Renewing Christianity:

Renewing Christianity Christopher M. Bellitto, 2001 This book follows the tide of reform and renewal in Church history and demonstrates that reform has always been an essential element of Christianity Indeed Christopher Bellitto emphasizes that reform should not be perceived as limited to the Reformation or Vatican II As one learns from the author's analysis the history of Christianity is little other than the history of reform This sweeping assessment of Church history is both remarkable and deep but is also highly readable Bellitto begins with an introduction to the subject of reform and follows that with chapters on the patristic period and Carolingian Renaissance the High Middle Ages 1050-1300 Avignon to Trent From Trent to Modernity and Vatican II He ends with a conclusion that draws together the recurring themes and patterns of reform activity in the Church In short this is a unique book on the subject of Church reform Renewing Christianity is useful to both scholars and non academics alike It is written in a learnedly popular style and would appeal to clergy seminarians academics graduate students or anyone interested in Church reform and renewal Church history or historical theology

Renewing Christianity James H. Hindes, 1995-06 For Rudolf Steiner Christ's Incarnation and death on Golgotha were central events in earthly and cosmic history Humankind he said would evolve in time toward a spiritual awareness of Christ's presence in creation and the individual would no longer need institutionalized religious beliefs In this concise introduction to Steiner's ideas the author also describes the Christian Community which Steiner helped to establish as a movement for Christian renewal The Christian Community also called the Movement for Religious Renewal is an independent church founded in 1922 in Switzerland with the help of Rudolf Steiner The first American Congregation was founded in New York City in 1948 Further information can be found at the Christian Community website www.thechristiancommunity.org This is not only one of the best introductions to the Christian Community and its history but an excellent introduction to the whole of Rudolf Steiner's worldview known as spiritual science or Anthroposophy Renewing Christian Worldview Steven

Félix-Jäger, Yoon Shin, 2023-09-26 This brief but comprehensive introduction to Christian worldview helps readers understand the Christian faith as the substance of Spirit-filled living and as a knowledge tradition stemming from the global Pentecostal movement Using beauty truth and goodness as organizing principles the authors delineate a Christian worldview by tracing each category historically comparing and contrasting each with alternative Christian expressions and constructing fresh takes on each as read through the lived Pentecostal experience Unlike other worldview books the authors approach emphasizes beauty relating to experience rather than truth involving knowledge acquisition that difference in emphasis flows naturally from the Pentecostal perspective which has traditionally centered the experience of the Spirit Pentecostal Christians will find this volume indispensable for thinking lucidly about their worldview from a renewal perspective

Global Renewal Christianity Vinson Synan, Amos Yong, 2017-01-03 The growth of Spirit-empowered Christianity has been nothing short of phenomenal From a handful of believers in the early twentieth century to over six hundred million people in almost every culture and denomination today those who embrace the Holy Spirit and His gifts are now the fastest growing religious group in the world But if any generation ceases to emphasize the Holy Spirit's power the movement likely will lose this distinction This final volume is an authoritative collection from more than two dozen leaders and scholars of the Spirit empowered movement In addition to addressing the history and future of the movement this book discusses global theological topics including the emergence of prosperity theology and focuses on the possibilities and challenges for Pentecostalism

Global Renewal Christianity Vinson Synan, Amos Yong, Miguel Alvarez, 2016 This book gives an overview of one hundred years of Pentecostal history in Latin America and addresses the move of the Holy Spirit in nations such as Brazil Columbia Argentina Guatemala Costa Rica Nicaragua and Mexico as well as the Caribbean

First Steps in Christian Religious Renewal Rudolf Steiner, 2010-11 6 lectures and 2 discussions in Stuttgart June 12 16 1921 CW 342 The lectures and discussions presented in First Steps in Christian Religious Renewal make up the first of the five Priest Courses They record the first steps of the remarkable journey taken in 1921 by a small group of dedicated souls who out of their own inner needs and guided by Rudolf Steiner sought a path to Christian religious renewal Addressing the group with warm intimacy Steiner frames their task not primarily in theological terms but as a need for a renewing the religious or the working of the religious element as such For this the sermon or how we speak is central for today we must use language in new ways We cannot reopen the spiritual worlds by starting from old conditions Traditional religious life has become too corrupted while modern culture has radically changed and become divorced from tradition In earlier times people could understand concepts such as Christ grace and salvation but now we need a new starting point one that begins with the reality that we cannot teach anything we do not believe and have not experienced When we speak images and symbols must be experienced as real we can no longer hold the split view that accepts both modern science as it is and spiritual reality as it is Next Steiner turns to the group's stated concerns ritual the sermon community building and the relationship between these and individual efforts to awaken to the I Here a question arises about the extent to which such matters should become conscious The question arises How do we avoid conscious religious content from becoming abstract intellectual and cut off from feeling All too often intellect is confused with consciousness Yet Goethe for one was certainly conscious and was able to think pictorially and live in images without falling into intellectuality We too must learn to do so In a sense however even this is secondary Community building which requires finding what lives and weaves between human beings is the key To bring the community to birth Steiner advises the group to abandon teaching or exercising power through words and concepts Instead of focusing on knowledge of God theology they must find a way to communicate actual life in God experience of the divine within the soul This means that they must learn to live in a content that is greater and beyond what they can speak Thus the importance of ritual which must remain simple while expressing inner transformation of the human being or the en Christing imbuing the human being with Christ Steiner explains Human beings are not born imbued with Christ beforehand by way of inheritance

they must find the Christ in themselves Such transformation en Christing can be expressed symbolically in many ways through simple effective ritual First Steps in Christian Religious Renewal is a translation from German of Vorträge und Kurse über christlich religiöses Wirken Bd 1 Anthroposophische Grundlagen für ein erneuertes christlich religiöses Wirken GA 342

Orthodox Christian Renewal Movements in Eastern Europe Aleksandra Djurić Milovanović, Radmila Radić, 2017-10-11 This book explores the changes underwent by the Orthodox Churches of Eastern and Southeastern Europe as they came into contact with modernity The movements of religious renewal among Orthodox believers appeared almost simultaneously in different areas of Eastern Europe at the end of the nineteenth and during the first decades of the twentieth century This volume examines what could be defined as renewal movement in Eastern Orthodox traditions Some case studies include the God Worshippers in Serbia religious fraternities in Bulgaria the Zoe movement in Greece the evangelical movement among Romanian Orthodox believers known as Oastea Domnului The Lord's Army the Doukhobors in Russia and the Maliovantsy in Ukraine This volume provides a new understanding of processes of change in the spiritual landscape of Orthodox Christianity and various influences such as other non Orthodox traditions charismatic leaders new religious practices and rituals

Renewing the Church by the Spirit Amos Yong, 2020-11-03 In most parts of the world and especially where Christianity is flourishing Pentecostal and charismatic movements predominate What would it look like for the Western world beset by the narrative of decline to participate in this global Spirit driven movement According to Amos Yong it all needs to start with the way we approach theological education Renewing the Church by the Spirit makes the case for elevating pneumatology in Christian life allowing the Spirit to reinvigorate church and mission Yong shows how this approach would attend to both the rapidly deinstitutionalizing forms of twenty first century Christianity and the pressing need for authentic spiritual experiences that marks contemporary religious life He begins with a broad assessment of our postmodern post Enlightenment post Christendom ecclesial context before moving into a detailed outline of how a Spirit filled approach to theological education its curriculum pedagogy and scholarship can meet the ecclesial and missional demands of this new age

Renewing the Evangelical Mission Richard Lints, 2013-05-26 The culture story of evangelicalism during the second half of the twentieth century has been well told It is important now to think about the theological mission of the church in an ever increasing post Christian and post partisan context What is the theologian's calling at the beginning of the third millennium How do global realities impact the mission of evangelical theology What sense can be made of the unity of evangelical theology in light of its many diverse voices Contributors Os Guinness Michael S Horton Richard Lints Bruce McCormack Mark Noll J I Packer Gary Parrett Rodney Peterson Cornelius Plantinga Tite Tienou Kevin J Vanhoozer Adonis Vidu and Miroslav Volf World Christianity and Covid-19 Chammah J. Kaunda, 2022-12-13 This volume explores how Christians around the world have made sense of the meaning of suffering in the context of and post COVID 19 It interrogates the question of God suffering and structural injustice Further it discusses the Christian response to the compounded threats of racial injustice climate injustice wildlife injustice gender injustice economic injustice political injustice unjust in the distributions of the vaccine and future challenges in the post COVID 19 era The contributions are authored by scholars students activists and clergy from various fields of inquiry and church traditions The volume seeks to deepen Christian understanding of the meaning of suffering in the context of COVID 19 pandemic It explores the fresh ways the pandemic can contribute to reconceptualizing human relations and specifically what it means to be human in the context of suffering the place of or justifications of God in suffering human place in creation and the role of the church in re articulating the theological meanings and praxes of suffering for today Renewing Christian Unity Mark G. Toulouse, Gary Holloway, Douglas Allen Foster, 2015-06 In Renewing Christian Unity scholars Mark G Toulouse Gary Holloway and Douglas A Foster collaborate to provide an overview of the history of the Christian Church Disciples of Christ that will serve all readers by giving a brief authoritative introduction to this important American denomination Throughout its history the Christian Church Disciples of Christ has been known for its commitment to Christian unity The context for unity in the twenty first century however is considerably different than it was in the nineteenth century Renewing Christian Unity provides a brief history of the Disciples and their unwavering but ever adapting commitment to the unity of the church Their story is one of both continuity and change Disciples remain as those who are uncomfortable with denominationalism They still prefer simply to be known as Christians But over the course of two centuries the Disciples understanding of Christian witness and of the one church has taken note of the changing times and changed right along with them This is partly because Disciples have always believed that human history is meaningful God has entered human time to make a difference Disciples celebrate this fact at the communion table and in the baptismal waters through their active engagement with the world as they seek to embody both God's love and justice and in their insistence that the church is one Alexander Campbell once declared We should hang our Sectarian trumpets in the hall and study ecclesiastic wars no more Disciples have not always succeeded in meeting that expectation but they do possess a history marked by an earnest desire to seek a renewal of Christian unity in the life of the church In this book readers will learn more about this significant group of churches which has shaped the landscape of American Christianity Christianity, Conflict, and Renewal in Australia and the Pacific, 2016-06-21 Cultural expressions of Christianity show great diversity around the globe While scholarship has tended to consider charismatic practices in distinct geographical contexts this volume advances the anthropology of Christianity through ethnographically rich comparative insights from across the Australia Pacific region Christianity Conflict and Renewal in Australia and the Pacific presents new perspectives on the performative dynamics of Christian belief conflict and renewal Addressing experiences of cultural and spiritual renewal contributors reveal how tensions can arise between spiritual and political expressions of culture and identity opening up alternative spaces for spiritual realization and religious change These local processes further mobilize responses of individuals and groups to state forces and political reforms in turn influencing the shape of translocal and transnational Christian practices Contributors are Diane Austin Broos John Barker Alison Dundon Yannick Fer Kirsty Gillespie Jessica Hardin Rodolfo Maggio Fiona Magowan Gwendoline Malogne Fer Debra McDougall Joel Robbins Carolyn Schwarz and John Taylor

Constructive Pneumatological Hermeneutics in Pentecostal Christianity Kenneth J. Archer, L. William Oliverio, Jr., 2016-12-21 This book presents the work of leading hermeneutical theorists alongside emerging thinkers examining the current state of hermeneutics within the Pentecostal tradition The volume's contributors present constructive ideas about the future of hermeneutics at the intersection of theology of the Spirit Pentecostal Christianity and other disciplines This collection offers cutting edge scholarship that engages with and pulls from a broad range of fields and points toward the future of Pneumatological hermeneutics The volume's interdisciplinary essays are broken up into four sections philosophical hermeneutics biblical theological hermeneutics social and cultural hermeneutics and hermeneutics in the social and physical sciences

Traditional Churches, Born Again Christianity, and Pentecostalism Yonatan N. Gez, 2018-09-08 In Kenya's vibrant urban religious landscape where Pentecostal and traditional churches of various orientations live side by side religious identity tends to overflow a single institutional affiliation While Kenya's Christianity may offer modes of coping with the fragilities of urban life it is subject to repeated crises and schisms often fueled by rumors and accusations of hypocrisy In order to understand the unfolding of Kenyans' dynamic religious identities and inspired by the omnipresent distinction between religious membership and church visits Yonatan N. Gez considers the complementary relations between a center of religious affiliation and expansion towards secondary practices Building on this basic distinction the book develops a theoretical innovation in the form of the religious repertoire model which maps individuals' religious identities in terms of three intertwined degrees of practice

Happy: LGBTQ+ Experiences of Australian Pentecostal-Charismatic Christianity Mark Jennings, 2023-01-01 This book relates the unique experiences of Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender and Queer Questioning LGBTQ people in Australian Pentecostal Charismatic Christian churches Grounded in the theoretical contributions of Michel Foucault Judith Butler Lewis Coser and others the book exposes the discursive battleground over the truth of sex which underlies the participants' stories These rich and complex narratives reveal the stakes of this conflict manifested in the line a barrier restricting out LGBTQ people from full participation in ministry and service Although some participants related stories of supportive if typically conservative congregations where they felt able to live out an authentic integrated faith others found they could only leave their formerly close and supportive communities behind counter rejecting the churches and often the faith that they felt had rejected them

Embodying Antiracist Christianity Keun-joo Christine Pae, Boyung Lee, 2023-12-21 At a moment of notably rising levels of anti Asian hate this book offers antiracist resources informed by Asian North American feminist theology and biblical scholarship Although there exist scholarly books and articles on Asian American theology broadly defined have proliferated in response to the current ethical political and cultural environment have been prolific there have been few concerted efforts to interrogate or dismantle anti Asian racism inseparable from anti black racism and white settler colonialism that have often undermined the communal spirit and livelihood of Christian churches in the current political climate In the current political climate COVID related anti Asian hate and racial conflict which all intersect with gender and sexuality based violence require theological moral and political inquiries Hence this book notes the current paucity of work with critical discussions on the multiple facets of racism from Asian American feminist theological perspectives Contributors deepen the intertransdisciplinary approaches concerning how to dismantle racist theological teachings biblical interpretations liturgical presentations and the Christian church s leadership structure World Christianity Lalsangkima Pachuau,2018-07-17

Christianity is vibrant and growing in the non western majority world and Christianity is changing as a result Pachuau surveys the current trending approaches to recognizing and investigating world Christianity and explores the salient features of the demographic changes that mark a measurable shift in the center of gravity from the northwest part of the globe to the southern continents This shift is not just geographical World Christianity is ultimately about the changing and diversifying character of Christianity and a renewed recognition of the dynamic universality of Christian faith itself Christianity is a shared religion in that people of different cultures and societies make it their own while being transformed by it Christianity is translatable and adaptable to all cultures while challenging each with its transformative power Pachuau also charts the theological reestablishment of the missionary enterprise founded on understandings of God s mission in the world mission Dei a mission of cross cultural gospel diffusion for missionary advocates in the majority world but one of near neighbor missional engagement for the contagious Charismatic Christianity of the majority world This book is both a descriptive study and a thoughtful analysis of world Christianity s demographics life representation and thought The book also gives an account of the historical emergence of World Christianity and its theological characteristics using a methodology that stresses the productive tension between the universal and particular in understanding a fundamentally adaptable Christian faith Transforming Renewal Andy Lord,2015-01-12

Pentecostal and charismatic renewal movements have seen great growth over the last century and have engaged with many Christian traditions Yet there are signs that all is not well and there is a need to develop theologies of renewal that engage with practice and across the traditions if the movements are to continue to grow In particular this book seeks an ecumenical engagement between David Watson and Thomas Merton leaders in the charismatic and monastic renewal movements The aim is to reflect on the theological roots of these renewal movements through a study of particular people who lived them in practice and sought to help others understand how the triune God was at work This is done against the wider background of contemporary renewal theology to develop constructive proposals for renewal theology in the future Receptive ecumenism provides the method for bringing the different voices into conversation in ways that also point forward in approaches to ecumenical dialogue It is thus a study relevant to those seeking new ways in theology those involved in renewal and ecumenical movements students of Thomas

Merton and all who seek to better understand the Christian renewal movements that have swept the world

Pentecostalism as a Christian Mystical Tradition Castelo, Daniel, 2017 Informed reassessment of Pentecostalism as a mystical tradition of the church universal Pentecostalism says Daniel Castelo is commonly framed as evangelicalism with tongues or dismissed as simply a revivalist movement In this book Castelo argues that Pentecostalism is actually best understood as a Christian mystical tradition Taking a theological approach to Pentecostalism Castelo looks particularly at the movement's methodology and epistemology as he carefully distinguishes it from American evangelicalism Castelo displays the continuity between Pentecostalism and ancient church tradition creating a unified narrative of Pentecostalism and the mystical tradition of Christianity throughout history and today Finally he uses a test case to press the question of what the interactions between mystical theology and dogmatics could look like World Christianity Tan, Jonathan Y., Tran, Anh Q., 2016-04-13
