Explodity Nancy Perloff, 2017-01-21. The artists' books made in Russia between 1910 and 1915 are like no others. Unique in their fusion of the verbal, visual, and sonic, these books are meant to be read, looked at, and listened to. Painters and poets including Natalia Goncharova, Velimir Khlebnikov, Mikhail Larionov, Kazimir Malevich, and Vladimir Mayakovsky collaborated to fabricate hand-lithographed books for which they invented a new language called zaum, a neologism meaning "beyond the mind," which was distinctive in its emphasis on sound as such and its rejection of definite logical meaning. At the heart of this volume are close analyses of two of the most significant and experimental futurist books: Mirskontsa (Worldbackwards) and Vzorval (Explodity). In addition, Nancy Perloff examines the profound differences between the Russian avant-garde and Western art movements, including futurism, and she uncovers a wide-ranging legacy in the mid-century global movement of sound and concrete poetry. The Brazilian Noigandres group, Ian Hamilton Finlay, and Henri Chopin. Contemporary Western conceptual art and the artist's book. Sound recordings of zaum poems featured in the book are available at www.getty.edu.

Levenson,2020-09-17 Explore the biblical context for Advent in this series of contemplations The pieces of the beginning of the Christian story come together not from one set of hands but many For instance in the four Gospels Mark makes no mention of the events leading up to and surrounding the birth of Jesus John for the most part points back to Genesis Most of the historical pieces come to us primarily from Matthew and Luke The scriptures together are the key to telling the story of the season Allusions and references to other scriptures are accompanied by brief meditations so that readers may step more deeply into the Advent story and find its meaning and impact for their own lives
