Race, Ethnicity, and Gender Joseph F. Healey, Eileen O'Brien, 2007-05-08 The Second Edition of Race Ethnicity and Gender Selected Readings offers comprehensive varied and highly readable views of the problems of racism and sexism in American society Editors Joseph F Healey and Eileen T O'Brien present a variety of perspectives on some of the most pressing problems facing American society racism and prejudice inequality and discrimination and assimilation and pluralism This new edition includes historical perspectives case studies of minority groups a strong emphasis on gender clashing perspectives on contemporary problems and a chapter on solutions Handbook of the Sociology of Racial and Ethnic Relations Pinar Batur, Joe R. Feagin, 2018-06-11 The study of racial and ethnic relations has become one of the most written about aspects in sociology and sociological research In both North America and Europe many traditional cultures are feeling threatened by immigrants from Latin America Africa and Asia This handbook is a true international collaboration looking at racial and ethnic relations from an academic perspective It starts from the principle that sociology is at the hub of the human sciences concerned with racial and ethnic relations

Gods in the Global Village Lester R. Kurtz, 2012 In an era plagued by religious conflict the Third Edition of Gods in the Global Village directly responds to issues of social problems prevalent in the world today Using an engaging thought provoking style author Lester R Kurtz focuses on the relationship among the major faith traditions that inform the thinking and ethical standards of most people in the emerging global social order This book focuses on a central aspect of that common crisis A major assumption of this book is that all knowledge is shaped by the social context of the knower therefore both religious traditions and our studies of them are shaped by the context in which we construct them The author argues that religious pluralism will be a necessary precondition of the global village for the foreseeable future The question that faces us as a human community is not Which religious tradition is true or even Is any religious tradition true but rather How can we enable the various religious and secular traditions to coexist peacefully on the planet The text supports the belief that the sociology of religion itself a pluralistic discipline can provide invaluable insight into the most pressing problems of our time Sociological Theory in the Classical Era Laura Desfor Edles, Scott Appelrouth, 2005 Sociological Theory in the Classical Era A Text and Readings is a hybrid between a reader and a secondary text It combines the major writings of sociology's core classical theorists with a historical as well as theoretical framework for understanding them The book provides not just a biographical and theoretical summary of each theorist but also examines compares and contrasts each theorist's major themes and concepts The book is packed with pedagogical devices and visual aids such as charts figures and photographs to help summarize key concepts illuminate complex ideas and provoke student interest No other theory text combines such student friendly explanation and analysis with original theoretical works

Extreme Deviance Erich Goode, D. Angus Vail, 2008 This book takes a look at normative violations that earn the violators a deviant identity in the eyes of the members of mainstream society And so serious likewise that the lives of violators do revolve around the actions the beliefs or the characteristics as well as the consequences such violations have mainly with respect to the social reactions they generate in others When others really don't like what you do believe or are they usually let you know that in no uncertain terms and this is likely to drastically alter your life

The Racial Middle Eileen O'Brien, 2008-06 The divide over race is usually framed as one over Black and White Sociologist Eileen O'Brien is interested in that middle terrain what sits in the ever increasing gray area she dubbed the racial middle The Racial Middle tells the story of the other racial and ethnic groups in America mainly Latinos and Asian Americans two of the largest and fastest growing minorities in the United States Using dozens of in depth interviews with people of various ethnic and generational backgrounds Eileen O'Brien challenges the notion that to fit into American culture the only options available to Latinos and Asian Americans are either to become white or to become brown Instead she offers a wholly unique analysis of Latinos and Asian Americans own distinctive experiences those that aren't typically White nor Black Though living alongside Whites and Blacks certainly frames some of their own identities and interpretations of race O'Brien keenly observes that these groups struggles with discrimination their perceived isolation from members of other races and even how they define racial justice are all significant realities that inform their daily lives and importantly influence their opportunities for advancement in society A refreshing and lively approach to understanding race and ethnicity in the twenty first century The Racial Middle gives voice to Latinos and Asian Americans place in this country's increasingly complex racial mosaic

Minerals, Collecting, and Value across the US-Mexico Border
Elizabeth Emma Ferry, 2021-12-22 A jewel to those interested in ore mining mineral collecting and mineralogy or the anthropology of value American Ethnologist Anthropologist Elizabeth Emma Ferry traces the movement of minerals as they circulate from Mexican mines to markets museums and private collections on both sides of the United States Mexico border She describes how and why these byproducts of ore mining come to be valued by people in various walks of life as scientific specimens religious offerings works of art and luxury collectibles The story of mineral exploration and trade defines a variegated transnational space shedding new light on the complex relationship between these two countries and on the process of making value itself A novel contribution to the anthropology of natural resources Journal of Latin American and Caribbean Anthropology Highly recommended Choice

The Truth about Crime Jean Comaroff, John L. Comaroff, 2016-12-05 In this book renowned anthropologists Jean and John L. Comaroff make a startling but absolutely convincing claim about our modern era it is not by our arts our politics or our science that we understand ourselves it is by our crimes Surveying an astonishing range of forms of crime and policing from petty thefts to the multibillion dollar scams of too big to fail financial institutions to the collateral damage of war they take readers into the disorder of the late modern world Looking at recent transformations in the triangulation of capital the state and governance that have led to an era where crime and policing are ever more complicit they offer a powerful meditation on the new forms of sovereignty citizenship class race law and political economy of representation that have arisen To do so the Comaroffs draw on their vast knowledge of South Africa especially and its struggle to build a democracy founded on the rule of law out of the wreckage of long years of violence and oppression There they explore everything from the fascination with the supernatural in policing to the extreme measures people take to prevent home invasion drawing illuminating comparisons to the United States and United Kingdom Going beyond South Africa they offer a global criminal anthropology that attests to criminality as the constitutive fact of contemporary life the vernacular by which politics are conducted moral panics voiced and populations ruled The result is a disturbing but necessary portrait of the modern era one that asks critical new questions about how we see ourselves how we think about morality and how we are going to proceed as a global society

Salience Sophie Archer, 2022-03-16 Salience is both central to human life and relatively underexplored as a philosophical topic Whether it bothers you that the picture on your wall is wonky whose advice you should take whether you notice the homeless person at your feet as you squeeze your way down Oxford Street these are all a function of salience Salience is clearly of significance for a broad range of philosophical problems but rarely if ever has salience itself been the theme This volume makes it so in an attempt to learn more about the place of salience in philosophy All 13 chapters have been specially commissioned for this volume and are written by an international team of leading philosophers. Salience: A Philosophical Inquiry is essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy of mind and psychology, epistemology and ethics. It will also be of interest to those in related subjects such as psychology, politics and law. Intersections of Affect, Memory, and Privilege in Bogota, Colombia Hendrikje Grunow, 2024. Zusammenfassung: This book explores the intersections of affect, memory and privilege among Bogotá's upper middle class. Combining approaches from memory studies, anthropology, feminist and affect theory, this work is concerned with the implications for the present and potential futures contained in affective encounters. It is structured along four affects describing the social, spatial, historical and political aspects of being affected by the Colombian conflict. After showing how the Colombian conflict is rooted in specific affective relationships to land, disappointment and crushed hopes in the context of various peace negotiations are portrayed as the central experiences nurturing a sense of a doubling or re-experiencing of past emotions. Then a specifically upper middle class emotional habitus and its implication for the social connections to people more directly affected by the conflict are outlined, and peace as an upper middle class affect is revealed as a privilege not everyone deserves. Hendrikje Grunow is coordinator of the German Colombian MA program Conflict, Memory and Peace at the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt. She holds a doctorate from the University of Konstanz and studied Anthropology and Latin American Studies in Berlin, Bogotá, Zurich and Bern. She co-coordinates the Latin American regional group at the Memory Studies Association. The Sociolinguistics of Iran's Languages at Home and Abroad Seyed Hadi Mirvahedi, 2019-06-29. This book examines the sociolinguistics of some of Iran's languages at home and in the diaspora. The first part of the book examines the politics of minority languages and the presence of hegemonic discourses which favour Persian/Farsi in Iran, exploring issues such as language maintenance and shift, linguistic ideologies and practices among Azerbaijani and Kurdish speaking communities. The authors then go on to examine Iranians' linguistic ideologies, practices and transnational identity construction in the diaspora, investigating both the challenges of maintaining a home language and the strategies and linguistic repertoires employed when constructing a diasporic identity away from home. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of minority languages and communities, diaspora and migration studies, and language policy and planning. Western Echoes in Arabic Voices Rashid Yahiaoui, 2023-11-13. This book is not just about the linguistic translation process; it delves deeper into the socio-cultural journey, the unique challenges faced, and the broader implications of this cross-cultural exchange. It stands out for its novel perspective, taking the readers on a fascinating journey from the humorous undertones of Monsters Inc. to the satirical edges of The Simpsons and Family Guy. It uncovers the intricate process of dubbing and transcreating Western audiovisual content into Arabic, highlighting how visuals, irony and stereotypes interplay in this complex process. It offers readers insights into the world of media translation and cultural adaptation in Arabic, making it a compelling read for linguists, translators, media scholars, cultural enthusiasts, and anyone intrigued by the intersection of language, culture and humour. It is a unique blend of academic research and engaging storytelling that will leave readers with a newfound appreciation for the art of dubbing and the cultural nuances it negotiates Global Struggles and Social Change Christopher Chase-Dunn, Paul Almeida, 2020-09-22 Deftly demonstrates how the rise and fall of social movements throughout history is closely linked to economic and political developments In the early decades of the twenty first century an international movement to slow the pace of climate change mushroomed across the globe The self proclaimed Climate Justice movement urges immediate action to reduce carbon emissions and calls for the adoption of bold new policies to address global warming before irreversible and catastrophic damage threatens the habitability of the planet On another front since the 1980s multiple waves of resistance have occurred around the world against the uneven transition from state led development to the neoliberal globalization project Both Climate Justice and Anti Austerity movements represent the urgency of understanding how global change affects the ability of citizens around the world to mobilize and protect themselves from planetary warming and the loss of social protections granted in earlier eras In Global Struggles and Social Change Christopher Chase Dunn and Paul Almeida explore how global change stimulates the formation and shape of such movements Contending that large scale economic shifts condition the pattern of social movement mobilizations around the world the authors trace these trends back to premodern societies revealing how severe disruptions of indigenous communities led to innovative collective actions throughout history Drawing on historical case studies world system and protest event analysis and social networks they also examine the influence of global change processes on local national and transnational social movements and explain how in turn these movements shape institutional shifts Touching on hot button topics including global warming immigrant rights protests the rise of right wing populism and the 2008 financial crisis the book also explores a broad range of premodern social movements from indigenous people in the Americas Mesopotamia and China The authors pay special attention to periods of disruption and external threats as well as the role of elites emotions charisma and religion or spirituality in shaping protest movements Providing sweeping coverage Global Struggles and Social Change is perfect for students and anyone interested in globalization international and comparative politics political sociology and communication studies
