Carrier Operations in World War II J D Brown, 2009-05-21 Between 1939 and 1945 the Royal Navy's Fleet Air Arm grew from a small force into a powerful strategic weapon British carrier based aircraft fought throughout the world and David Brown here describes their activities in the Home Mediterranean Eastern and British Pacific Fleets together with Forces created for specific operations listing aircraft and units embarked during the various phases He goes on to describe carrier operations in the Pacific between 1941 and 1945 the greatest maritime war in history Both the United States and Imperial Japanese Navies watched the Royal Navy's early carrier operations in the European Theatre and benefited from the lessons American aircrews and sailors learnt quickly in action until by March 1945 the United States Fifth Fleet with its associated Marine Corps formations was probably the most efficient and effective instrument of war deployed in the pre nuclear age This new work contains material from two volumes first published in 1968 and 1974 merged with notes for a third which David Brown prepared but never published before his death They appear for the first time together providing the most detailed single volume account currently available of the operation of British American and Japanese aircraft carriers in World War II Dictionary of American Naval Fighting Ships United States. Naval History Division, 1959 An alphabetical arrangement of the ships of the continental and United States Navies with a historical sketch of each one Canadian Squadrons in Coastal Command Andrew Hendrie, 1997 During the war Canadian squadrons flew hundreds of operations over the North Atlantic the English Channel the North Sea and the Bay of Biscay Such operations included reconnaissance flights as well as shipping strikes to Norway the Netherlands and the French coast The Canadians proved themselves admirably despite heavy losses some of the heaviest of the war From a force of some 4 000 officers and airmen and 270 aircraft at the beginning of the war the RCAF had within four months doubled in strength with 8 287 officers and airmen and 14 operational squadrons in Canada In all 48 RCAF squadrons had served overseas by the end of the war This comprehensive study covers every success achieved by Canadian squadrons listed in Coastal Command s records for World War II including attacks on U boats and enemy controlled vessels Each operation is reported in meticulous detail from the time of departure current weather hours flown and crew involved to a description of the action itself Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A.  going to be another of those books puffing up the American side of WWII It most certainly isn't K A Nelson tells an interesting

 Recommended The Naval Review It is January 1942 Six weeks after the United States entered World War II Imperial Japan is annihilating American forces across the Far East while the Nazis stand triumphant over much of Europe Adolf Hitler's forces are about to commence an assault along the East Coast of the United States but this Atlantic Pearl Harbor would prove far more devastating than Japan's attack on Hawaii The wolves are closing in and few Americans realize their beaches and coastal cities are about to witness the worst naval defeat in American history The Western Hemisphere holds the key to victory for the beleaguered Allies but only if the vast economic and military resources of North and South America can be carried across the Atlantic by Allied merchant ships These civilian manned cargo vessels are the backbone of the American war economy and the lifeline enabling Britain and the Soviet Union to survive but Hitler's favorite admiral also knows this and he has set in motion a plan of unprecedented boldness Germany's dreaded submarines or U boats are going to the United States The fiery months that followed would pit American servicemen against German U boat sailors in a desperate struggle that stained East Coast waters with oil and blood In the crosshairs of this deadly cat and mouse game was a stalwart contingent of civilian mariners who crewed the tankers and freighters supplying the war against the Axis Powers Thousands of them would perish as hundreds of merchant ships were sunk Every American coastal state became a battlefield in 1942 and the events that transpired off New Jersey illustrate the perils and brutality of this forgotten campaign The seafloor along the Garden State is today strewn with shipwrecks that bear witness to the innumerable ways to die faced by friend and foe alike only miles from the boardwalk Though these seafarers' lives were forfeit the battle they fought would decide the fates of
