Adventures in Solitude Grant Lawrence, 2015-06-15 From Captain George Vancouver to Muriel Curlew of Time Blanchet to Jim Spilsbury's Coast Spilsbury visitors to Desolation Sound have left behind a trail of books endowing the area with a romantic aura that helps to make it British Columbia's most popular marine park. In this hilarious and captivating book, CBC personality Grant Lawrence adds a whole new chapter to the saga of this storied piece of BC coastline. Young Grant's father bought a piece of land next to the park in the 1970s just in time to encounter the gun-toting cougar lady, left-over hippies, outlaw bikers, and an assortment of other characters. In those years, Desolation Sound was a place where going to the neighbours' potluck meant being met with hugs from portly naked hippies and where Russell the Hermit's school of life, boating, fishing, and rock n' roll was Grant's personal Enlightenment, an influence that would take him away from the coast to a life of music and journalism and eventually back again. With rock band buddies and a few cases of beer in tow, an older, cooler Grant returns to regale us with tales of going bush, the tempting dilemma of finding an unguarded grow-op, and his awkward struggle to convince a couple of visiting kayakers that he's a legit CBC radio host while sporting a wild beard and body wounds and gesticulating with a machete. With plenty of laugh-out-loud humour and inspired reverence, Adventures in Solitude delights us with the unique history of a place and the growth of a young man amidst the magic of Desolation Sound.

Ethics of Description Matt Reeck, 2023-09-29 Ethics of Description The Anthropological Dispositif and French Modern Travel Writing follows the development of a minor tradition in French literature where metropolitan authors traveling abroad demonstrate their awareness of the ethical conundrums of representing world peoples. During the colonial modern era, currents of anthropological thought and representational practice are identifiable throughout society and across literature the arts and the sciences Collectively they can be theorized as belonging to a dispositif the anthropological dispositif The modernization of anthropology serves as an ambivalent interlocutor for the realizations of the writers studied in this book about the difficulties of describing cultural realities that lie largely outside their ken Anthropology motivates new literary representational strategies that are alternatively in keeping with scientific mandates or operate against them Forty images are analyzed alongside literary works A postcolonial chapter shows how the ethical awareness of the colonial modern authors studied have impacted minority self representation in contemporary France

Photography and Its Violations John Roberts, 2014-09-30 Theorists critique photography for objectifying its subjects and manipulating appearance for the sake of art In this bold counterargument John Roberts recasts photography as violating powers and aesthetic technique as part of a complex social ontology that exposes the hierarchies divisions and exclusions behind appearances Photography must arrive unannounced and get in the way of the world Roberts argues committing to the truth claims of the spectator over the self interests and sensitivities of the subject Yet even though the violating capacity of the photograph results from external power relations the photographer is still faced with an ethical choice whether to advance photography's truth claims on the basis of these powers or to diminish or veil these powers to protect the integrity of the subject Photography's acts of intrusion and destabilization constantly test the photographer at the point of production in the darkroom and at the computer especially in our 24 hour digital image culture Roberts's refunctioning of photography's place in the world is therefore critically game changing as it politically and theoretically restores the reputation of the art Adventures in Search of a Living in Spanish-America Vaquero (pseud.),1911
