Translated by Maurice Michael. Illustrated by Gun Kessle. With Plates.* Jan MYRDAL, Maurice Albert MICHAEL, 1965 A Chinese Village Martin C. Yang, 2013-07-04 This is Volume I of six in a collection on the Sociology of East Asia Originally published in 1948 this study looks at the village of Taitou in the Shantung Province A Report on a Priest's Work in a Remote Chinese Village J. J. McAsey, 1971 Moral Politics in a South Chinese Village Hok Bun Ku, 2003 Exploring sensitive issues often hidden to outsiders this engaging study traces the transformation and economic development of a south China village during the first tumultuous decade of reform Drawing on a wealth of intimate detail Ku explores the new sense of risk and mood of insecurity experienced in the post reform era in Ku Village a typical hamlet beyond the margins of richer suburban areas or fertile farmland Villagers dissatisfaction revolves around three key issues the rising cost of living mounting agricultural expenses and the forcible implementation of birth control quotas Faced with these daunting problems villagers have developed an array of strategies Their weapons include resisting policies they consider unreasonable by disregarding fees evading taxes and ignoring strict family planning regulations challenging the rationale of official policies and the legitimacy of the local government and its officials and reestablishing clan associations to supercede local Party authority Using lively everyday narratives and compelling personal stories Ku argues that rural people are not in fact powerless and passive instead they have their own moral system that informs their everyday family lives work and political activities Their code embodies concepts of fairness and justice a concrete definition of the relationship between the state and its citizens an understanding of the boundaries and responsibilities of each party and a clear notion of what constitutes good and bad government and officials On the basis of these principles they may challenge existing policies and deny the authority of officials and the government thereby legitimizing their acts of self defense Through his richly realized ethnography Ku shows the reader a world of memorable fully realized individuals striving to control their fate in an often arbitrary world Annual Report of the Secretary of War United States. War Department,1901 A Century of Change in a Chinese Village Lin Juren,Xie Yuxi,2018-05-04

Over the last half century China has evolved from a poor rural country to a geopolitical powerhouse Rapid urbanization has been at the heart of that transformation and as migrant laborers have left their villages what has become of the rural communities that were once the center of economic social and cultural life And how do contemporary Chinese scholars understand those changes These are the questions that this compelling book answers Lengshuigou village located near the Shandong provincial capital of Jinan was first studied by Japanese social scientists in the early 1940s and then again in the 1980s and 1990s Building on these rich surveys this book traces changes from the early twentieth century to the present day in family and lineage social stratification personal networks annual and life cycle rituals village politics and elite formation Drawing on their own large scale survey of contemporary village households the authors analyze the physical and institutional changes that have altered the community as well as the shifts in interpersonal relations and attitudes that have upended centuries old systems of patriarchy and generational order This important book presents for the first time in English analysis by Chinese sociologists on the radical transformation of Chinese rural society
