examining various aspects of time in literature starting with the modernist revolution in fictional time initiated among others by Joyce up until the present In Part One James Joyce and Commodius Vicus of Recirculation the largest group of essays offers new and insightful readings of Finnegans Wake Ulysses Dubliners and Pomes Penyeach reflecting a variety of Joyce's experiments with time as well as demonstrating patterns and cross references in his lifelong artistic explorations Part Two Writer and Private Time focuses on selected literary responses to subjective experience of time The articles analyse Joyce's epiphanies Elizabeth Bishop's rendition of a lyrical moment in her poetry as well as the interplay of fiction and autobiography in the writings of Joseph Conrad and J M Coetzee Another article in this section uses the Bakhtinian concept of chronotope to emphasise simultaneity of reading and writing in the newly defined genre of literature At the other end of the temporal spectrum the articles in Part Three Writer and Public Time devoted to recent fiction testify to the constant need for seeking new ways of recording the temporal dimension of collective experience It is argued that the engagement with Victorianism in contemporary fiction has resulted in a special treatment of time involving duality of temporal levels while the emerging post 9/11 genre takes account of the new audiovisual media in order to respond to one of the most traumatic experiences in contemporary history

The Old Story, with a Difference Julian Wolfreys, 2006 The Old Story with a Difference Pickwick's Vision explores in radically different ways from most approaches to nineteenth century studies the tropes and metaphors of vision in Dickens' first novel The Pickwick Papers Julian Wolfreys provides a close reading of Dickens' Pickwick Papers and argues that this novel is an exemplary text for the re-consideration of concepts such as literature history the novel and the whole notion of Victorian studies True to the purpose of the Victorian Critical Interventions Series Wolfreys challenges scholars to rethink the use of a canonical text in Victorian literature Challenging the commonplaces of historicist criticism and demonstrating the need for a return to close reading The Old Story with a Difference presents a reading of the novel grounded in the twinned rigors of materialist historiography and theoretical inflections tending toward attentiveness to epistemological and linguistic concerns Through such an orientation Wolfreys unpacks the relation between the tropes of visibility and matters of memory history and the necessity of fiction to bear witness to the cultures past and present from which literature becomes generated and which it mediates In doing so he situates an argument for rethinking Dickens novel as the inaugural novel of Victorian fiction par excellence in that novel s efforts to remain open to the traces of the past in particular ways The Old Story with a Difference holds profound implications for the study not only of Dickens works but Victorian literature and culture in general Provocative and inventive this ambitious analysis will challenge goad and invite the reader to return to acts of materialist reading informed by ethical and ideological urgency rather than relapsing into the commonplaces of humanist clich
