Unlucky and RICH Richard St John,2005 Have you ever wondered what leads to success Do you just need to be smart great looking or lucky Richard St John says those things dont lead to success And he should know He spent 10 years interviewing over 500 successful people from Martha Stewart to actor Russell Crowe to DNA discoverer James Watson to the top people in many fields After analyzing and sorting all the information Richard discovered the top 8 factors that are the foundation for success in any field He also discovered that many successful people aren t especially smart good looking or lucky They re ordinary people without special gifts who achieve success by following the 8 factors Richard himself is a good example He says I could never figure out how an ordinary guy like me succeeded in business won top awards and became a millionaire So I started a project to ask other people what led to their success and it grew into a 10 year journey of discovery The story is in Richards new book Stupid Ugly Unlucky and RICH Spikes Guide to Success an easy to read analysis that gets beyond the cliches to distill what the worlds most successful people really do have in common An Introduction to Animals and Visual Culture Randy Malamud,2012-05-30 How and why do people frame animals so pervasively and what are the ramifications of this habit For animals being put into a cultural frame a film a website a pornographic tableau an advertisement a cave drawing a zoo means being taken out of their natural contexts leaving them somehow displaced and decontextualized Human vision of the animal equates to power over the animal We envision ourselves as monarchs of all we survey but our dismal record of polluting and destroying vast swaths of nature shows that we are indeed not masters of the ecosphere A more ethically accurate stance in our relationship to animals should thus challenge the omnipotence of our visual access to them
