The Cambridge Companion to American Women Playwrights Brenda Murphy, 1999-06-28 This volume addresses the work of women playwrights throughout the history of the American theatre from the early pioneers to contemporary feminists Each chapter introduces the reader to the work of one or more playwrights and to a way of thinking about plays Together they cover significant writers such as Rachel Crothers Susan Glaspell Lillian Hellman Sophie Treadwell Lorraine Hansberry Alice Childress Megan Terry Ntozake Shange Adrienne Kennedy Wendy Wasserstein Marsha Norman Beth Henley and Maria Irene Fornes Playwrights are discussed in the context of topics such as early comedy and melodrama feminism and realism the Harlem Renaissance the feminist resurgence of the 1970s and feminist dramatic theory A detailed chronology and illustrations enhance the volume which also includes bibliographical essays on recent criticism and on African American women playwrights before 1930

Working Women in American Literature, 1865-1950 Miriam S. Gogol, 2020-07-07

Working Women in American Literature 1865 1950 consists of eight original essays by literary historical and multicultural critics on the subject of working women in late nineteenth to mid twentieth century American literature The volume examines how the American working woman has been presented misrepresented and underrepresented in American realistic and naturalistic literature 1865 1930 and by later authors influenced by realism and naturalism Points explored include the historical vocational realities of working women e g factory workers seamstresses maids teachers writers prostitutes etc the distortions in literary representations of female work the ways in which these representations still inform the lives of working women today and new perspectives from queer theory immigrant studies and race and class analyses These essays draw on current feminist thought while remaining mindful of the historicity of the context The essayists discuss important women writers of the period for instance Ellen Glasgow Charlotte Perkins Gilman Rachel Crothers Willa Cather and the understudied Ann Petry as well as canonical writers like Theodore Dreiser Henry James and William Dean Howells The discussions touch on a variety of literary and artistic genres novels short stories other forms of fiction biographies dramas and films In the introductory essay and throughout the collection the term working women in the United States is deconstructed the historical and cultural definitions of work and the words work in America are redefined through the lens of genders

(Re)Constructing Maternal Performance in Twentieth-Century American Drama L. Bailey McDaniel, 2013-09-04 Looking at a century of American theatre McDaniel investigates how race based notions of maternal performance become sites of resistance to cultural and political hierarchies This book considers how the construction of mothering as universally women s work obscures additional equally constructed subdivisions based in race and class The Wayward Woman Barbara Antoniazzi, 2014-06-18 The Wayward Woman takes a fresh look at the Progressive Era recasting the turn of the century debate on gender roles and prostitution Recapitulating and transcending extant studies of female delinquency prostitution literature and Progressive womanhood this work understands female waywardness as the critical intersection between the rise of female emancipation and the panic inspired by the period s obsession with sexual enslavement Concurrently it explores the Progressive ambivalence about compassion and control which unfolded alongside a war on prostitution that traversed the realms of law medicine literature and politics Drawing on theories of performativity the author develops the wayward woman as a capacious analytical category that encompasses all women who countering the residual injunction of domesticity brought new forms of femininity into the light of the public sphere the activist the professional and the divorcee but also the female breadwinner the charity girl and the urban woman of color among many others The book investigates the continuum of waywardness that stretches from the high minded New Woman to the ever victimized white slave as a cultural battlefield where numerous women stepped across the boundaries of class race and respectability to claim new public personas At the same time it reads the preoccupation with white slavery both as a symptom of and an antidote to this wave of change Through an innovating collection of sources which brings together sociological writings novels plays movies and legal documents the book rearticulates the tensions of the Progressive Era between gender roles blackness and whiteness reformers and reformed the citizens and the state The Wayward Woman will be of much interest to students and scholars in the fields of American studies women studies and performance studies Passing Judgments George Jean Nathan, 1970 George Jean Nathan 1882 1958 was formative influence on American letters in the first half of this century and is generally considered the leading drama critic of his era With H L Mencken Nathan edited The Smart Set and founded and edited The American Mercury journals that shaped opinion in the 1920s and 1930s This series of reprints individually introduced by the distinguished critic and novelist Charles Angoff collects Nathan s penetrating witty and sometimes cynical drama criticism

American Women Writers, 1900-1945 Laurie Champion, 2000-09-30 Women writers have been traditionally excluded from literary canons and not until recently have scholars begun to rediscover or discover for the first time neglected women writers and their works This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 American women authors who wrote between 1900 and 1945 Each entry is written by an expert contributor and discusses a particular author s biography her major works and themes and the critical response to her writings The entries close with extensive primary and secondary bibliographies and the volume concludes with a list of works for further reading The period surveyed by this reference is rich and diverse Modernism and the Harlem Renaissance two major artistic movements occurred between 1900 and 1945 and the entries included here demonstrate the significant contributions women made to these movements The volume as a whole strives to reflect the diversity of American culture and includes entries for African American Native American Mexican American and Chinese American women It includes well known writers such as Willa Cather and Eudora Welty along with more neglected ones such as Anita Scott Coleman and Sui Sin Far
