Gilbert, 2004-09-08 Before Modernism Was places modernist writing within the texture of modern history Texts by Woolf James Freud Wyndham Lewis Stein Malinowski and others are read through a range of figures that construct and disrupt modern meaning the ghost that affects the value of your property the sulky graceless adolescent the Pole who may not be Polish the nervous owner of the dog the addict and her smoke Eccentric to its institutions these figures are central to the constituency of modernism The Laws of Love P. Goodrich, 2006-10-30 Your guest at dinner kisses you What does it mean Where does it lead Does kissing necessarily imply more and if so how much These and similar questions of amorous ethics and erotic disquisition are central to our everyday intimate public lives and they are the lost object of the law of love the lex amatoria collated and presented here Fictions of the City Matthew Taunton, 2009-09-29 Many studies of fictions of city life take the fl neur as the characteristic metropolitan type and streets and plazas as definitive urban spaces Looking at novels and films set in London and Paris from L Assommoir to Nil By Mouth this book shows that mass housing is equally central to images of the modern city The Long Life Helen Small, 2010-09-16 The Long Life invites the reader to range widely from the writings of Plato through to recent philosophical work by Derek Parfit Bernard Williams and others and from Shakespeare s King Lear through works by Thomas

Mann Balzac Dickens Beckett Stevie Smith Philip Larkin to more recent writing by Saul Bellow Philip Roth and J M Coetzee Helen Small argues that if we want to understand old age we have to think more fundamentally about what it means to be a person to have a life to have or lead a good life to be part of a just society What did Plato mean when he suggested that old age was the best place from which to practice philosophy or Thomas Mann when he defined old age as the best time to be a writer and were they right If we think as Aristotle did that a good life requires the active pursuit of virtue how will our view of later life be affected If we think that lives and persons are unified much as stories are said to be unified how will our thinking about old age differ from that of someone who thinks that lives and or persons can be strongly discontinuous In a just society what constitutes a fair distribution of limited resources between the young and the old How if at all should recent developments in the theory of evolutionary senescence alter our thinking about what it means to grow old This is a groundbreaking book deep as well as broad and likely to alter the way in which we talk about one of the great social concerns of our time the growing numbers of those living to be old and the growing proportion of the old to the young

The Witch's Flight Kara Keeling,2007-11-05 Through an analysis of filmic representations of Black femininity and the Black Femme in particular this book highlights the ways the cinematic structures both racist and sexist portrayals and their potential undoing Strange Affinities Grace Kyungwon Hong,Roderick A. Ferguson,2011-08-24 Collection of essays that use queer studies and feminism as a lens for examining the relationships between racialized communities
