The Republic of Moldova on the Way to the [sic] Sustainable Development Arcadie Capcelea, Arkadii Makarovich Kapcheli, 1996 Public Diplomacy and the Implementation of Foreign Policy in the US, Sweden and Turkey Efe Sevin, 2017-02-14 This book presents a comprehensive framework six pathways of connection which explains the impact of public diplomacy on achieving foreign policy goals The comparative study of three important public diplomacy practitioners with distinctive challenges and approaches shows the necessity to move beyond soft power to appreciate the role of public diplomacy in global politics Through theoretical discussions and case studies six pathways of connection is presented as a framework to design new public diplomacy projects and measure their impact on foreign policy The Republic of Moldova on the Way to the Sustainable Development Arcadie Capcelea, 1998 Central Asia Atlas of Natural Resources Asian Development Bank, 2010-04-01 This atlas brings together a wealth of information related to living and nonliving natural resources in the five countries of Central Asia Kazakhstan Kyrgyz Republic Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan It contains an array of maps based on geographic information systems and remote sensing images numerous photographs tabulations of important data and extensive descriptive text that together illustrate and describe the region's bountiful natural resources its diversity of peoples and their progress toward sustainable development Highlights include geographic and climatic features environmental economic and social profiles energy minerals and water resources ecoregions and ecosystems major fauna and flora agriculture and fisheries peoples and cultural traditions and economic and social statistics Applicable Law in Investor-State Arbitration Hege Elisabeth Kjos, 2013-03-21 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 3.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations This book examines the law national and or international that arbitral tribunals apply on the merits to settle disputes between foreign investors and host states In light of the freedom that the disputing parties and the arbitrators have when designating the applicable law and because of the hybrid nature of legal relationship between investors and states there is significant interplay between the national and the international legal order in investor state arbitration The book contains a comprehensive analysis of the relevant jurisprudence legal instruments and scholarship surrounding arbitral practice with respect to the application of national law and international law It investigates the awards in which tribunals referred to consistency between the legal orders and suggests alternatives to the traditional doctrines of monism and dualism to explain the relationship between the national and the international legal order The book also addresses the territorialized or internationalized nature of the tribunals relevant choice of law rules and methodologies and the scope of the arbitration agreement including the possibility of host states presenting counterclaims in investment treaty arbitration Ultimately it argues that in investor state arbitration national and international law do not only coexist but may be applied simultaneously they are also interdependent each complementing and informing the other both indirectly and directly for a larger common good enforcement of rights and obligations regardless of their national or international origin Labour Law, Work, and Family Joanne Conaghan, Kerry Rittich, 2005

In recent years gender has emerged as an important focus of attention in discourse in and around labour law Gender is gradually moving from the margin to the mainstream of labour law debate particularly with the development of a family friendly policy agenda This book consists of a series of essays from an international selection of leading legal scholars exploring the shifting boundary between work and family from a labour law perspective The object is to assess the global implications for labour law and policy of women s changing role in paid and unpaid work The approaches adopted by the contributors are diverse both conceptually and geographically encompassing analyses from Australia North America Canada the UK Europe and Japan and including national and supra national perspectives Key themes informing the collection as a whole are the re positioning of unpaid care work as integral to the performance and structure of productive activity and consideration of the implications of recognizing the interdependence of work and family activities In this way the book seeks to develop a central theme from the previously published Labour Law in an Era of Globalization Conaghan Fischl and Klare eds OUP as part of an ongoing exploration into the distributive implications of economic and political globalization Water, Leisure and Culture Bruce Tabb, Susan C. Anderson, 2002-09-01 Dancing on the beach after a swim in the Mediterranean taking the waters in fashionable Baden Baden boating on the Black Sea the myriad uses of water imply that the term itself possesses multiple meanings Focusing on Europe this book addresses how using water for relaxation intersects with ideas about class gender nationality and consumption It also explores the ways Europeans have turned to water for pleasure relaxation and profit over the last two hundred years as the enjoyment of free time developed from a privilege into a right Contributors capture key moments of social and cultural transition in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries moments during which new social distinctions emerged debates about nationalism and cosmopolitanism flourished concepts of hygiene became politicized and attitudes about travel and vacationing developed What kinds of relationships exist between recreational uses of water and cultural social or political practices How have such relationships found representation in art landscaping or architecture Who visits water resorts or beaches and what role have these places played in the emergence of collective identities or in lending authority to social distinctions How does the organization of leisure activities around water reflect ideas about purity and pollution in a moral social or physical sense This exciting venture into uncharted waters will fascinate historians geographers and anyone with a keen interest in European cultural studies art and landscape Treaty Series , 2001 Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 3) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-08-20 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations
