The Hindu Nationalist Movement in India Christophe Jaffrelot, 1996 Using techniques similar to those of nationalist groups in other nations Jaffrelot contends the Hindu movement polarizes Indian society by stigmatizing minorities chiefly Muslims and Christians and by promoting a sectarian Hindu identity

Accounting for Fundamentalisms Martin E. Marty, R. Scott Appleby, 2004-05 Accounting for Fundamentalisms features treatments of fundamentalist movements groups that often make headlines but are rarely understood as part of the multivolume Fundamentalism Project This book remains a standard reference source for comprehending the dynamics of fundamentalist movements around the world Surveying fundamentalist movements in Christianity Judaism Islam Hinduism Sikhism and Buddhism the contributors to Accounting for Fundamentalisms describe the organization of these movements their leadership and recruiting techniques and the ways in which their ideological programs and organizational structures shift over time in response to changing political and social environments

The Rising Tide of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young, 1993 Two decades after the publication of his prize winning book The Politics of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young and a distinguished panel of contributors assess the changing impact of cultural pluralism on political processes around the world specifically in the former Soviet Union China United States India Ethiopia and Guatemala The result is an arresting look at the dissolution of the nation state system as we have known it Crawford Young opens with an overview of the dramatic rise in the political significance of cultural pluralism and of scholars changing understanding of what drives and shapes ethnic identification Mark Beissinger brilliantly explains the demise of the last great empire state the USSR while Edward Friedman notes growing challenges to the apparent cultural homogeneity of China Nader Entessar suggests intriguing contrasts in Azeri identity politics in Iran and the ex USSR Ronald Schmidt and Noel Kent explore the language and racial dimensions of the rising multicultural currents in the United States Douglas Spitz shows the extent of the decline of the old secular vision of India of the independence generation Alan LeBaron traces the recent emergence of an assertive Mayan identity among a submerged populace in Guatemala long thought to be destined for Ladinoization A case study of the diversity and uncertain future of Ethiopia dramatically emerges from four contrasting contributions Tekle Woldemikael looks at the potential cultural tensions in Eritrea Solomon Gashaw offers a central Ethiopian nationalist perspective Herbert Lewis reflects the perspectives of a restless and disaffected periphery and James Quirin provides an arresting explanation of the construction of identity amongst the Beta Israel Ethiopian Jews Virginia Sapiro steps back from specific regions offering an original analysis of the interaction between cultural pluralism and gender Forging Power Bidyut Chakrabarty, 2005-11-28 This volume looks at the evolution of coalition politics in India both at the national and provincial levels It investigates the processes that led to coalition governments It explores the formation of the United Progressive Alliance UPA the National Democratic Alliance NDA the Janata Party experiment and the Third Front experiments The book highlights the growing importance of regional parties in national politics and argues that the very notion of representation in terms of national and local is being redefined in the context of the emerging significance of coalition politics It also examines the role of cultural synergy and political expediency in coalition politics and discusses the inevitability of coalition government in India Religious Fundamentalism in the Contemporary World Santosh C. Saha, 2004-01-01 Today new and ever more pernicious forms of terrorist violence threaten the world Because these new forms of violence are so often linked to religious radicalism modern terrorism has challenged the secular ethics of contemporary civil society There is a pressing need to understand modern religious movements that have added militancy and belligerence as fundamental elements of religious practice Contributors to this volume painstakingly tackle the question of how to define the contours of current religious fundamentalism as they examine the private and public postures of fundamentalist rhetoric the importance of its regional variants and the damage it can do to regional and national education systems Their analysis tracks trends in religious movements that aspire to radicalize reform and violently topple governments and nations while highlighting the difference between fundamentalist interpretations and other longstanding juridical political and intellectual traditions Legality and Legitimacy in Global Affairs Richard Falk, Mark Juergensmeyer, Vesselin Popovski, 2012-03-27 Legality and legitimacy in global affairs edited by Richard Falk Mark Juergensmeyer and Vesselin Popovski brings together analyses of controversial events in international politics from top experts in field combines approaches to involvement between nations from across the social science disciplines approaches contemporary international relations from a philosophical ethical and legal standpoint Global Rebellion Mark Juergensmeyer, 2008-05-16 A new religious activism has seized the imaginations of political rebels around the world In providing a road map through this complex terrain the author bases his discussion on interviews with militant activists and case studies of rebellious movements Ancient Religions, Modern Politics Michael A. Cook, 2016-12-06 Why Islam is more political and fundamentalist than other religions Why does Islam play a larger role in contemporary politics than other religions Is there something about the Islamic heritage that makes Muslims more likely than adherents of other faiths to invoke it in their political life If so what is it Ancient Religions Modern Politics seeks to answer these questions by examining the roles of Islam Hinduism and Christianity in modern political life placing special emphasis on the relevance or irrelevance of their heritages to today's social and political concerns Michael Cook takes an in depth comparative look at political identity social values attitudes to warfare views about the role of religion in various cultural domains and conceptions of the polity In all these fields he finds that the Islamic heritage offers richer resources for those engaged in current politics than either the Hindu or the Christian heritages He uses this finding to explain the fact that despite the existence of Hindu and Christian counterparts to some aspects of Islamism the phenomenon as a whole is unique in the world today The book also shows that fundamentalism in the sense of a determination to return to the original sources of the religion is politically more adaptive for Muslims than it is for Hindus or Christians A sweeping comparative analysis by one of the world's leading scholars of premodern Islam Ancient Religions Modern Politics sheds important light on the relationship between the foundational texts of these three great religious traditions and the politics of their followers today Stories of Change

Joseph E. Davis, 2012-02-01 Despite the amount of storytelling in social movements little attention has been paid to narrative as a form of movement discourse or as a mode of social interaction Stories of Change is a systematic study of narrative as well as a demonstration of the power of narrative analysis to illuminate many features of contemporary social movements Davis includes a wide array of stories of change stories of having been harmed or wronged stories of conflict with unjust authorities stories of liberation and empowerment and stories of strategic success and failure By showing how these stories are a powerful vehicle for producing regulating and diffusing shared meaning the contributors explore movement stories their functions and the conditions under which they are created and performed They show how narrative study can illuminate social movement emergence recruitment internal dynamics and identity building RSS's Tryst with Politics Pralay

Kanungo, 2002 This RSS is perhaps the most controversial organization in contemporary India This book explores the mission method and motive of the RSS and suggests that the ideological core of the RSS Hindu Rashtra is political and not cultural It argues that K B Hedgewar the founder of the RSS had a clear political mission while M S Golwalkar his successor despite his saintly appearance and overt distaste for politics sharpened and amplified its ideology Nevertheless deep down the RSS remained political This book goes on to delineate how Balasaheb Deoras the third chief who did not have much of a fancy for culture plunged into Indian politics on the organizational and ideological foundation created by his predecessors Deoras seriously pursued the homogenizing agenda of the RSS to integrate different sections like the Dalits tribals and women into the fold of the Hindu Rashtra Rajendra Singh the successor of Deoras consolidated the political mission by getting control over the State and reaching out to civil society more effectively K S Sudarshan the present chief while attempting to retain a tight control over State power simultaneously reinforces Hindutva The author concludes by arguing that the RSS from Hedgewar to Sudarshan continues its tryst with politics to convert India into a Hindu Rashtra Highly readable and of contemporary relevance this book would be of immense interest to political scientists political sociologists and all those interested in present day India Hindu Nationalism Christophe Jaffrelot, 2009-01-10 Hindu nationalism came to world attention in 1998 when the Hindu nationalist Bharatiya Janata Party BJP won national elections in India Although the BJP was defeated nationally in 2004 it continues to govern large Indian states and the movement it represents remains a major force in the world's largest democracy This book presents the thought of the founding fathers and key intellectual leaders of Hindu nationalism from the time of the British Raj through the independence period to the present Spanning more than 130 years of Indian history and including the writings of both famous and unknown ideologues this reader reveals how the Hindutva movement approaches key issues of Indian politics Covering such important topics as secularism religious conversion relations with Muslims education and Hindu identity in the growing diaspora this reader will be indispensable for anyone wishing to understand contemporary Indian politics society culture or history Jewish Fundamentalism in Comparative Perspective Laurence J. Silberstein, 1993-02 In recent decades religious fundamentalism has played an increasingly significant role in Western and Middle Eastern politics and culture In this volume an international group of scholars from fields such as religious studies sociology political science history and anthropology explore diverse dimensions of religious fundamentalism and relate it to a range of cultural and political issues Although the focus is on fundamentalism in its Jewish guise the methodological and comparative emphases make it valuable to specialists in a variety of fields Among the issues examined are the characteristics that link fundamentalist movements within various religious traditions the study of fundamentalist motifs as they appear specifically in Judaism Christianity and Islam and whether or not this is a useful approach the relationship between religion and modernity the impact of fundamentalism on the Arab Israeli conflict and the interaction of modern Jewish fundamentalist movements with traditional Judaism The book also provides important insights into the emergence of religious fundamentalism as a powerful social and political force in Jewish life particularly in Israel Contributing to the volume are Gerald Cromer Bar Ilan Univ Menachem Friedman Bar Ilan Univ Susan Harding Univ of California Santa Cruz James Davison Hunter Univ of Virginia Aaron Kirschenbaum Tel Aviv University Hava Larazus Yafeh Hebrew Univ of Jerusalem Ian Lustick Univ of Pennsylvania Alan Mittleman Muhlenberg College James Piscatori Univ College of Wales Elie Rekhess Tel Aviv Univ Laurence J Silberstein Lehigh Univ and Ehud Sprinzak Hebrew Univ of Jerusalem
