Love Not Human:

Love Not Human Gordon R. Dickson, 1988 Peacemaking and Religious Violence Roger A. Johnson, 2009-09-01

From its very beginning Christian faith has been engaged with religious violence. The first Christians were persecuted by their co religionists and then by imperial Rome. Jesus taught them in such circumstances not to retaliate but to be peacemakers to love their enemies and to pray for their persecutors. Jesus's response to religious violence of the first century was often ignored but it was never forgotten. Even during those centuries when the church herself persecuted Christian heretics, Jews and Muslims, some Christians still struggled to bear witness to the peace mandate of their Lord. In the thirteenth century Thomas Aquinas wrote a theology to help his Dominican brothers persuade Cathar Christians to return to their Catholic faith peacefully. Ramon Lull, a Christian student of Arabic and the Qur'an, sought to help his fellow Christians recognize the elements of belief they shared in common with the Muslims in their midst. In the fifteenth century Nicholas of Cusa, a Church Cardinal and theologian, expanded Lull's project to include the newly discovered religions of Asia. In the seventeenth century Lord Herbert, an English diplomat and lay Christian, began to identify the political union of church and government as a causal factor in the religious warfare of post Reformation Christendom. One and a half centuries later Thomas Jefferson, a lay theologian of considerable political stature, won a political struggle in the American colonies to disestablish religion first in his home colony of Virginia and then in the new nation he helped to found. All five of these theologians reclaimed the peace mandate of Jesus in their response to the religious violence of their own eras. All of which points us to some intriguing Christian responses to religious violence in our own century as recounted in the epilogue.

Godliness and Greed Skip Worden, 2010-01-01 Skip Worden shows the profound transformation of Christian thought on economics from the beginning of the Commercial Revolution to the fifteenth century Renaissance. Worden explains how the general antagonism toward the pursuit of wealth before the Commercial Revolution turned into Protestant theologians fighting against the prevailing view of a pro wealth paradigm during the fifteenth century. The Existence Theodore Ihejiro, 2018-12-21 The Existence By Theodore Ihejiro. The Existence is a book of love and life that talks about the world as the existence of human beings and tells human beings to understand that the world is the love and the life. It is a book of Planet Earth which the Planet Earth gave to the author because the author asked the Planet Earth for the book of the world. The author is a human being who lost faith in God and called on Planet Earth to do work and save human beings from evil and death in the world. This is a book of a human being who was challenged by evil and death in the world and the human being called on his existence for help and protection. The author did not like to die in the world and told his existence that he did not want to die because the author believed that Planet Earth has the power to save human beings in the world. The Existence is the faith, the hope and the charity that God challenged human beings to find and tell the mountain of evil and death to move away from human beings. Extremist for Love Rufus Burrow, 2014 On June 5 2002 fourteen year old basis of an original and central expression of the Christian faith the Lord's Prayer First Jan Muis interprets the divine names central to this prayer in their biblical contexts Next Muis understands the divine attributes implied by these names from the biblical narrative of God's self-revealing actions and explains them in a contemporary framework God's Name indicates his particular personal presence and encounter with human beings The holiness of God's Name and the justice of his Kingship are more than just aspects of the love of the Father the Son and the Spirit The Creator is not a human blown large in his companionship with humans he remains the Exalted who lives both within and beyond created temporal reality In the context of a secular age Muis discusses in what sense this God exists Five Foundations of Human Development Errol A.

Gibbs, Philip A. Grey, 2006-10-01 Five Foundations of Human Development FFHD Is our Materially Driven Life a Threat to the Spiritual Purpose of our Existence The book is a philosophical religious and practical discourse on Five Foundations of Human Development It offers compelling philosophical analytical and empirical arguments for a better world which is inherent in the worship of God service to humanity obedience to governing authorities and management of God's creation The authors examine problems that we encounter daily and they postulate solutions from Spiritual moral social intellectual and physical perspectives They essentially explore some of our past and present approaches to solutions to human problems They propose new revolutionary approaches to human development that call the reader's attention to a new enlightenment new hope and new optimism informed by a new Body of knowledge The authors strive to explain the Christian message of God as delivered and taught by Jesus Christ however it is not a work that is exclusively for Christians Their discourse recognizes the comparable message and desire for the unity of humanity by other world religions They present their discourse not as experts or giving expert advice but simply as individuals with a desire to add another dimension of thought and enquiry to the vast storehouse of human knowledge The primary purpose of their discourse is to demonstrate the positive benefits to humanity when Biblical religious perspectives underpin every human endeavor These endeavors include but are not limited to family relations national and international relations engineering science and technology economics history education and health These endeavors dictate human progress Gibbs and Grey contend that humanity can realize the greater ideals of leadership and authority in the world through the application of the teachings of Jesus Christ and the great prophets The authors appeal to leaders of the 21st century educational political scientific and business to seek the knowledge wisdom and understanding of God in using our vast global natural wealth science technology and human capital to educate relevant and applicable strategies for the betterment of all humanity Genre Christianity Religion Inspirational Religion Enlightenment Philosophy General Toward Robert Frost Judith Oster, 1994-02-01 Every poem Robert Frost declared is an epitome of the great predicament a figure of the will braving alien entanglements This study considers what Frost meant by those entanglements how he braved them in his poetry and how he invited his readers to do the same In the process it contributes significantly to a new critical awareness of Frost as a complex artist who anticipated postmodernism a poet who invoked literary traditions and conventions frequently to set himself in tension with them Using the insights of reader response theory Judith Oster explains how Frost appeals to readers with his apparent accessibility and then because of the openness of his poetry s possibilities engages them in the process of constructing meaning Frost s poems she demonstrates teach the reader how they should be read at the same time they resist closure and definitive reading The reader s acts of encountering and constructing the poems parallel Frost s own encounters and acts of construction Commenting at length on a number of individual poems Oster ranges in her discussion from the ways in which the poet dramatizes the inadequacy of the self alone to the manner in which he reads the Book of Genesis or the writing of Emerson Oster illuminates finally the central conflict in Frost his need to be read well against his fear of being read his need to share his creation against his fear of its appropriation by others

Researchers Of The 20Th Century Poetry The Screenwriters Taxonomy Eric R. Williams,2017-09-05 In The Screenwriters Taxonomy award winning screenwriter and educator Eric R Williams offers a new collaborative approach for creative storytellers to recognize discuss and reinvent storytelling paradigms Williams presents seven different aspects of storytelling that can be applied to any fictional narrative film from super genre macrogenre and microgenre to voice and point of view allowing writers to analyze existing films and innovate on these structures in their own stories Moving beyond film theory Williams describes how this roadmap for creative decision making can relate to classics like Sunset Boulevard The Wizard of Oz and Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid as well as such diverse modern favorites like 12 Years a Slave Anomalisa and Shrek Virtue Ethics, Old and New Stephen Mark Gardiner,2005 There are grounds for saying that contemporary work in virtue ethics is if not quite in its theoretical infancy at least not far out of diapers And this suggests that we should be gentle and nurturing allowing it time to flourish before coming to any definitive verdict on its merits However it is hard to deny that modern day virtue ethics is part of a long sophisticated and fairly continuous tradition Not only does the approach have origins almost as ancient as philosophy itself but its history also includes extensive work by such philosophical luminaries as at least Socrates Plato Aristotle the Stoics Aquinas and perhaps Hume and Nietzsche And this suggests that we should already be in a good position to assess its appeal from the Introduction In Virtue Ethics Old and New ten philosophers seek to enrich the contemporary understanding and development of virtue ethics through a detailed examination of some key contributions from its past Their essays demonstrate the continuing relevance of the history of moral philosophy to contemporary debates Infinite Love: a meditation.
