Carroll,Robert Aldrich,1985-01-01      Reno Court of Inquiry: Conduct at the Battle of the Little Bighorn Brian V. Hunt,2016-12-06 One of the most important documents in American military history the Reno Court of Inquiry is the detailed testimony about the conduct of Major Marcus Reno by the survivors of the Battle of the Little Bighorn In 1879 a military court of inquiry was convened in Chicago to determine the issue of cowardice on the part of Major Reno And a fascinating group of witnesses they were Here is the testimony of the gentlemanly sardonic Captain Frederick Benteen international man of intrigue Charles DeRudio heroic young Dr Henry Porter future General Edward Godfrey the trumpeter John Martin interpreter Fred Gerard and 17 others including Reno himself In graphic detail the survivors recount their disastrous rout in the Valley fight at the hands of hundreds of Sioux warriors their disorganized retreat to the bluffs and their bewilderment at what they believed had been their abandonment by General George Armstrong Custer They spent two days under a withering hailstorm of gunfire from thousands of Sioux and Cheyenne led by Crazy Horse Gall Sitting Bull and others When they found out two days later that Custer and over 200 of his men were dead they could not believe it Before leaving the battlefield they had to bury their comrades and attempt to identify mutilated officers This is NOT the Graham Abstract but the full transcript based on the original documents from the U S National Archives Included is additional material about the battle the battle timeline and the history of the Reno transcript which was almost lost to posterity Even with a casual interest in Custer the Indian Wars or court proceedings you will find something to fascinate you in this massive and important record      Honor Tarnished Thomas E. Fox, 2015-02-16 On the afternoon of June 25 1867 an overwhelming force of Sioux and Cheyenne Indians quickly mounted a savage onslaught against General George Armstrong Custer's battalion driving the doomed troopers of the U S Seventh Cavalry to a small hill overlooking the Little Bighorn River where Custer and his men bravely erected their heroic last stand So goes the myth of the Battle of the Little Bighorn a myth perpetuated and reinforced for over 100 years In truth however Custer's Last Stand was neither the last of the fighting nor a stand Using innovative and standard archaeological techniques combined with historical documents and Indian eyewitness accounts Richard Allan Fox Jr vividly replays this battle in astonishing detail Through bullets spent cartridges and other material data Fox identifies combat positions and tracks soldiers and Indians across the Battlefield Guided by the history beneath our feet and listening to the previously ignored Indian testimonies Fox reveals scenes of panic and collapse and ultimately a story of the Custer battle quite different from the fatalistic versions of history According to the author the five companies of the Seventh Cavalry entered the fray in good order following planned strategies and displaying tactical stability It was the sudden disintegration of this cohesion that caused the troopers' defeat The end came quickly unexpectedly and largely amid terror and disarray Archaeological evidences show that there was no determined fighting and little firearm resistance The last soldiers to be killed had rushed from Custer Hill      The Reno Court of Inquiry Marcus A.
