Requiem For The Sudan War Drought And Disaster Relief On The Nile:

Requiem For The Sudan J. Millard Burr, Robert O Collins, J Millard Burr, 2018-05-04 After a decade of uneasy peace the historic conflict between the North and South Sudanese erupted into violent conflict in 1983 This ferocious civil war with its Arab militias and widespread use of automatic weapons has devastated the populace In addition to the miseries of war drought and famine took a further toll on an already battered society although this regional calamity remains largely unknown to the outside world over 1 000 000 people have either perished or been displaced Furthermore the Sudanese government seemed little inclined to help its own people Requiem for the Sudan provides a chilling account of the ravages of drought and civil war graphically recounting how attempts by international agencies and humanitarian organizations to provide food and medical relief have been thwarted by bureaucratic infighting corruption greed and ineptitude Based on a wealth of previously unpublished documents Requiem for the Sudan clearly illustrates how the failure of conflict resolution organizational mismanagement and a government hostile toward its own people had tragic human consequences Civil Wars and Revolution in the Sudan Robert O. Collins, 2005 This is a collection of twenty essays written over forty years between 1962 and 2004 on the Sudan southern Sudan and Darfur Four decades of civil war has cost more than two million dead and another six million refugees and Internally Displaced Persons Now after a decade of ambivalent and frustrating negotiations a peace agreement between the Sudan People's Liberation Movement and the Government of the Sudan has finally been signed on 9 January 2005 leaving in its wake a devastated southern Sudan its infrastructure completely destroyed its fragile economy in ruins and its people exhausted after nearly half a century of fierce fighting Although these twenty essays include such topics as nation building the dynamics of racial ethnic cultural and religious identity the politics of oil and the legacy of slavery most of them are concerned with conflict in the Sudan its participants and the reasons why and it began and has continued for so long These essays are presented here in chronological order the aggregate becomes a unique history of the Sudan's terrible civil war that cannot be found elsewhere the independent Sudan are woven into the text of each revealing new insights into the history of these tumultuous decades Sudan, Oil, and Human Rights Jemera Rone, Human Rights Watch (Organization), 2003 For twenty years southern Sudan has been the site of a tragic and brutal civil war pitting the northern based Arab and Islamic government against rebels in African marginalized areas especially the south More than two million people have died and four million have been displaced as a result In 1999 an element radically changed the war Sudanese oil located in the south was first exported by the central government The human price of this bonanza is immeasurable The government using oil revenues and aided by co-opted southerners rained a scorched earth campaign of mass displacement bombing and terror on the agro pastoral southern civilians living in and near the oil zones The displaced number in the hundreds of thousands Gendered Insecurities, Health and Development in Africa Howard Stein, Amal Fadlalla, 2012-08-21 The concept of security has often narrowly focused on issues surrounding the protection of national borders from outside threats However a richer idea of human security has become increasingly important in the past decade or so The aim is to incorporate various dimensions of the downside risks affecting the generalized well being or dignity of people Despite this rising prominence the discourses surrounding human security have neglected to address the topic of gender particularly how issues of poverty and underdevelopment impact women s and men s experiences and strategies differently Since its introduction in the 1994 UNDP Human Development report the idea of human security has become increasingly influential among academics and international development practitioners However gendered dimensions of human security have not attracted enough attention despite their vital importance Women are disproportionately more vulnerable to disease and other forms of human insecurity due to differences in entitlement empowerment and an array of other ecological and socio economic factors These gendered insecurities are inextricably linked to poverty and as a result the feminization of poverty is a growing phenomenon worldwide The contributors to this volume rely on a gender focused analysis to consider a number of issues central to human security and development in Africa including food security environmental health risks discrimination within judicial and legal systems gendered aspects of HIV AIDS transmission and treatment technologies neoliberalism and poverty alleviation strategies and conflict and women s political activism The gender focus of this volume points to the importance of power relationships and policy variability underlying human insecurities in the African context The insights of this book offer the potential for an improved human security framework one that embraces a more complex and context specific analysis of the issues of risk and vulnerability therefore expanding the capacities of the human security framework to safeguard the livelihoods of the most vulnerable populations

Guerrilla Government

Øystein H. Rolandsen, 2005 Guerrilla Government provides the background for today's political situation at the eve of a peace agreement for the South. It starts with a brief account of the historical roots of the second civil war and provides an in-depth analysis of the causes and consequences of the split in SPLM/A in 1991. The author then discusses the movement's political and administrative structures and its interaction with other parties at the Southern Sudanese scene prior to its National Convention in 1994. The National Convention and the results of its political and administrative reforms are scrutinised and the book is brought to a conclusion with a short comment on the prospects of the future government of the Southern Sudan.

Canada in Sudan, Sudan in Canada Amal Madibbo, 2015-05-01 Presenting field work conducted by fourteen Canadian and Sudanese born Canadian researchers between 2003 and 2011, Canada in Sudan, Sudan in Canada explores salient and timely issues faced by both countries. Sudanese immigration to Canada and the transnational ties between the two countries are illuminated in the context of various case studies. Tensions, both social and political, are discussed through the recent secession of South Sudan, the Darfur conflict, and the rise of Islamic fundamentalism. The authors also broach the reconstruction efforts in education and health initiatives, transnationalism from below, and Canada's role in conflict resolution in Sudan. Using qualitative and quantitative research methods that include interviews, surveys, participant observations, discourse analyses, and document analyses, researchers from a wide range of disciplinary approaches (sociology, anthropology, political science, social work, and health studies) reveal important conceptual and empirical perspectives about the processes of inclusion and exclusion. At a time when the Sudanese diaspora in Canada is growing and the conflict in Sudan has become a preoccupation of the international community, Canada in Sudan, Sudan in Canada reveals the root causes of conflict in Sudan and identifies measures to foster peace, stability, and development. Securing the Peace Monica Duffy Toft, 2009-10-26 Timely and pathbreaking Securing the Peace is the first book to explore the complete spectrum of civil war terminations including negotiated settlements military victories by governments and rebels and stalemates and ceasefires Examining the outcomes of all civil war terminations since 1940 Monica Toft develops a general theory of postwar stability showing how third party guarantees may not be the best option She demonstrates that thorough security sector reform plays a critical role in establishing peace over the long term Much of the thinking in this area has centered on third parties presiding over the maintenance of negotiated settlements but the problem with this focus is that fewer than a quarter of recent civil wars have ended this way Furthermore these settlements have been precarious often resulting in a recurrence of war Toft finds that military victory especially victory by rebels lends itself to a more durable peace She argues for the importance of the security sector the police and military and explains that victories are more stable when governments can maintain order Toft presents statistical evaluations and in depth case studies that include El Salvador Sudan and Uganda to reveal that where the security sector remains robust stability and democracy are likely to follow An original and thoughtful reassessment of civil war terminations Securing the Peace will interest all those concerned about resolving our world s most pressing conflicts Slavery and Jihad in the Sudan

Thomas,2009-04 Slavery and Jihad in the Sudan is not only a riveting narrative about the struggle against the slave trade and martyrdom of Charles Gordon at the hands of the Mahdi but also an account of conditions during a period of great trauma Fred Thomas holds a PhD in social anthropology and has studied and worked in Sudan He relies on his vast knowledge and personal experience to bring attention to a place and time in a unique part of the world where grass roots conditions in a tribal society have changed little over time particularly in the vast expanses of rural Sudan Thomas highlights the extraordinary personalities of the time by sharing anecdotes from explorers Muslim holy men Christian missionaries foreign mercenaries and slave traders As Thomas recounts the legacy of Mahdism he also includes haunting vestiges of earlier times within the atrocities currently occurring in Darfur as well as an interesting correlation between ancient tribal and religious differences to their practical relevance in today s world Compiled with fragments of conversations captivating descriptions and personal stories Slavery and Jihad in the Sudan allows a glimpse into a fascinating period Natural

Hazards, UnNatural Disasters World Bank,United Nations,2010-11-10 This book examines how to ensure that the preventive measures are worthwhile and effective and how people can make decisions individually and collectively at different levels of government Omar al-Bashir's Sudan, 2nd Edition Diana Childress,2012-08-01 Omar al Bashir came into power in 1989 Sudan was gripped by famine caused by drought as well as a devastating civil war between the north and south Its economy was in shambles Bashir headed a coup to overthrow Sudan s democratic government and many hoped it would finally bring order to the country After the coup Bashir suspended the constitution and appointed himself head of state prime minister defense minister and commander in chief of the army It soon became clear that his objective was to turn Sudan into a strict Islamic state even though most people in South Sudan are not Muslim He dismissed imprisoned and even executed those who disagreed with his measures and continued the war in the south destroying entire villages and scattering their populations Then in 2003 a crisis arose in the western area of Darfur Drought had brought farmers and herders into conflict over the land Bashir armed pro Arab militia who worked with the military to bring the same destruction of villages to Darfur In 2008 the International Criminal Court issued an arrest warrant for Bashir for crimes against humanity In Omar al Bashir s Sudan learn more about this ruthless dictator and how the international spotlight might help bring an end to his repressive rule The Responsibility to Protect in Darfur David Lanz,2019-10-28 This book analyzes the Responsibility to Protect R2P in the context of the conflict in Darfur using detailed empirical evidence The volume traces Darfur s evolution from forgotten conflict to a major global cause and back to obscurity The emergence of a far reaching international response to the war in Darfur began in 2004 and included the most influential international advocacy movement since the anti apartheid campaign and one of the world s largest peacekeeping missions The book analyzes how Darfur slid back into international obscurity after 2011 despite ongoing violence against civilians and the continued risk of conflict escalation following Omar al Bashir s ousting in April 2019 Based on an analysis of more than 100 interviews and over 1 000 media reports the book examines one of the most pressing questions related to the R2P why do some situations of mass atrocities cause an international outcry while others are met with complacency and silence It argues that the presence or absence of a compelling narrative which frames a situation in moral terms and unambiguously conveys who is responsible who suffers and what should be done facilitates whether or not sufficient traction will be gained to beget a robust R2P response This book will be of much interest to students of the Responsibility to Protect human rights peacekeeping conflict resolution African politics and International Relations in general

Wayne Nafziger, Frances Stewart, Raimo Väyrynen, 2000-10-19 Since the end of the cold war the number of civil wars in developing countries has escalated to the point where they are the most significant source of human suffering in the world today Although there are many political analyses of these emergencies this two volume work is the first comprehensive study of the economic social and political roots of humanitarian emergencies identifying early measures to prevent such disasters Nafziger Stewart and Väyrynen draw on a wide range of specialists on the political economy of war and on major conflicts to show the causes of conflict The first volume provides a general overview of the nature and causes of the emergencies including economic political and environmental factors The second volume provides detailed case studies of thirteen conflicts including Rwanda Burundi the Congo Afghanistan and the Caucasus that originated in the weakness of the state or where economic factors predominate The volumes emphasize the significance of protracted economic stagnation and decline high and increasing inequality government exclusion of distinct social groups state failure and predatory rule They debunk beliefs recurrent in the literature that emergencies are the result of deteriorating environmental conditions structural adjustment and deep seated ethnic animosity By analysing the causes and prevention of war and humanitarian emergencies in developing countries this work outlines a less costly alternative to the present strategy of the world community of spending millions of dollars annually to provide mediation relief and rehabilitation after the conflict occurs
