Long Siesta:

Transnational, National, and Personal Voices Elisabetta Marino, 2004 The growing heterogeneity of Asian American and Asian diasporic voices has also given rise to variegated theoretical approaches to these literatures This book attempts to encompass both the increasing awareness of diasporic and transnational issues and more traditional analyses of Asian American culture and literature Thus the articles in this collection range from investigations into the politics of literary and cinematic representation to digging into the past through literary archeology or analyzing how consequential bodies can be in recent literature by Asian American and Asian diasporic women writers The book closes with an interview with critic and writer Shirley Lim where she insightfully deals with these transnational national and personal issues Elisabetta Marino is Assistant Professor of English literature at the University of Rome Tor Vergata Her main fields of interest are Asian American and Asian British literature children's literature Italian American literature Bego a Simal is Assistant Professor of English literature at the Universidade da Coruña Spain She has published critical work on both Asian American literature and comparative cross ethnic studies

Culture and Customs of Spain Edward F. Stanton, 2002-05-30 Modern Spain is a revelation in this up to date overview Stanton vibrantly describes the startling variety of landscape people and culture that make up Spain today Included are a context chapter and others on religion customs media cinema literature performing arts and visual arts Students of Spanish and a general audience will be rewarded with engrossing insights into what writer Ernest Hemingway called the very best country of all Spain is a modern European nation yet Spaniards are fiercely tied to their individual towns and regions with their distinct social customs dialects or languages foods landscape and lifestyles more than to a united country Culture and Customs of Spain conveys the extremes such as the hard working Catalan contrasted to the leisurely paced Castilian coexisting in first and third world conditions and the love hate relationship with the Catholic Church Spain's institutions are described and its contributions to the world from unparalleled literature and cuisine to flamenco and filmmaker Pedro Almodovar are celebrated A chronology and glossary complement the text

Sane Emma Young, 2015-06-04 Emma Young has no history of mental illness just like everyone else occasionally she gets down anxious and disproportionately stressed Disappointed that her mind does not always deal well with the pressures of modern life Emma decided to go on mind toning journey Is it possible to tone your mind just as you can tone your body so it becomes more resilient and better prepared to deal with what life throws at you By looking at some of the new and tried and tested techniques from meditation to mental preparation involved in extreme sports and military training Emma has devised a programme that will help everyone achieve mental stability
