This volume offers introductions to the work of fifteen avant garde American women filmmakers. Evaluative Perception Anna Bergqvist, Robert Cowan, 2018-06-06. Evaluation is ubiquitous. Indeed it isn't an exaggeration to say that we assess actions, character, events and objects as good, cruel, beautiful, etc. almost every day of our lives. Although evaluative judgement for instance, judging that an institution is unjust, is usually regarded as the paradigm of evaluation, it has been thought by some philosophers that a distinctive and significant kind of evaluation is perceptual. For example, in aesthetics, some have claimed that adequate aesthetic judgement must be grounded in the appreciator's first hand perceptual experience of the item judged. In ethics, reference to the existence and importance of something like ethical perception is found in a number of traditions, for example, in virtue ethics and sentimentalism. This volume brings together philosophers working in aesthetics, epistemology, ethics, philosophy of mind and value theory to investigate what we call evaluative perception. Specifically, they engage with 1. Questions regarding the existence and nature of evaluative perception. Are there perceptual experiences of values? If so, what is their nature? Are perceptual experiences of values sui generis? Are values necessary for certain kinds of perceptual experience? 2. Questions about epistemology. Can evaluative perceptual experiences ever justify evaluative judgements? Are perceptual experiences of values necessary for certain kinds of justified evaluative judgements? 3. Questions about value theory. Is the existence of evaluative perceptual experience supported or undermined by particular views in value theory? Are particular views in value theory supported or undermined by the existence of evaluative perceptual experience?

Presents an analysis of social media discussing how a technology which was once heralded as democratic has evolved into one which promotes elitism and inequality and provides companies with the means of invading privacy in search of profits. Look Homeward, Angel & Of Time and the River Thomas Wolfe, 2023-12-15. Thomas Wolfe's seminal works Look Homeward, Angel and Of Time and the River offer a profound exploration of the human experience framed within the complexities of familial bonds and the quest for identity. Utilizing a stream of consciousness narrative style, Wolfe crafts an evocative tapestry of his semi-autobiographical characters, particularly the introspective Eugene Gant, whose journey reflects the universal struggle between aspiration and the pull of home. Set against the backdrop of early 20th century America, these novels delve into themes of nostalgia, memory and the passage of time, all conveyed through Wolfe's lush lyrical prose that often teeters on the edge of the poetic Thomas Wolfe an American novelist born in 1900 in Asheville North Carolina was greatly influenced by his own tumultuous upbringing in a family of stone masons and his experiences of both small town life and the vastness of the American landscape His formative years marked by the dichotomy of ambition and the warmth of home propelled him to articulate the intricacies of his personal narrative Wolfe's encounters with literary giants such as Sherwood Anderson and F Scott Fitzgerald further shaped his distinctive voice and experimental approach to storytelling Readers are encouraged to engage with Wolfe's works as they grapple with not only the nuances of Gant's experience but also the larger questions of belonging and self discovery This profound duality encapsulates a poignant reflection on life itself making both novels essential reading for those interested in the emotional depths of American literature
