Repatriates And Refugees In A Colonial Society The Case Of Kenya:

Repatriates and Refugees in a Colonial Society Joseph E. Harris, 1987 Repatriates and Refugees in a Colonial Society Joseph E. Harris, 1987 The primary concern of this book is the repatriation pattern in the former slave communities of Freretown and Rabai located on the East Coast of Kenya These communities were established by Africans liberated from slavery in Arabia India East Africa itself and some freed from slave dhows in the Indian Ocean and by other Africans who returned from the diaspora and became repatriates This study attempts to reconstruct the history of the origin and development of the communities of Freretown and Rabai in Kenya to assess the role of those settler communities as agents of social and cultural change and to evaluate their influence on the history of Kenya , Cultural Heritage Management in Africa George Okello Abungu, Webber Ndoro, 2022-12-15 Cultural Heritage Management in Africa explores the diversity of Africa's cultural heritage by analysing how and why this heritage has been managed and by considering the factors that continue to influence management strategies and systems throughout the African continent Including contributions from prominent scholars and heritage professionals working across Africa the volume presents critical contemporary perspectives on the state of heritage in the area Chapters analyse the practices that emanated from different colonial experiences and consider what impact these had and continue to have on the management of African heritage It also critically examines the ideological influence of independence movements on the African continent's management and remembering of heritage and considers whether there are any differences in heritage management between countries that experienced armed conflicts and those that did not The volume will be the first to critically assess the state of heritage management now at a time when vital conversations about the balance between heritage and development is ongoing and the actions of new players have begun to impact the management and practice of heritage in the region Cultural Heritage Management in Africa will be essential reading for those engaged in the study of museums and heritage development archaeology anthropology history and African studies It will also be of interest to heritage and museum professionals who wish to learn more about the decolonisation of heritage Beyond Federation Emma Hunter, Daniel Branch, Ismay Milford, Gerard McCann, 2025-08-18 In the period of mid twentieth century decolonization when nationalism and globalism were hotly contested East Africans nurtured regionalism in their intellectual and creative work This book looks beyond political projects of federation to recover ideas and practices of regionalism their remarkable longevity and their significance for understanding possibilities of radical change In doing so it tells a different story about the fate of the category of East Africa building on a body of scholarship about the imagined political communities of decolonizing Africa and rejecting narratives that explain the failure of regional integration as the immediate consequence of postcolonial authoritarianism or global economic crisis Historical Dictionary of Kenya Robert M. Maxon, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2014-09-09 Kenya has a long and complex history that began thousands of years ago Indeed some archaeologists contend that the country was the cradle of mankind or at the very least one of the places that was home to the earliest hominids In later centuries Kenya s strategic location astride the Indian Ocean and the East African littoral attracted numerous foreign peoples some of the most significant of which have been the Americans Arabs British Chinese French Germans and Portuguese Additionally Africans from throughout the subcontinent have settled in Kenya to escape conflict or political persecution while others wanted an opportunity to begin a new life As a result of being a gateway to the world the country traditionally has been one of the most important business cultural diplomatic and political centers in Africa Although it has maintained this reputation during the post independence period Kenya like most African countries has been plagued by an increasing array of complex economic political and social problems This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Kenya provides a starting point for those interested in any of the phases of Kenya s historical evolution This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Kenya

The African Diaspora Joseph E. Harris,1996 As Africans and descendants of slaves have sought to expand an understanding of their history focus on the African diaspora the global dispersal of a people and their culture has increased African studies have assumed a prominent place in historical scholarship and a growing number of non African scholars has helped revise a discipline established over several decades The six contributions in this volume were compiled as a result of the thirtieth Walter Prescott Webb Memorial Lecture held at the University of Texas at Arlington The contributors nationally recognized in the field represent a collaborative analysis of the African diaspora from African and non African perspectives Joseph E Harris discusses how the African diaspora influences the economies politics and social dynamics of both the homeland and the host country Alusine Jalloh reconstructs the mercantile activities of the Fula in colonial Sierra Leone Joseph E Inikori argues that slavery and serfdom in medieval Europe provide greater insights into precolonial Africa than do standard New World comparisons Colin A Palmer examines the power relationships that undergirded American slavery in order to better understand the enslaved Douglas B Chambers reveals the enduring influence of Africanisms in the historical development of Afro Virginian slave culture And Dale T Graden looks at African slavery in Salvador Bahia Brazil between 1848 and 1856 focusing on the Bahian elite and their response to slave resistance

Uncovering the History of Africans in Asia Shihan de Silva Jayasuriya,Jean-Pierre Angenot,2008-07-31 Study of the African diaspora is now a dynamic field in the development of new methods and approaches to African history This book brings together the latest research on African diaspora in Asia with case studies about India and the Indian Ocean islands

Societies After Slavery Rebecca J. Scott,Thomas C. Holt,Frederick Cooper,Aims McGuinness,2002-08-18 One of the massive transformations that took place in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries was the movement of millions of people from the status of slaves to that of legally free men women and children Societies after Slavery provides thousands of entries and rich scholarly annotations making it the definitive resource for scholars and students engaged in research on postemancipation societies in the Americas and Africa

Cuba and Africa, 1959-1994 Kali Argyriadis, Giulia Bonacci, Adrien Delmas, 2020-11-01 A history of Atlantic solidarity between Cuba and Africa in struggle for African independence from colonial powers The Cuban people hold a special place in the hearts of the people of Africa The Cuban internationalists have made a contribution to African independence freedom and justice unparalleled for its principled and selfless character As Nelson Mandela states Cuba was a key participant in the struggle for the independence of African countries during the Cold War and the definitive ousting of colonialism from the continent Beyond the military interventions that played a decisive role in shaping African political history there were many sided engagements between the island and the continent Cuba and Africa 1959 1994 is the story of tens of thousands of individuals who crossed the Atlantic as doctors scientists soldiers students and artists Each chapter presents a case study from Algeria to Angola from Equatorial Guinea to South Africa and shows how much of the encounter between Cuba and Africa took place in non militaristic fields humanitarian and medical scientific and educational cultural and artistic The historical experience and the legacies documented in this book speak to the major ideologies that shaped the colonial and postcolonial world including internationalism developmentalism and South South cooperation Approaching African Cuban relations from a multiplicity of angles this collection will appeal to an equally wide range of readers from scholars in black Atlantic studies to cultural theorists and general readers with an interest in contemporary African history Annual

Report - The Wilson Center Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, 1988 Black Book Publishers in the United States Donald Franklin Joyce, 1991-10-14 Since the second decade of the nineteenth century there have been black owned book publishers in the United States addressing the special concerns of black people in ways that other book publishers have not This is the first work to treat extensively the individual publishing histories of these firms Though largely ignored by historians the story of these publishers as documented in this study reveals fascinating details of literary history as well as previously unknown facts about the contribution of blacks to Western civilization Donald Franklin Joyce offers comprehensive profiles of forty six publishing companies selected for inclusion through an examination of major bibliographic works book advertisements periodical literature and business directories Each profile contains information on the company's publishing history books and other publications that were released information sources about the firm other titles issued libraries holding titles produced by the publisher and officers and addresses where appropriate Entries are arranged alphabetically by the publisher name while an appendix presents a geographic listing of the firms and an index offers author title and subject access This work will be an important resource for students scholars and researchers interested in cultural and intellectual black history as well as public and academic libraries seeking specific information on individual publishing companies The Dynamics of Global Dominance David B. Abernethy, 2000-01-01 For centuries Europeans ruled vast portions of the world as inhabitants of west European countries sailed to distant continents and took possession of territories whose societies and economies they set out to change How and why did these farflung empires form persist and finally fall David Abernethy addresses these questions in this magisterial survey of the rise and decline of European overseas empires Abernethy identifies broad patterns across time and space interweaving them with fascinating details of cross cultural encounters He argues that relatively autonomous profit making religious and governmental institutions enabled west European countries to launch triple assaults on other societies Indigenous people also played a role in their eventual subjugation by inviting Europeans to intervene in their power struggles Abernethy finds that imperial decline was often the unanticipated result of wars among major powers Postwar crises over colonies unmet expectations empowered movements that eventually took territories as diverse as the thirteen British North American colonies Spain s South American possessions India the Dutch East Indies Vietnam and the Gold Coast to independence In advancing a theory of imperialism that includes European and non European actors and in analyzing economic social and cultural as well as political dimensions of empire Abernethy helps account for Europe s long occupation of global center stage He also sheds light on key features of today s postcolonial world and the legacies of empire concluding with an insightful approach to the moral evaluation of colonialism

Zanzibar Was a Country Nathaniel Mathews,2024-04-09 Zanzibar Was a Country traces the history of a Swahili speaking Arab diaspora from East Africa to Oman In Oman today whole communities in Muscat speak Swahili have recent East African roots and practice forms of sociality associated with the urban culture of the Swahili coast These Omani Zanzibaris offer the most significant contemporary example in the Gulf as well as in the wider Indian Ocean region of an Afro Arab community that maintains a living connection to Africa in a diasporic setting While they come from all over East Africa a large number are postrevolution exiles and emigr s from Zanzibar Their stories provide a framework for the broader transregional entanglements of decolonization in Africa and the Arabian Gulf Using both vernacular historiography and life histories of men and women from the community Nathaniel Mathews argues that the traumatic memories of the Zanzibar Revolution of 1964 are important to nation building on both sides of the Indian Ocean

African Narratives of Slavery and Abolition Richard Anderson,2024-11-14 This unique and rich collection of narratives written or dictated by formerly enslaved Africans between 1820 and 1876 offers a rare snapshot of African voices in the history of slavery Including narratives from the Atlantic and Indian Ocean trades as well as testimonies from enslaved people who never left the African continent it expands the chronological and geographical scope of known accounts of enslavement highlights the few but important women s narratives and provides thoughtful analysis and context about internal enslavement the slave trade and the process of liberation Made up of 32 narratives each carefully contextualised and introduced this volume comprises some of the most substantial and previously unpublished accounts of the slave trade in the archives of the Church Missionary and Methodist Missionary Societies Bringing new testimonies to light and enriching our understanding of enslaved voices African Narratives of Slavery and Abolition is an important and much needed contribution to the biographical turn and study of the slave trade Labour and Christianity in the Mission Michelle Liebst, 2021

Important and broadening study of the way Africans engaged with missions not as beneficiaries of humanitarian philanthropy but as workers The important role missions played as places of work has been underexplored yet missionaries were some of the earliest Europeans who tried to control African labour African mission workers roles were not just religious and educational as they were actively involved not always voluntarily in building and domestic work Focusing on the Anglican Universities Mission to Central Africa UMCA in Tanganyika and Zanzibar in the late 19th and early 20th centuries Michelle Liebst shows how missionaries both supported and undermined the livelihood trajectories of Africans Revealing the changing nature of relations over time between missionaries who referred to themselves as workers and the African mission workers including teachers and priests whom missionaries referred to as helpers reflected broader political transformations and this innovative study of missions role in society adds a critical dimension to our understanding of their function and socio economic impact and the history of Christianity in Africa Ethnicity and Democracy in Africa Bruce Berman, Dickson Eyoh, Will Kymlicka, 2004-09-30 The politics of identity and ethnicity will remain a fundamental characteristic of African modernity For this reason historians and anthropologists have joined political scientists in a discussion about the ways in which democracy can develop in multicultural societies In Ethnicity and Democracy in Africa the contributors address why ethnicity represents a political problem how the problem manifests itself and which institutional models offer ways of ameliorating the challenges that ethnicity poses to democratic nation building Children Of Ham Fred Morton, 2019-03-04

Children of Ham Freed Slaves and Fugitives Slaves on the Kenya Coast 1873 to 1907 is a chronological account of the repeated bids for freedom made by slaves and ex slaves on the Kenya coast and of the obstacles placed in their way by the British the Busaidi Arabs and the peoples of the coast Efforts to escape slavery are as old as slavery itself on the Kenya coast but the principal story begins in 1873 when Britain pressured the sultan of Zanzibar to abolish the ocean going slave trade Thereafter political and military conflict intensified on the coast while opportunities for slaves to escape increased accordingly This period ending roughly with the abolition of the legal status of slavery in 1907 corresponds to the imperial scramble from its earliest stages to the effective establishment of European rule Language and Civilization Change in South Asia Maloney, 1978-06 African Roots/American Cultures Sheila S. Walker, 2001 Africans and their descendants constituted the majority of the population of the Americas for most of the first three hundred years Yet their fundamental roles in the creation and definition of the new societies of the New world and their significance in the development of the Atlantic world have not been acknowledged This multidisciplinary volume highlights the African presence throughout the Americas and African and African Diasporan contributions to the material and cultural life of all of the Americas and of all Americans It includes articles from leading scholars and from cultural leaders from both well known and little known African Diasporan communities Privileging African Diasporan voices it offers new perspectives data and interpretations that challenge prevailing understandings of the Americas Its fundamental premise is that the story of the Americas can only be accurately told by including the story of the foundational roles played by Africans and their descendants in the Americas
