Land, Power, And Poverty Charles D. Brockett,2019-03-04 This book Land Power and Poverty explores the development of the rigid and unequal structures of rural Central American society and the role in the conflicts of five governments of the region Guatemala Costa Rica Honduras El Salvador and Nicaragua

Farm Policy Perspectives ,1984 The Journal of Agricultural Economics Research ,1989 Food Security Strategies C. Peter Timmer,Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,1997-01-01 This publication reviews the recent literature on food systems and economic development and underlines their limitations Simultaneously it analyzes the Asian approach to food security and concludes that the lesson from East and Southeast Asia for achieving and maintaining food security can be summed up as a growth process stimulated by a dynamic rural economy leads to rapid poverty alleviation which in the context of public action to stabilize food prices ensures food security Publisher s description Agricultural Policy for the 21st Century Luther G. Tweeten,Stanley R. Thompson,2008-06-02 Agricultural policy reform has become a very hot topic Over the next couple of years we will see the funding for these programs being hotly debated The thesis of this book is that a better informed public is essential to bring rationality to farm policy This book provides telling evidence that markets work that competent commercial farmers will earn returns on their resources as high as those earned elsewhere in the absence of income transfer to farmers International Social Science Journal ,1985 The Corn Economy of Indonesia

C. Peter Timmer,2019-05-15 Dealing with a dynamic commodity system in a country that has experienced rapid economic growth over the past fifteen years The Corn Economy of Indonesia offers expert policy analysis conducted within a political economy framework Agricultural Economics Research ,1987 World Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Abstracts ,1997 Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Wallace C. Olsen,1991 The first of an eight volume series The Literature of the Agricultural Sciences this book analyzes the trends in the published literature of agricultural economics and rural sociology during the past fifty years It uses citation analysis and other bibliometric techniques to identify the primary journals report series and monographs of current importance to the developed industrial countries as well as those in the Third World The Evolving Sphere of Food Security Rosamond L. Naylor,2014-08-18 Hundreds of millions of people still suffer from chronic hunger and food insecurity despite sufficient levels of global food production The poor's inability to afford adequate diets remains the biggest constraint to solving hunger but the dynamics of global food insecurity are complex and demand analysis that extends beyond the traditional domains of economics and agriculture How do the policies used to promote food security in one country affect nutrition food access natural resources and national security in other countries How do the priorities and challenges of achieving food security change over time as countries develop economically The Evolving Sphere of Food Security seeks to answer these two important questions and others by exploring the interconnections of food security to security of many kinds energy water health climate the environment and national security Through personal stories of research in the field and policy advising at local and global scales a multidisciplinary group of scholars provide readers with a real world sense of the opportunities and challenges involved in alleviating food insecurity In sub Saharan Africa for example management of HIV AIDS the establishment of an equitable system of land property rights and investment in solar powered irrigation play an important role in improving food security particularly in the face of global climate change Meanwhile food price spikes associated with the United States biofuels policy continue to have spillover effects on the world's rural poor with implications for stability and national security The Evolving Sphere of Food Security traces four key areas of the food security field 1 the political economy of food and agriculture 2 challenges for the poorest billion 3 agriculture's dependence on resources and the environment and 4 food in a national and international security context This book connects these areas in a way that tells an integrated story about human lives resource use and the policy process Automation: The Future of Weed Control in Cropping Systems Stephen L. Young,Francis J. Pierce,2013-11-21 Technology is rapidly advancing in all areas of society including agriculture In both conventional and organic systems there is a need to apply technology beyond our current approach to improve the efficiency and economics of management Weeds in particular have been part of cropping systems for centuries often being ranked as the number one production cost Now public demand for a sustainably grown product has created economic incentives for producers to improve their practices yet the development of advanced weed control tools beyond biotech has lagged behind An opportunity has been created for engineers and weed scientists to pool their knowledge and work together to fill the gap in managing weeds in crops Never before has there been such pressure to produce more with less in order to sustain our economies and environments This book is the first to provide a radically new approach to weed management that could change cropping systems both now and in the future Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Size, Structure, And The Changing Face Of American Agriculture Arne Hallam,2019-09-05 Presents the latest findings on past changes in structure the factors that lead to structural change its effect on societal welfare and what will happen to the structure of agriculture in the years ahead The book provides insights on issues such as the family farm the industrialization of agriculture and the impact of agricultural technology on the environment Delivering on the Promise of Pro-poor Growth Timothy Besley,Louise Cord,2007 Economic growth is the most important determinant of poverty reduction But countries with similar rates of growth can experience different poverty reduction rates Interdisciplinary and Sustainability Issues in Food and Agriculture - Volume III Olaf Christen,Victor Squires,Rattan Lal and Rober J.
