THE LONG JOURNEY HOME (The Lanterncup Series) Marcus Tay, 2016-04-12 12 years old Author Marcus Tay The Lanterncup series 3 Ian and the Crystal Recovered Squad had made it alive to their destination the Shadow Clan territory They are highly vulnerable because they are not indigenous and seen as a threat But a big question is would Shadow Clan accept their gift the Lost Crystal of Len Soon Ian realizes they are under the control of The Haunter already and are too late They leave and start on the trek back to Yart But it is not easy due to The Haunter chasing after them In this novel there is a rising action that will lead to the last straw How far will they put their lives in danger for the sake of each other What is the price for a pure sacrifice How much can they withstand the forces of evil The trip back will be a very tough one The Long Journey Home Maudy G. Testro-Meijer, 2024-08-19 The story of Harry and Christine Meijer on its face is not unique Throughout history countless individuals have endured immense physical and psychological trauma as a result of war and authoritarian regimes These tyrannical leaders motivated by a desire for absolute control and subjugation of the population inflicted immense suffering upon civilian populations Born in a country under colonial rule Harry and Christine in their formative years were undoubtedly marked by a confluence of economic and cultural challenges However the true crucible of their lives emerged at the dawn of their adulthood when they were confronted with adversities of unimaginable magnitude Their narrative encompasses the reality of lingering PTSD suffered by Harry and Christine which significantly impacted their nine children during tumultuous migrations across three continents demanding constant adaptation to unfamiliar cultures and languages Despite facing these significant hardships the remarkable resilience and ultimate triumph over adversity stands as a powerful testament to the human spirit's capacity for perseverance Grounded in meticulous historical detail and enriched with poignant anecdotes this work offers readers the opportunity to glean novel insights into the hardships endured by millions in the South Pacific during World War II and also serves as a source of inspiration for overcoming their own challenges The Long Journey Home Margaret Robison, 2011-05-17 First introduced to the world in her sons now classic memoirs Augusten Burroughs's Running with Scissors and John Elder Robison's Look Me in the Eye Margaret Robison now tells her own haunting and lyrical story A poet and teacher by profession Robison describes her Southern Gothic childhood her marriage to a handsome brilliant man who became a split personality alcoholic and abusive husband the challenges she faced raising two children while having psychotic breakdowns of her own and her struggle to regain her sanity Robison grew up in southern Georgia where the facade of 1950s propriety masked all sorts of demons including alcoholism misogyny repressed homosexuality and suicide She met her husband John Robison in college and together they moved up north where John embarked upon a successful academic career and Margaret brought up the children and worked on her art and poetry Yet her husband's alcoholism and her collapse into psychosis and the eventual disintegration of their marriage took a tremendous toll on their family Her older son John Elder moved out of the house when he was a teenager and her younger son Chris who later renamed himself Augusten never completed high school When Margaret met Dr Rodolph Turcotte the therapist who was treating her husband she felt understood for the first time and quickly fell under his idiosyncratic and eventually harmful influence Robison writes movingly and honestly about her mental illness her shortcomings as a parent her difficult marriage her traumatic relationship with Dr Turcotte and her two now famous children Augusten Burroughs and John Elder Robison who have each written bestselling memoirs about their family She also writes inspiringly about her hard earned journey to sanity and clarity An astonishing and enduring story The Long Journey Home is a remarkable and ultimately uplifting account of a complicated afflicted twentieth century family The Long Journey Home Don

The Long Journey Home from Dak To Warren M. Denny, 2003-08-03. The author fanaticized about combat and played war games in his youth. War is not a game. Combat wasn't this fantasy for him in real life. This book tells the story of a Kansas boy who grew up quickly serving as a combat platoon leader in the Vietnam War. It shares his exploits with A Company 4 503 173 Airborne Brigade. His platoon was very unlucky in the June-November 1967 campaign as the Fire Brigade took on the NVA in Dak To. His actions are reported in at least two documentary books dealing with individual firefights in the Central Highlands during that period. This is the unpolished truth about the brutal war and how really futile it was to go toe-to-toe against a better-prepared army and survive. The author gives unembellished reports of what his unit experienced and backs it up with the Battalion After Action Reports. He acknowledges he is alive today only because of superior tactical air support and artillery firepower. This book gives an entirely different viewpoint than most books authored by Vietnam veterans. While his observations may be controversial to some vets, it reflects the author's objective opinion of what he experienced there.

East to West across Russia: The Long Journey Home Daniel C.A. Christianson, 2024-08-16. Embark on a captivating journey across the vast Russian steppe aboard the iconic Trans-Siberian Railway in this modern tale of self-discovery and introspection. The narrator, known only as D, begins his westward voyage in Vladivostok, traversing the ever-changing landscapes that unfold before him. As time moves inexorably onward, the everyday lives of the passengers intertwine with the rhythmic churning of the train's propellers, contrasting sharply with the raw silence of the natural world beyond the windows. As the journey progresses, D's physical expedition takes an unexpected turn, delving into the depths of his own psyche. A haunting presence permeates the narrative, her essence imbued in the natural world, particularly at the breathtaking Lake

Baikal in Siberia N represents the one who got away leaving a void and a profound fragility within D's soul scattering her ghostly influence across the many places his footsteps tread Immersed in the tranquil vistas of the external world D finds himself enamoured by the everyday characters he encounters along the way As he navigates the complexities of his inner turmoil and the beauty of his surroundings the narrator embarks on a transformative odyssey The D who began his journey in Vladivostok will inevitably be different from the one who arrives in Moscow at journey's end but what will this transformation entail Join D on this introspective voyage as he unravels the mysteries of his past present and future on the Trans Siberian Railway

Prague: My Long Journey Home Charles Ota Heller, 2011-12-14 Author Charles Ota Heller's early childhood in Czechoslovakia was idyllic but his safe and happy world didn't last long Three years after his birth Germany forced an occupation of his country afterward most of his young life consisted of running and hiding His life just like those of the other youths who lived in Europe during the late 1930s and early 1940s was shaped forever by the dangers horrors and unsettling events he experienced In this memoir Heller born Ota Karel Heller narrates his family's story a family nearly destroyed by the Nazis Son of a mixed marriage he was raised a Catholic and was unaware of his Jewish roots even after his father escaped to join the British army and fifteen members of his family disappeared Prague My Long Journey Home tells of his Christian mother being sent to a slave labor camp and of his hiding on a farm to avoid deportation to a death camp With the war coming to a close Heller tells of how he picked up a revolver and shot a Nazi when he was just nine years old Heller now an assimilated American left the horrors of the past along with his birth name behind to live the proverbial American Dream In his memoir he recalls how two cataclysmic events following Czechoslovakia's Velvet Revolution brought him face to face with demons of his former life On his personal journey Heller discovered and embraced his heritage one which he had abandoned decades earlier

My Long Journey Home Richard A. Williams, 2022-08-05 A coming of age true story about adjusting to everyday life when the dream of playing professional baseball is cut short Go on an intimate journey through the eyes of a former minor league baseball player and his discovery of self worth faith and redemption As far as Rick Williams was concerned being drafted out of high school by the Atlanta Braves was the realization of his dream and the solution to every problem He could leave behind his turbulent home life in the California High Desert and focus on the game he grew up loving But when baseball was ripped away he could never have prepared for the massive void it left in his life and the pain that would define him and his future No matter how hard he tried drugs partying womanizing or Hollywood life nothing could fill the emptiness inside Only after decades of struggling with crippling fear anxiety and broken relationships would Rick finally discover a greater power and purpose along his journey home This inspiring story will speak to anyone who has struggled with THE END OF A SPORTS CAREER RELATIONSHIPS SELF WORTH FAILURE FEAR AND ANXIETY ACCEPTANCE

Long Journey Home: Southern women's fiction and romance Ashley Farley, 2023-10-26 From beyond the grave Ashton's mother leaves a mysterious legacy that upends her world Eileen Darby the heiress to the Merriweather fortune has entrusted her oldest daughter with the family's waterfront estate on Catawba Sound in South Carolina's Lowcountry bequeathing virtually nothing to her other three children This lavish bequest is more than a gift it's a cryptic message a puzzle interlaced with the troubled history of their dysfunctional family As Ashton embarks on renovating the old home she finds herself haunted by secrets lurking in the shadows of her memory What is her mother trying to communicate and what will she uncover as she delves into the murkiest corners of the memories she can't recall Ashton's husband is a proclaimed financial wizard a mastermind who claims to have turned her recent investment into a fortune Yet he refuses to provide the account statements to verify it With their marriage teetering on the brink Ashton's dwindling trust gives way to mounting suspicions Is he genuinely the financial virtuoso he purports to be or is there a more sinister game afoot As her marital bonds unravel Ashton finds herself ensnared in a tangled web of deception Each thread she tugs unravels a path leading her ever closer to a truth she may not be ready to confront When she loses her way she looks to a friend from her past to help her find herself again In this thrilling journey of discovery and deceit Ashton must confront the ghosts of her past and the demons of her present Long Journey Home is a twisted labyrinth of mystery and betrayal where every corner holds another clue and every path leads Ashton deeper into uncertainty The Long Journey Home David Bedford, 2001 A puppy helps lost baby

East tells the story of the twentieth century's encounters between East and West by exploring the lives of many of the most fascinating scientists intellectuals artists and spiritual seekers of our time The Long Journey Robert Luis Rabello, 2009-12-23 As a brutal civil war encroaches on the Tamarian border Garrick Ravenwood undertakes officer training in preparation to stop the humanitarian crisis Brenna Velez the girl he loves worries that the civil war will destroy her family's estate and their high tech light forges Meanwhile Garrick's younger brother Algernon travels to war torn Kameron to find and rescue his wayward twin sister The Crafting of Chaos Hildegard Kuester, 1994 In this study of the Canadian novelist Margaret Laurence recent narratological models provide the theoretical framework for a textual analysis that aims at complementing previous thematic critiques The chief focus is on The Stone Angel and The Diviners which the conclusion then presents in the context of the other novels in Laurence's Manawaka cycle Consideration of the published works is rounded off with genetic comparison of the novelist's typescript drafts and an evaluation of the manuscript notes kept in the archives of McMaster and York Universities The central structural principle of The Stone Angel is its dovetailing of past and present scenes Temporal arrangement reflecting the frequency and duration of Hagar's memories reveals the hold of memory over the central character and her attempts to suppress her fear of mortality Hagar as narrator manipulates character presentation and description to her own advantage In a basically oppositional structure her need for control is reflected in the neat ordering of the narrative The verbal texture of the novel serves to establish a value system that insists on the superiority of imported culture over Western Canadian forms The Diviners shares a number of narrative similarities with The Stone Angel but the latter's formal rigidity has yielded by the time Laurence writes her last novel to the concept of multiplicity characters time planes perspectives and narrative voices including metafictional commentaries Textual coherence is secured via narrative strategies including typography generational paradigms repetition parallelism intertextuality and tropological patterning that render the novel readable and present experience as ordered in a time of cultural flux and personal crisis
