Love That Works Bruce Brander, 2004-09 Love That Works draws on history psychology and the theology and science of love to offer a proposal on how to be successful in love and romance

On Solov'yev's View of Love and its Affinities with Proclus and Maximus the Confessor Paraskevi Zacharia, 2025-09-20 This dissertation explores the concept of love in the work of Russian philosopher Vladimir Solov'yev 1853-1900 with a focus on two of his writings La Sophia 1875-1876 and Smysl lyubvi The Meaning of Love 1892-1894 The author analyzes how the concept of Sophia wisdom as a feminine divine force and the idea of All-Unity a universal all-encompassing unity converge in Solov'yev's deeper philosophical theological vision of love The study connects Solov'yev's ideas to those of the Neoplatonist Proclus and the Christian Church Father Maximus the Confessor The central research questions are what is the relationship between love and Sophia in Solov'yev's thought and which Neoplatonic and Patristic elements influenced his conception of love The author argues that The Meaning of Love does not explicitly mention the name Sophia but implicitly describes a Sophianic reality in which love fulfills a theurgical function This reality has three dimensions philosophical religious mystical and social Through comparisons with Proclus and Maximus the author shows how Solov'yev develops a unique integrative vision in which love leads to the unification of the individual humanity and the divine This research offers an original approach to Solov'yev's thought with particular attention to mystical experience metaphysical love and the striving for wholeness It fills a gap in the existing literature by systematically exploring the connection between love Sophia and the influence of Proclus and Maximus

Paraskevi Zacharia 1983 studied Classical Languages in Athens and later Russian She obtained her PhD at Radboud University with a dissertation on Solov'yev's philosophy of love She has published on theology mysticism and Neoplatonism taught students and presented internationally She is an active member of various academic networks and received several fellowships including OIKOS the International Society for Neoplatonic Studies the International Orthodox Theological

Association and the Mystical Theology Network Attending to the Wounds on Christ's Body Elizabeth Newman, 2013-02-28

The disunity of the church is a social and theological scandal for it betrays the prayer of Jesus that we will be one so that the world will believe John 17:21. As a Baptist whose academic background focused on the Orthodox Church and whose teaching has included Catholic and Protestant contexts, this division is for Elizabeth Newman personal and professional. Attending to the Wounds on Christ's Body rests on the conviction that the broad tradition of Christianity already contains resources to heal the church, namely the saints of the church. Newman examines especially how Teresa of Avila (1515-1582) speaks to the whole church today in the midst of political, economic, and ecclesial brokenness. Teresa's reliance upon three scriptural figures—dwelling, marriage, and pilgrimage—helps make sense of an ecclesial way of life that is inherently unitive, a unity that stands in contrast to that of the nation-state or the global market. Teresa's scriptural journey offers an alternative at once liturgical, political, and economic. This Doctor of the Church provides

Moderate and liberal Christians unite to reclaim Jesus from the evangelical Christian right. Imagine a faith tradition divided up into literally thousands of denominations based on such silly things as organizational structure: how many bishops can you fit on the head of a needle, or theological differences such as whether baptism is to be done by dunking or by sprinkling, or whether or not the bread and the cup are actually transformed into the body and blood of Christ during the Lord's Supper, the doctrine of transubstantiation. Imagine that even within a single denomination of this faith tradition, those who profess to share the same faith have diametrically opposed views on the nature of God, the source of salvation, the nature of sin, the meaning of scripture, the relationship of science and religion, of reason and faith, of truth, certainty, and doubt. Imagine further that they cannot even agree on the nature and/or message of the man upon whom their religion is founded. Finally, imagine that a vocal minority of these diametrically opposed views is dominating the public airwaves while the silent majority remains hunkered down in the hallowed halls of their sanctuaries. While the message of this vocal minority is embraced by a few in search of simple answers, imagine that the masses of unchurched, de-churched, under-churched, never-been-churched, fed-up-with-church are turned off and are walking away in droves. Unfortunately, there is no need to imagine any of this. It is happening right here, right now in the United States of America. The faith tradition is called Christianity. The vocal minority that is dominating the bully pulpit of public opinion is the evangelical Christian right, and the silent majority are moderate and liberal Christians everywhere. Mainlining Christianity is a call to Christianity's silent majority to stand up and speak out and to join in a New Reformation. Through the vehicle of 95 Theses for the 21st Century, the book is divided into eight separate sections: Religion, Christianity, and Worldviews; Truth, Certainty, Doubt, Fear, Faith; Physical Truths; In Search of a Theory of Everything; T O E; Spiritual, Scriptural, Literal, and Mythical Truths; In Search of the Logos; From Jesus the Man to Jesus the Christ; In Search of the Logos; Jesus and the Love Ethic; Interfaith, Interconnectedness, and the Logos; The Logos Intersects with the T O E; God Is LOVE. Within each section is a series of messages designed to offer a practical theological
