Report Of The Committee Against Torture Un General Assembly:

International Human Rights Monitoring Mechanisms Alfred Zayas, Bertie G. Ramcharan, Gudmundur Alfredsson, Jonas Grimheden, 2021-10-25 This collection is intended to serve as a thematic textbook on the institutions and procedures devoted to the national implementation of human rights and to the international monitoring of State performance. Although not exhaustive, the coverage extends to most of the monitoring instances available at intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations: complaints, fact-finding and investigative procedures, State reporting obligations, good offices actions, dialogue functions, human rights education, dissemination of human rights information, letter campaigns and technical co-operation. The target audience of the book is students of international human rights law, but the book can also serve as a guide for both officials and activists involved in the realization of human rights.

Chinese Yearbook of Human Rights, Volume 5 (2023) Huawen Liu, Wei Zhang, 2023-10-20 The Chinese Yearbook of Human Rights is a forum for academic exchange between China and the international community in the field of human rights. It publishes peer-reviewed articles by scholars and practitioners from both within and outside China on human rights issues from the perspectives of law, philosophy, political science, history, international relations and other relevant academic disciplines. The Yearbook was originally founded in cooperation with the UN Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law and the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences but fell silent from 2008 onwards. It now has a new editorial team consisting of internationally based human rights scholars and a team of editors at the Institute for Human Rights of the China University of Political Science and Law and the Center for Human Rights Studies of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences. Volume 5, 2023, is the result of that cooperation and focuses on the topical issue of international standards and international monitoring procedures, including historical evolution, current interpretation and application, the monitoring work by both treaty and Charter-based bodies and directions for future developments.

International Crimes: Volume I: Genocide Guénaél Mettraux, 2019-06-18 Judge Mettraux's four-volume compendium International Crimes Law and Practice will provide the most detailed and authoritative account to date of the law of international crimes. It is a scholarly tour de force providing a unique blend of academic rigour and an insight into the practice of international criminal law. The compendium is unrivalled in its breadth and depth, covering almost a century of legal practice, dozens of jurisdictions, national and international, thousands of decisions and judgments and hundreds of cases. This first volume discusses in detail the law of genocide, its definition, elements, normative status and relationship to the other core international crimes. While the book is an invaluable tool for academics and researchers, it is particularly suited to legal practitioners guiding the reader through the practical and evidential challenges associated with the prosecution of international crimes.

International Crimes Guénaél Mettraux, 2019 This book discusses in detail the law of genocide, its definition, elements, normative status and relationship to the other core international crimes. It is the first in a four-volume compendium from Judge Mettraux on the four core international crimes The Legal Nature of International Human Rights Michael K. Addo, 2010-05-17 The role and influence human rights in society has been enhanced by its association with international law and yet despite this legal springboard the scope of its legal nature remains uncertain By analysing the work of international human rights courts and treaty bodies alongside a brief historical review this book assesses the distinctive legal dimension of human rights It concludes that the legalisation of human rights is an unplanned and evolving social construct that continues under the managerial oversight of international human rights courts and treaty bodies which employ the primary tool of treaty interpretation These characteristics of the legal environment of human rights in international law provide a good appreciation of the law itself and its limits The United Nations Convention Against Torture and Its Optional Protocol Manfred Nowak, Moritz Birk, Giuliana Monina, 2019 This second edition of The United Nations Convention Against Torture A Commentary provides an updated analysis of all substantive organizational and procedural provisions of the Convention and its Optional Protocol ensuring that the volume continues to serve as a comprehensive guide for researchers and practitioners alike Yearbook of the United Nations, Volume 48 (1994) United Nations, 2023-09-29 Fully indexed the 1994 edition of the Yearbook is the single most current comprehensive and authoritative reference publication about the work of the United Nations other international organizations and related bodies The book is designed not just for use by diplomats officials and scholars but also by other researchers writers journalists teachers and students The year 1994 was a remarkably eventful one for the United Nations and in the conduct of international relations This volume of the Yearbook details the activities of the United Nations its many organs agencies and programmes working together to rekindle a new form of multilateral cooperation for a better world It records the diverse and globe encompassing activities of the United Nations and its enduring efforts to deal with the world's pressing concerns particularly matters of international peace and security disarmament human rights the settlement of regional conflicts economic and social development the preservation of the environment control of drugs and narcotic substance abuse crime prevention adequate shelter youth and the ageing and humanitarian assistance for refugees as well as disaster relief Yearbook of the United Nations, Volume 42 (1988) United Nations, 2023-11-27 Issued annually since 1946 47 the Yearbook is the principal reference work of the United Nations providing a comprehensive one volume account of the Organization's work It includes details of United Nations activities concerning trade industrial development natural resources food science and technology social development population environment human settlement children and legal questions along with information on the work of each specialized agency in the United Nations family Fair Treatment of Persons in Police Custody Ralf Alleweldt, 2024-10-16 This book analyses and evaluates the international efforts to ensure the fair and human treatment of persons in police custody Respecting the dignity of all detained persons and in particular preventing torture is a key issue of international human rights protection The authors explore various approaches to tackle this issue including the introduction of investigative non coercive interviewing techniques as well as the implementation of fundamental safeguards such as the access to a lawyer and a doctor Supported by case studies they describe the special role of national preventive mechanisms and the efforts to improve the treatment of detainees in the context of capacity building activities Police components of international peace missions face special legal and practical human rights challenges Authors also ask how the positive potentials and strengths within police organisations could be mobilised for realising human rights and last but not least they seek to assess the prospects of how fair treatment of persons in police custody may be ensured in the future effectively Annual Report United States.

Congressional-Executive Commission on China,2020 Urgency and Human Rights Eva Rieter,Karin Zwaan,2020-11-21

This book deals with urgency and human rights Urgent is a word often used in very different contexts Yet together with a reference to human rights violations it likely triggers images of people caught up in armed conflict facing terror from either the state gangs paramilitaries or terrorists Or of people fleeing terror and facing walls fences or seas at risk of being returned to terror or ignored neglected abused deprived of access to justice and basic facilities facing death torture and cruel treatment Here these both ongoing and expected violations are explored in the context of quasi judicial proceedings as international tribunals and domestic courts are increasingly called upon to order interim measures or accelerate proceedings in such cases This edited volume concerns the protective potential of interim measures in international human rights cases and the legitimacy of their use and discusses obstacles to their persuasive use to clarify how their legitimacy and protective potential could be enhanced in the context of concrete legal cases Examining this is especially pressing when courts and quasi judicial bodies have used interim measures in response to requests by individuals and organisations in the context of issues that are unpopular with governments and or controversial within society which has led states to at times employ political pressure to limit their use Urgency and human rights are discussed from the vantage point of various practitioners and scholars with the aim of identifying how interim measures could be legitimate and protective and to single out obstacles to their implementation Drawing from practices developed in various international and regional adjudicatory systems the contributors provide their perspectives on the legitimacy and or the protective potential of interim measures and other quasi judicial proceedings in urgent human rights cases There is considerable discussion about how interim measures can be legitimate and well functioning tools to address urgent human rights cases This book aims to contribute to the ongoing discussion in this respect Dr Eva Rieter is senior researcher and lecturer public international law and human rights law at the Centre for State and Law Radboud University Nijmegen The Netherlands Dr Karin Zwaan is associate professor in the Department of Migration Law at the Centre for State and Law Radboud University Nijmegen The Netherlands

The Treatment of Prisoners under International Law Nigel Rodley, Matt Pollard, 2011-04-07 This is the third edition of the pioneering work that has become the standard text in the field The first edition was one of the earliest to establish that the newly developing international law of human rights could be set down as any other branch of international law It also incorporates the complementary fields of international humanitarian law and international criminal law while addressing the problems associated with their interaction with human rights law The book is more than a descriptive analysis of the field It acknowledges areas of unclarity or where developments may be embryonic Solutions are offered Recent developments have confirmed the value of solutions proposed in this edition and the previous one Central to most of the chapters is the human rights norm of most salience in the treatment of prisoners namely the prohibition of torture and cruel inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment The early chapters focus on the period of first detention when detainees are most at risk of having information or confessions however unreliable extracted by unlawful means Voices contemplating the legitimacy of such treatment to combat terrorism have been heard in the wake of the atrocities of 11 September 2001 The book finds that the evidence clearly suggests that the absolute prohibition of such treatment remains firm Other chapters deal with problems of poor prison conditions and of certain extraordinary penalties notably corporal and capital punishment A chapter explores ethical codes for members of professions capable of inflicting or preventing the prohibited behaviour police and medical and legal professionals Chapters are also devoted to the extreme practice of enforced disappearance and the contribution of the new convention on this phenomenon as well as to extra legal executions
