e Bayana Shokoohy Mehrdad Shokoohy,2020-03-18 Bayana in Rajasthan and its monuments challenge the perceived but established view of the development of Muslim architecture and urban form in India At the end of the twelfth century early conquerors took the mighty Hindu fort building the first Muslim city below on virgin ground They later reconfigured the fort and constructed another town within it These two towns were the centre of an autonomous region during the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Going beyond a simple study of the historic architectural and archaeological remains this book takes on the wider issues of how far the artistic traditions of Bayana which developed independently from those of Delhi later influenced north Indian architecture It shows how these traditions were the forerunners of the Mughal architectural style which drew many of its features from innovations developed first in Bayana HENRY G. different aspects of the reception of Firdausi's Shahnama or Book of Kings both within Iran and in neighbouring lands. Later poets and writers not only looked to Firdausi's work for a model but supplemented its stories with other narratives or absorbed the characters and the moral values of the poem into their own works. Several chapters focus on the literary traditions fed by the Shahnama including reports of the continuing oral performances of its more popular stories. Others discuss Firdausi's impact on the creative imagination of the miniature painters who illustrated manuscript copies of the Shahnama in the courts of the Ottoman Empire, Moghul India and the Central Asia Khanates up till the seventeenth century. Contributors include Gabrielle van den Berg, Francesca Leoni Farhad, Mehran Bilha Moor, Adeela Qureshi, Ravshan Rahmoni, Julia Rubanovich, Karin Ruehrdanz, Jan Schmidt, Ivan Steblin, Kamenski Zeren, Tanindi L. le Ulu, Evangelos Venetis, Olga Yastrebova and Marjolijn van Zutphen.

Islam and Tibet - Interactions along the Musk Routes

Anna Akasoy, 2016-12-14. The first encounters between the Islamic world and Tibet took place in the course of the expansion of the Abbasid Empire in the eighth century. Military and political contacts went along with an increasing interest in the other side. Cultural exchanges and the transmission of knowledge were facilitated by a trading network with musk constituting one of the main trading goods from the Himalayas largely through India. From the thirteenth century onwards the spread of the Mongol Empire from the Western borders of Europe through Central Asia to China facilitated further exchanges. The significance of these interactions has been long ignored in scholarship. This volume represents a major contribution to the subject bringing together new studies by an interdisciplinary group of international scholars. They explore for the first time the multi-layered contacts between the Islamic world, Central Asia and the Himalayas from the eighth century until the present day in a variety of fields including geography, cartography, art history, medicine, history of science and education, literature, hagiography, archaeology and anthropology.

A History of Islamic Societies Ira M.

Lapidus, 2014-10-13. This new edition of one of the most widely used course books on Islamic civilizations around the world has been substantially revised to incorporate the new scholarship and insights of the last twenty-five years. Ira Lapidus' history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam's worldwide diffusion. The history is divided into four parts. Part I is a comprehensive account of pre-Islamic late antiquity, the beginnings of Islam, the early Islamic empires and Islamic religious, artistic, legal and intellectual cultures. Part II deals with the construction in the Middle East of Islamic religious communities and states to the fifteenth century. Part III includes the history to the nineteenth century of Islamic North Africa and Spain, the Ottoman, Safavid and Mughal empires and other Islamic societies in Asia and Africa. Part IV accounts for the impact of European commercial and imperial domination on

Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present Allen's Indian Mail, and Register of Intelligence for British and Foreign India, China, and All Parts of the East ,1851
