Neo-Feminist Cinema Hilary Radner,2010-11-01 What lies behind current feminist discontent with contemporary cinema Through a combination of cultural and industry analysis Hilary Radner s Neo Feminist Cinema Girly Films Chick Flicks and Consumer Culture shows how the needs of conglomerate Hollywood have encouraged an emphasis on consumer culture within films made for women By exploring a number of representative girly films including Pretty Woman Legally Blonde Maid in Manhattan The Devil Wears Prada and Sex and the City The Movie Radner proposes that rather than being post feminist as is usually assumed such films are better described as neo feminist Examining their narrative format as it revolves around the story of an ambitious unmarried woman who defines herself through consumer culture as much as through work or romance Radner argues that these films exemplify neo liberalist values rather than those of feminism As such Neo Feminist Cinema offers a new explanation as to why feminist oriented scholars and audiences who are seeking more than labels and love from their film experience have viewed recent girly films as a betrayal of second wave feminism and why on the other hand such films have proven to be so successful at the box office Leukemia-year One (the Story).
