Negotiating Spaces for Literacy Learning Mary Hamilton, Rachel Heydon, Kathryn Hibbert, Roz Stooke, 2015-05-21 Negotiating Spaces for Literacy Learning addresses two paradoxical currents that are sweeping through the contemporary educational field The first is the opening up of possibilities for multimodal communication as a result of developments in digital technologies and the sensitivity to multiliteracies The second is the increasing pressure from standardised testing accountability and performance measurement which pull curricular and pedagogical practices out of alignment with the everyday informal practices and interests of teachers and learners and narrow opportunities for diverse expressions of literacy Bringing together an international team of scholars to examine the tensions and struggles that result from the current educational climate the book provides a much needed discussion of the intersection of technologies of literacies education and self It does so through diverse approaches including philosophical theoretical and methodological treatments of multimodality and governmentality and a range of literacies early years primary school workplace digital middle school secondary school indigenous adult and place With examples taken from all stages of education and in several countries the book allows readers to explore a range of multimodal practices and the ways in which governmentality plays out across them Immersive Learning Craig Frehlich, 2020-09-10 Most people want to reach their maximum potential and the use of tools are no different Some say power is influence If this is true then virtual reality has superpowers because of its ability to make the unreal viscerally real engaging and immersive Thanks to these powers VR can influence and affect education in ways that no technology tool has in the past This book will help people understand the power and true potential of virtual reality or VR The prime directive of this book is to provide educators with a way of thinking about how to use virtual reality in education in order to reveal its true superpowers And to arm educators with several hands on lessons to get them started on implementing VR as a tool to enhance learning outcomes Ultimately the book aims to have educators clearly understand VR s role in transforming education thus reaching its maximum potential Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art ,1872 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910 Success with your Early Years Research Project Rosie Walker, Carla Solvason, 2014-05-21 Action research and Early Years practices go together as naturally as the new day rising This book is a celebration of new days Early Years research is a practice for creative thinking for new tomorrows the book shows us how to do this and is to be commended for anyone who wishes to find innovative ways to think and act for all new beginnings Jean McNiff Professor of Educational Research York St John University Where do you start with a research project How do you choose a good question What are tutors looking for in an outstanding project This book will help you answer all of the above and that is just the beginning With examples of real research projects from students just like you it takes you through each step of the process including Choosing your question and approach Making sure your research is ethical Gathering and analysing data Reaching conclusions Putting your findings into practice After each example the authors provide commentary on what made each project so good or what needed more work helping you see what a good project really looks like Suitable for anyone tackling a research project as part of the Early Years course at foundation or degree level this book will help you make sure your project is interesting relevant and impacts on your practice
