Roy Lichtenstein Prints 1956-1997 From The Collections Of Jordan D Schnitzer And Family Foundation:

Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson, 2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1.3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9/11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding

Roy Lichtenstein Prints, 1956-97 Roy Lichtenstein, Chris Bruce, Dave Hickey, Elizabeth Ann Brown, 2005 Think Roy Lichtenstein and you probably conjure up comic strip based paintings and the colorful dots that comprise them Lichtenstein intended his now iconic depictions of characters in tense dramatic situations as commentaries on modern man's plight in which the media magazines television and advertisements shapes everything including our emotions Many of the same concepts behind the artist's paintings apply to the significant number of prints he produced in the latter part of this life Focused on works created from the mid 50s until his death in 1997 this exhibition catalogue gives a full overview of Lichtenstein's printmaking accomplishments Accompanying reproductions of the artist's works are essays by two outstanding scholars Dave Hickey a MacArthur Award winning writer on art and culture and Elizabeth Brown who wrote her thesis on Lichtenstein at Columbia University under the tutelage of the late Kirk Varnedoe Approximately 40 prints are illustrated in this elegant intimately scaled book which highlights a specific body of work from one of the most innovative forces in post World War II art
