dispute particularly since a certain number of bookmakers have bought what they believe is an existing tenure in perpetuity on a bookmakers list The Gambling Act also removed the requirement of horse racecourses to obtain a certificate of approval in order to operate This also removed the five times rule which capped the charge to a bookmaker for admission to an enclosure at five times the amount of the highest charge to members of the public for admission to that enclosure a development the Committee approves With the removal of certificates of approval by the Act this also removed the mechanism which ensured that racecourses observed bookmakers lists where bookmakers that attend the racecourse are entitled to pick their pitch position in accordance with their respective list position The Gambling Act has enabled racecourses and bookmakers to enter into commercial arrangements for the pricing and allocation of pitch positions The Committee though does welcome the efforts of bookmakers and racecourses to agree new arrangements for the administration and regulation of on course betting and the establishment of the new working party to consider the issue of pitch positions The Committee believes that if racecourses wish to move to a fully commercial relationship for the allocation and pricing of pitch positions compensation should be made available for those who purchased a list position under the system of certificate of approval If the racecourses and bookmakers cannot reach a commercial arrangement over pitches the Committee believes the system of bookmakers lists under the certificate of approval should be reimposed The Global Horseracing Industry Phil McManus,Glenn Albrecht,Raewyn Graham,2013 Horseracing thoroughbred breeding and gambling on racing are global industries worth several hundred billion dollars They are also industries facing serious challenges from the rise of alternative forms of leisure gambling to concerns about the ethical treatment of animals in all equestrian sports This book offers a broad ranging examination of the contemporary horseracing industry from geographical economic social ethical and environmental perspectives The book draws on in depth mixed method research into the racing and breeding industries in the US Australia the UK Canada and New Zealand and includes comparative material on other key racing centres such as Ireland Singapore and Hong Kong It explores the economic structure of the global racing business including comparisons with other major international sport businesses and other equestrian sports It examines the social and cultural roots of the sport through its association with and impact on rural places communities and environments from Kentucky to Newmarket highlighting racing s particular blend of tradition and scientific and technological innovation The book also explores the ethical issues at the heart of horseracing from reproduction to the use of the whip and the inescapable tension between the horse as an instrumentally valuable commodity and the horse as an intrinsically valuable animal with needs and interests The Global Horseracing Industry concludes by considering alternative futures for this major international sports business The book is illuminating reading for anybody with an interest in sport business cultural geography animal studies or environmental studies British Sport: a Bibliography to 2000 Richard Cox,2013-12-16 Volume one of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in
