wondered what lies in the darkness It is a book for anyone who has ever wanted to find light in the darkness If you like this book write a review on google books      Longing and Letting Go Holly Hillgardner,2016-11-01 Mirabai a sixteenth century Indian princess wrote passionate love songs to Lord Krishna Hadewijch a thirteenth century European Beguine wrote of her yearning to become Love itself to be God with God Each woman practiced a full bodied sensuously imaged longing for love at the same time each also practiced certain ascetic disciplines Spanning centuries continents and religious traditions this book juxtaposes Hadewijch s and Mirabai s inextricable energies of longing and letting go as resources for a comparative theology of passionate non attachment Within both Hinduism and Christianity desire and renunciation are often presented as opposites yet both Mirabai and Hadewijch in their own distinct ways illuminate the integral tensile relationship between these concepts Rather than choosing one or the other each woman s dual practices of longing and letting go not only take her on an inward spiritual journey but also deeply involve her in the beauty and suffering of the wider world Drawing out crucial differences and intriguing resonances between these two women of faith Hillgardner develops a Hindu Christian comparative theology that argues for an interreligious ethic of passionate non attachment one capacious and brave enough to hold together our own longings with the desires of others in an interconnected fragile world      Messages in the Mall Paul V. A Dictionary of Hymnology John Julian,1892      Damascius' Problems and Solutions Concerning First Principles Damaskios,2010-10-28 Damascius was head of the Neoplatonist academy in Athens when the Emperor Justinian shut its doors forever in 529 His work Problems and Solutions Concerning First Principles is the last surviving independent philosophical treatise from the Late Academy Its survey of Neoplatonist metaphysics discussion of transcendence and compendium of late antique theologies make it unique among all extant works of late antique philosophy It has never before been translated into English The Problems and Solutions exhibits a thorough going critique of Proclean metaphysics starting with the principle that all that exists proceeds from a single cause proceeding to critique the Proclean triadic view of procession and reversion and severely undermining the status of intellectual reversion in establishing being as the intelligible object Damascius investigates the internal contradictions lurking within the theory of descent as a whole showing that similarity of cause and effect is vitiated in the case of processions where one order e g intellect gives rise to an entirely different order e g soul Neoplatonism as a speculative metaphysics posits the One as the exotic or extopic explanans for plurality conceived as immediate present to hand and therefore requiring explanation Damascius shifts the perspective of his metaphysics he struggles to create a metaphysical discourse that accommodates insofar as language is sufficient the ultimate principle of reality After all how coherent is a metaphysical system that bases itself on the Ineffable as a first principle Instead of creating an objective ontology Damascius writes ever mindful of the limitations of dialectic and of the pitfalls and snares inherent in the very structure of metaphysical discourse The Books of Adam and Eve Apostle Arne,2015-04-03

was related to the ancestors my grandmother lived with or not My mother repeatedly told me stories that her mother had handed down to her about an aristocratic lady who was related to us and had eloped with a groomsman near where my mother bought a house As I grew older the stories left me with no real sense of identity of who I was I felt like a part of me was always missing and where did I belong When my mother died the house was sold a few years later my daughter moved to Galway for college it felt right for me to move back to the area again Ironically I found a cottage to rent very quickly just a few fields away from where my mother s house was It felt like fate I just knew that this was the right time to go on a self discovery journey for me and my ancestors Once the thought was in my head it would not go away A few days later transgenerational trauma popped into my head and disappeared again My phone seemed to have a mind of its own and words cropped up trapped in a timeline karma not released negativity building up toxicity to the land reason trapped there and ancestral healing All I needed to do was to take that first step forward and then wait the universe would let me know what to do next
