healing for the relief of negative attitudes and moods which not only hinder one's enjoyment of life but are regarded as contributory factors in the cause of physical and emotional suffering. They were discovered during the 1930s by the late Dr. Edward Bach, an eminent physician who devoted his life to the cause and cure of disease. The result of his life's work were 38 harmless remedies made from nonpoisonous plants and herbs of the countryside, each pertaining to aspects of human nature, personality, and states of mind. The Bach Flower Remedies have deservedly earned themselves a reputation of excellence and are now used extensively throughout the world. Growing Up with Bach Flower Remedies shows how the system of healing can help babies, children, and adolescents during the turbulent years of youth. The book takes the reader through all the stages of childhood, including developmental progress, illness, schooling, behavior, puberty, examinations, and the various other milestones when emotional support is needed. Growing Up with Bach Flower Remedies is a book designed for parents but also makes an excellent source of reference for therapists, teachers, nursery nurses, grand parents, and guardians, anyone who has an active interest in caring for children of all ages.

Experts give advice on how to keep relationships strong from initial attraction to lasting love. Love Decoded provides everything you need to ensure your passion thrives, whether you're celebrating your first anniversary or your 50th. As recently as the 19th century, marriage was largely a practical affair: people married for financial security, to create family, to have a home. If love entered the picture, it was by chance. But starting in the 1900s, through to today, marriage and long-term partnerships of all kinds have gone through rapid, radical, continuous change. Today, enduring unions enable love, creativity, and the chance for personal growth in the wake of a divorce rate at 50%. Researchers say those relationships that allow us to flourish as individuals have the greatest chance of long success. This book describes the 21st-century reinvention of enduring unions with input from researchers and therapists at the forefront of the field. Stephanie Coontz, the social historian known for her seminal work on the transformation of marriage, explains how love has conquered marriage. David Schnarch, who reinvented sex therapy for the 21st century in the wake of Masters and Johnson, describes his new model of interconnectedness in which partners can be independent while pursuing a shared life And Aaron Ben Ze'ev the preeminent philosopher of love and author of the upcoming Arc of Love explains how long term relationships can enable profound love and flourishing not possible when one skips from one passionate fling to the next Of course this book covers the gamut of pragmatic issues too How to get along with in laws how to collaborate on raising kids and how to rebuild the nest when kids have gone The book includes invaluable advice from couples who have been married for 50 years or more Dance one woman told us Keep talking a man said Our story about today's all star couples from Hollywood to royalty injects some fun while showing how it's done

Practical Guidance About Love, Sex and Marriage Faith C. Bays, 2016-03-23 The cover shows a picture of my daughter and her husband's wedding rings and bouquet This is only a relevant choice since in my first book I gave advice to young people about marriage and courtship My daughter Jessica met her husband David over three years ago but it is such a fairy tale story that I had to share a little of it with the reader So many times young people feel trapped by peer pressure to engage in promiscuous activities before engagement and marriage I read that the unwed mothers rate has doubled according to statistics Google states that statistics from the Mississippi Department of Health states that the overall rate of births to unwed mothers was 54.7 percent in 2010 It was 28 percent in 1980 Dig a little deeper into this report and the numbers become downright scary Thirteen counties reported unwed birth rates of over 75 percent Looking at these statistics there seems to be a decline in God's moral principle of chastity For a young couple to start a marriage as both couple being virgins seems to be pretty rare That is one reason I wanted to share this about David and Jessica to encourage others to not be promiscuous during their courtship As I stated earlier David and Jessica have known each other over three years They met in the church Our church has an orchestra They both played instruments in the orchestra They were very young when they met Neither one had an idea that one day God would put them both together as husband and wife They both desired an educational mastery to be successful in life Like Solomon I guess you can say they sought wisdom and knowledge They waited until they required mastery in knowledge before they decided to settle down and get married Our youth today seems not to be asking for proficiency in wisdom and knowledge but the youth according to statistics I read earlier are becoming adults before they have matured in the mastery of wisdom and knowledge I am so glad that Jessica and David waited and was not promiscuous during their courtship but followed God's standard for a holy and righteous life Sure young people may make mistakes but it is our job as Christian adults to not abuse them but to train them to respect God's way and principles I believe that even if we train our children in righteousness and they later depart it will remain with them in life Prov 22 6 and it will cause them to return to God in honest and true confessions to God from the heart God is looking on the heart of people He doesn't care about our outward adorning but he does care about our heart For God knows whether or not we're just and honest or living in hypocrisy and sin I just believe if we acknowledge God in all our ways even when we're young we can avoid many pitfalls in life Young people live pure and righteous lives before God and like David and Jessica and my husband and I you can experience wedded bliss and happiness For he who findeth a wife findeth a good thing and obtaineth favour of the Lord Prov 18 22
