

The image shows the front cover of a travel guide. The top half features a photograph of a car's interior, looking out at a rocky coastline with waves crashing against the shore. The sky is blue, and the water is a vibrant turquoise. The car's dashboard and side mirror are visible in the foreground. The title 'Fodor's Road Guide USA' is printed in large, bold, yellow letters, with 'Fodor's' in a smaller font and 'Road Guide USA' in a larger font. Below the title, the word 'California' is written in a large, bold, black font on a yellow background. At the bottom, there is a blue section containing white text that describes the guide's content.

Understanding Environmental Issues provides an excellent foundation for developing critical thinking about contemporary environmental concerns and the ways in which these are debated represented and managed The book should achieve its aim of stimulating students to engage with how ideas of sustainability and environmental justice can be applied both in policy and in practical action Gordon Walker Lancaster Environment Centre Lancaster University The arena of environmental issues is a minefield for undergraduate students seeking clarity about key problems and solutions This is where Understanding Environmental Issues will play a major role providing a stimulating guide through the wealth of material and complex ideas In particular the unification of social and physical science in the case studies provides a holistic approach to the subject that is essential for students and a refreshing innovation for environmental textbooks Anna R Davies Trinity College University of Dublin There is now an unprecedented interest in and concern about environmental problems Understanding Environmental Issues explains the science behind these problems as well as the economic political social and cultural factors which produce and reproduce them This book Explains clearly and concisely the science and social science necessary to understand environmental issues Describes in section one the philosophies values politics and technologies which contribute to the production of environmental issues Uses cases on climate change waste food and natural hazards in section two to provide detailed illustration and exemplification of the ideas described in section one The conclusion a case study of Mexico City draws together the key themes Vivid accessible and pedagogically informed Understanding Environmental Issues will be a key resource for undergraduate and taught postgraduate students in Geography Environment and Ecology as well as students of the social sciences with an interest in environmental issues Violence and Resistance in Pakistan Faryal Leghari,2025-09-30 This book examines violence and political developments in the western borderland communities of Pakistan a postcolonial militarist state in the Global South through the lens of gendered experiences of insecurity It provides a fresh perspective on comprehending the perception and experience of security among individuals uncovering the role of gender hierarchies and gendered hierarchies in shaping state policies and personal encounters with security and violence Based on ground based qualitative research in depth interviews with Mahsud men and women military and government officials academics security experts and aid organisation officials each chapter foregrounds an analysis of militarisation violence and resistance through varied thematic lens The result is a rich and original study of Waziristan where conflict and security are presented through a feminist geopolitical perspective calling for fresh comprehensions of gendered understandings of militarisation and security and a reappraisal of vulnerable populations Addressing a gap in the literature regarding the relationship between state peripheral communities violence security and militarisation in the Global South this book analyses power relations through a gendered lens and explores the impact of armed violence in everyday life It will be of interest to researchers in the field of regional geopolitical and security studies postcolonial states and militarisation in the Global South as well as borderland studies gender studies and South Asian studies      Catalog of Copyright Entries
