season by season and region by region Christopher Somerville walks the British Isles following routes that continually bring his father to mind As he travels the country from the winter floodlands of the River Severn to the lambing pastures of Nidderdale the towering seabird cliffs on the Shetland Isle of Foula in June and the ancient oaks of Sherwood Forest in autumn he describes the history wildlife landscapes and people he encounters down back lanes and old paths in rain and fair weather This exquisitely written account of the British countryside not only inspires us to don our boots and explore the 140 000 miles of footpaths across the British Isles but also illustrates how on long distance walks we can come to an understanding of ourselves and our fellow walkers Over the hills and along the byways Christopher Somerville examines what moulded the men of his father s generation so reticent about their wartime experiences so self effacing upright and dutiful as he searches for the man inside the man that his own father really was Transactions of the Woolhope Naturalists' Field Club Woolhope Naturalists' Field Club,1871 Transactions of the Woolhope Naturalists' Field Club ,1905
