Globalization European integration and migration are challenging national identities and changing education across Europe The nation state no longer serves as the sole locus of civic participation and identity formation ceasing to have the influence it once had over the implementation of policies Drawing on rich empirical data from four schools in Germany and Britain this groundbreaking book is the first study of its kind to examine how schools mediate government policies and create distinct educational contexts to shape youth identity negotiation and integration processes Negotiating Political Identities will appeal to educationists sociologists and political scientists whose work concerns issues of migration identity citizenship and ethnicity It will also be an invaluable source of evidence for policymakers and professionals concerned with balancing cultural diversity and social cohesion in such a way as to promote more inclusive citizenship and educational policies in multiethnic multifaith schools Classroom Issues Mal Leicester, Sohan Modgil, 2005-10-05 Volume III provides a focus on the classroom pedagogy curriculum and pupil experience It covers relatively neglected areas of curriculum development such as mathematics and technology as well as the more familiar terrain of literature and drama A particularly useful section deals with aesthetic education Critical Pedagogy and Race Zeus Leonardo, 2009-02-09 Critical Pedagogy and Race argues that a rigorous engagement with race is a priority for educators concerned with equality in schools and in society A landmark collection arguing that engaging with race at both conceptual and practical levels is a priority for educators Builds a stronger engagement of race based analysis in the field of critical pedagogy Brings together a melange of theories on race such as Afro centric Latino based and postcolonial perspectives Includes historical studies and social justice ideas on activism in education Questions popular concepts such as white privilege color blind perspectives and race neutral pedagogies

Citizenship Education and the Curriculum David Scott, Helen Lawson, 2002-08-30 Citizenship education is a current concern of policymakers in various parts of the world Debates focus on modern notions of citizenship and the need for citizenship education in a rapidly changing world This need for citizenship education and corresponding definitions have changed over time but a persistent characteristic would seem to be a fear of indoctrination and a lack of a coherent vision due in part to the notion of citizenship being a contested concept Different notions of citizenship in turn underpin different theories of citizenship education and a number of commentators have examined its role and rationale at various points in time and identified ideal forms of pedagogy values skills curricular content and assessment Contributors address the following concerns universality and equal opportunity social literacy and citizenship citizenship education and curriculum race different citizenship patterns in civic education assessment cultivating respect in human relations and global citizenship education Adopting a comparative approach discussing citizenship education in New Zealand England Iceland Israel Ireland and Europe the book presents various debates and develops new frameworks for understanding the issues Black British Intellectuals and Education Paul Warmington, 2014-02-24 Ask any moderately interested Briton to name a black intellectual and chances are the response will be an American name Malcolm X or Barack Obama Toni Morrison or Cornel West Yet Britain has its own robust black intellectual traditions and its own master teachers among them C L R James Claudia Jones Ambalavaner Sivanandan Stuart Hall and Paul Gilroy However while in the USA black public intellectuals are an embedded if often embattled feature of national life black British thinkers remain routinely marginalized Black British Intellectuals and Education counters this neglect by exploring histories of race education and social justice through the work of black British public intellectuals academics educators and campaigners The book provides a critical history of diverse currents in black British intellectual production from the eighteenth century through post war migration and into the post multicultural present focusing on the sometimes hidden impacts of black thinkers on education and social justice Firstly it argues that black British thinkers have helped fundamentally to shape educational policy practice and philosophy particularly in the post war period Secondly it suggests that education has been one of the key spaces in which the mass consciousness of being black and British has emerged and a key site in which black British intellectual positions have been defined and differentiated Chapters explore the early development of black British intellectual life from the slave narratives to the anti colonial movements of the early twentieth century how African Caribbean and Asian communities began to organize against racial inequalities in schooling in the post Windrush era of the 1950s and 60s how from out of these grassroots struggles black intellectuals and activists of the 1970s 80s and 90s developed radical critiques of education youth and structural racism the influence of multiculturalism black cultural studies and black feminism on education current developments in black British educational work including post racial approaches Critical Race Theory and black social conservatism Black British Intellectuals and Education will be of key relevance to undergraduates postgraduates and academics engaged in research on race ethnicity education social justice and cultural studies

The Multicultural Dimension Of The National Curriculum Anna King, Michael Reiss, 2020-07-24 Given the National Curriculum Council's failure to issue any formal guidance on the subject multicultural education is becoming increasingly marginalized and left to individual schools This book provides guidance and advice to schools on issues of racial equality and cultural diversity It helps teachers managers and governors implement the requirements and expectations of new educational legislation since the 1988 Education Reform Act and its associated non statutory advice and guidance Within a whole school curriculum framework chapters provide analysis and practical guidance for each subject area of the National Curriculum With responsibility for multicultural education resting largely on individual schools this book sets out to aid schools of all kinds primary secondary grant maintained and LEA to ensure that issues of racial equality and cultural diversity are addressed throughout the whole curriculum It is aimed at teachers at all levels Heads of Education Departments Mentors Governors Advisers INSET course tutors students on PGCE BED MED courses and those doing a BA in Education

Equity-Based Career Development and Postsecondary Transitions Erik M. Hines, Laura Owen, 2022-03-01 Former First Lady Michelle Obama believes that every individual should have some type of postsecondary education or training beyond high school to achieve economic and personal success Reach Higher Initiative Better Make Room 2019 Educational attainment e.g. a high school diploma college degree or postsecondary training provides career opportunities for advancement into leadership positions and benefits such as health insurance and retirement Heckman 2000 Additionally an individual with a college degree can make over one million dollars more over a lifetime in salary than someone with a high school diploma Carnevale Cheah Hanson 2015 Acquiring a college degree can lead to employment opportunities and is considered an asset in the U S economy Washington 2010 However certain populations encounter barriers to attaining an education particularly a postsecondary education leading to a disparity in receiving the aforementioned benefits Some of these populations include African American students LGBTQ students and students with disabilities There is a dearth of information and research on providing guidance on implementation research and best practices in equity based career development college readiness and successful postsecondary transitions for minoritized at risk or vulnerable populations The editors of this volume invited authors with research and practice expertise around various student populations in preparing them for college and career readiness as well as postsecondary transitions This book is the first of its kind to discuss career development and postsecondary transitions from an access and equity perspective Further this text serves as a call to action to ensure the United States most vulnerable populations has an opportunity to successfully transition into multiple postsecondary options after high school
