boundaries Media and the Politics of Offence Anne Graefer, 2019-07-03 This book explores different forms of mediated offence in the context of Trump's America Brexit Britain and the rise of far right movements across the globe In this political landscape the so called right to offend is often seen as a legitimate weapon against a political correctness gone mad that stifles free speech Against the backdrop of these current developments this book aims to generate a productive dialogue among scholars working in a variety of intellectual disciplines geographical locations and methodological traditions The contributors share a concern about the complex and ambiguous nature of offence as well as about the different ways in which this so called negative affect comes to matter in our everyday and socio political lives Through a series of instructive case studies of recent media provocations the authors illustrate how being offended is more than an individual feeling and is instead closely tied to political structures and power relations Creative and Sexual Science O. Learning, Keeping and Using Language M.A.K. Halliday, John Gibbons, Howard Nicholas, 1990-01-01 This volume contains selected papers from the Eight World Congress of Applied Linguistics held in Sydney in 1987 Volume I starts off with an overview of the field by G Richard Tucker in which he identifies two areas innovative language education and language education policy The overall focus of the papers to follow focus on the individual language learner how that individual in given contexts or in interaction with specific others develops a command of a first language of two or more first languages or of a second language in home and in classroom settings At the same time cutting across these variables there is a gradual shifting of attention from investigations of the language learning process to proposals for language teaching curricula and syllabuses Whispers of Heart Nilesh Kumar Dash, 2024-03-30

Ernest De Lancey Pierson, 1887 Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction Gero Bauer, 2024-01-11 Explores the emphasis that contemporary novels films and television series place on the present arguing that hope emerges from the potentiality of the here and now rather than the future and as intimately entangled with negotiations of structures of belonging Taking its cue from an understanding of hope as connoting an organizing temporality one which is often presumed to be projecting into a future Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction challenges this understanding arguing that hope emerges in practices of relationality in the present disentangling hope from a necessary correlation with futurity Through close readings of contemporary works including The Road The Walking Dead Cloud Atlas Sense8 The People in the Trees and A Little Life Gero Bauer investigates how these texts explore structures of kinship as creative and affective practices of belonging and care that claim spaces beyond the heterosexual reproductive nuclear family In this context fictional figurations of the child often considered the bearer of the future are of particular interest Through these interventions into definitions of and reflections on fictional manifestations of hope and kinship Bauer s analyses intersect with queer theory new materialism and postcritical approaches to literature and cultural studies moving towards counterintuitively hopeful readings of the present moment
