of disability gave slouching a new scientific relevance Bad posture came to be seen as an individual health threat an affront to conventional race hierarchies and a sign of American decline What followed were massive efforts to measure track and prevent slouching and later back pain campaigns that reached schools workplaces and beyond from the creation of the American Posture League to posture pageants The popularity of posture enhancing products such as girdles and lumbar supports exploded as did new fitness programs focused on postural muscles such as Pilates and modern yoga By 1970 student protests largely brought an end to school posture exams and photos but many efforts to fight bad posture continued despite a lack of scientific evidence A compelling history that mixes seriousness and humor Slouch is a unique and provocative account of the unexpected origins of our largely unquestioned ideas about bad posture

Empire and Environmental Anxiety J. Beattie,2011-05-25 A new interpretation of imperialism and environmental change and the anxieties imperialism generated through environmental transformation and interaction with unknown landscapes Tying together South Asia and Australasia this book demonstrates how environmental anxieties led to increasing state resource management conservation and urban reform

Tuberculosis Then and Now Flurin Condrau,Michael Worboys,2010-01-01 In Tuberculosis Then and Now leading scholars and new researchers in the field reflect on the changing medical social and cultural understanding of the disease and engage in a wider debate about the role of narrative in the social history of medicine and how it informs current debates and issues surrounding the treatment of tuberculosis and other infectious diseases Through a case study of the history of tuberculosis and its treatment this collection examines medicine and health care from the perspectives of class race and gender providing a challenging and refreshing addition to the field of bacteria centred accounts of the history of medicine

At the Roots of Italian Identity Edoardo Marcello Barsotti, 2021-02-10 This book investigates the relationship between the ideas of nation and race among the nationalist intelligentsia of the Italian Risorgimento and argues that ideas of race played a considerable role in defining Italian national identity The author argues that the racialization of the Italians dates back to the early Napoleonic age and that naturalistic racialism or race thinking based on the taxonomies of the natural history of man emerged well before the traditionally presumed date of the late 1860s and the advent of positivist anthropology The book draws upon a wide number of sources including the work of Vincenzo Cuoco Giuseppe Micali Adriano Balbi Alessandro Manzoni Giandomenico Romagnosi Cesare Balbo Vincenzo Gioberti and Carlo Cattaneo Themes explored include links to antiquity on the Italian peninsula archaeology and race thinking

Healing Knowledge in Atlantic Africa Kalle Kananoja, 2021-02-04 Kananoja demonstrates how medical interaction in early modern Atlantic Africa was characterised by continuous knowledge exchange between Africans and Europeans

Race, Science and Medicine, 1700-1960 Waltraud Ernst, Bernard Harris, 2002-01-04 Considering cases from Europe to India this collection brings together current critical research into the role played by racial issues in the production of medical knowledge Confronting such controversial themes as colonialism and medicine the origins of racial thinking and health and migration the distinguished contributors examine the role played by medicine in the construction of racial categories

Genezers op de koloniale markt Elisabeth Quirine Hesselink, 2009 Medische geschiedschrijving over de Nederlandse koloniën is schaars Genezers op de koloniale markt voorziet in een lacune en werpt een nieuw licht op zowel de Europese als de inheemse gezondheidszorg en haar beoefenaars in de periode 1850-1915 In 1851 richtte de koloniale regering in Batavia twee opleidingen op een doktersschool voor Javaanse jongens en een vroedvrouwschool voor Javaanse meisjes De bedoeling was dat zij de traditionele inheemse geneeskundigen de doekoens zouden gaan vervangen De inheemse bevolking was echter niet bereid gebruik te maken van de diensten van de afgestudeerden De inheemse dokters bleken toch inzetbaar als vaccinateur en als hulpgeneesheer De vroedvrouwschool werd daarentegen in 1875 gesloten Ondanks allerlei gruwelverhalen over misstanden in het inheemse kraambed werd de school niet heropend Wel werden er mondjesmaat meisjes aan huis opgeleid door Nederlandse artsen Toen de koloniale politiek rond 1900 aandacht begon te krijgen voor het welzijn van de inheemse bevolking ontstond behoefte aan artsen Meer inheemse jongemannen kregen een betere medische opleiding en gingen als zelfstandige artsen werken Deze verandering leverde spanningen op lang niet iedereen accepteerde inheemse artsen als collega's van een Nederlandse arts

The Invention of Discovery, 1500-1700 Dr James Dougal Fleming, 2013-05-28 The early modern period used to be known as the Age of Discovery More recently it has been troped as an age of invention But was the invention/discovery binary itself invented or discovered This volume investigates the possibility that it was invented through a range of early modern knowledge practices centered on the emergence of modern natural science From Bacon to Galileo from stagecraft to math from martyrology to romance contributors to this interdisciplinary collection examine the period's generation of discovery as an absolute and ostensibly neutral standard of knowledge production. They further investigate the hermeneutic implications for the epistemological authority that tends in modernity still to be based on that standard. The Invention of Discovery 1500-1700 is a set of attempts to think back behind discovery considered as a decisive trope for modern knowledge.

Postcolonial Ecocriticism and the Cultural Politics of Nature in Belize Megan Ann Casey, 2007     Psychopathologie und »Rasse« Andrea Adams, 2014-03-15 Gibt es einen Zusammenhang zwischen Rasse und psychischen Leiden? Diese Frage beschäftigte deutschsprachige Psychiater und Ärzte im späten 19. und beginnenden 20. Jahrhundert. Andrea Adams rekonstruiert diese wissenschaftliche Auseinandersetzung, analysiert die Vielfalt an Positionen und Themen sowie die Aushandlungs- und Stabilisierungsprozesse, die für die Produktion von Wissen über Rasse und Psychopathologie notwendig waren. Ihre Studie unternimmt erstmals eine umfassende wissenschaftshistorische Betrachtung von Rassenforschung innerhalb des psychiatrischen Feldes und ordnet sie in den breiteren Kontext der Wissenschafts- und Psychiatriegeschichte sowie der historischen Rassismusforschung ein.     Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 2000     Letters and the Body, 1700-1830 Sarah Goldsmith, Sheryllynne Haggerty, Karen Harvey, 2023-07-04 This collection explores the multifaceted relationship between letters and bodies in the long eighteenth century, featuring a broad selection of women's and men's letters written from and to Britain, North America, Europe, India, and the Caribbean, from the labouring poor to the landed elite. In eleven chapters, scholars from various disciplines draw on different methodological approaches that include close readings of single letters, social historical analyses of large corpora, and a material culture approach to the object of the letter. This research includes personal letters exchanged among family and friends, formal correspondence, and letters that were incorporated into published forewords and appendices, journals, and memoirs. Part I explores the letter as a substitute for the absent body, the imagined physical encounters and performances envisaged by letter writers, and the means through which these imagined sensations were conveyed. Part II examines the letter as a material object that served as a conduit for descriptions of the material body and as an instrument for embodied encounters. Part III focuses on how correspondents purposefully used their bodies in letters as a means to create intimacy, to generate social networks, and to build a body politic. This interdisciplinary volume, centred around letters, will be of interest to scholars and students in a variety of fields, including eighteenth-century studies, cultural history, and literature.     Jewish Culture and History, 2004     Women in Science Ruth Watts, 2013-05-13 The first book of its kind to provide a full and comprehensive historical grounding of the contemporary issues of gender and women in science, Women in Science includes a detailed survey of the history behind the popular subject and engages the reader with a theoretical and informed understanding with significant issues like science and race, gender and technology, and masculinity. It moves beyond the historical work on women and science by avoiding focusing on individual women scientists.     Cumulative Bibliography of Victorian Studies, 2000     Bibliography of the History of
