Row Row Little Red Boat Chinese:

Row, Row, Row Your Boat Patricia Linder, 2003-07-11 Get down Jim He has a gun Alone and under siege in their quarters the author could only watch the television screen which showed her husband being assaulted by a mob of angry Chinese students at the Taipei airport This is just one of the many gut wrenching experiences that along with the ridiculous sight of forty seven live lobsters crawling around their garage floor make this book one that will take you from laughter to tears as the life of a Navy wife unfolds Besides being wife raiser of children maintainer of home cars lawns and appliances of all sizes she must be able to move on a days notice And as an entertainer a friend a communicator and world traveler she must be able to do it alone Without a sense of humor she is in Navy terms dead in the water Covering the Korean and Vietnam wars the reader is given a birds eye account of the frustrations and excitement of a Navy pilot as he catapults off aircraft carrier decks to fly strikes over the heavily defended targets of Korea and Vietnam This is the story of two careers his and hers

Short Stories in Chinese John Balcom, 2013-06-25 A dual language edition of Chinese stories many appearing in English for the first time This new volume of eight short stories offers students at all levels the opportunity to enjoy a wide range of contemporary literature from the world s most spoken language without having to constantly refer back to a dictionary The stories many of which appear here in English for the first time are by well known writers as well as emerging voices From a story by Li Rui about the honest simplicity of a Shanxi farmer to one by Ma Yuan exposing the seamy underside of contemporary urban society they are infused with both rural dialect and urban slang and feature a wide range of styles and points of view Complete with notes the stories make excellent reading in either language Note For each short story in this eBook edition the full English translation is followed by its original Chinese text

Cape Cod Summers Paul Vaughn, 2003 Cape Cod Summers and more as envisioned through the perceptive eyes and humorous wild imagination of a young boy who grew up and out of his New England childhood short pants as Paul Fithian and into his Californian long pants as Paul Vaughn The poignant pictures Vaughn paints with words jog the memory of many who remember their own youth on the Cape during the mid 20th century Other vignettes are unique to this last of three boys whose family traces back to at least the dingy beside the Mayflower A boy whose New England heritage was ingrained in his heart and soul enough that he often imagined his Puritan ancestors in their black buckled hats looking over his shoulder whenever he was doing something not quite right which was often It makes no difference where on the Cape these scenes take place but only that the Cape melds mentally and physically with this youngster as he struggles to find his own self in his own world These Cape images create scenes of a yesteryear bringing smiles chuckles and outright laughter to those who have also left their hearts on Cape Cod and to those doing so at this very moment
