Christmastide: Its History, Festivities, and Carols William Sandys,2020-09-28 IT would not be consistent with the proposed character of this work to enlarge on the Christian dispensation as connected with the sacred feast of Christmas to show Christianity as old as the Creation that the fall of man naturally involved his punishment and hence the vicarious sacrifice of our Saviour to redeem us from sin and death These are subjects to be entered on by those who have had opportunities if not of thinking more at least of reading more relative to them than the writer of these pages whose leisure hours are few and whose endeavour will be to give in as popular and interesting a manner as his abilities will enable him some information respecting the mode of keeping this Holy Feast particularly in England in the olden times and in the middle ages The Nativity is hailed by Christians of all denominations as the dawn of our salvation the harbinger of the day spring on high that promise of futurity where care sin and sorrow enter not where friends long severed shall meet to part no more no pride no jealousy no self that besetting sin of the world intruding Well then may we observe it with gratitude for the unbounded mercy vouchsafed to us for the fulfilment of the promise pronounced in the beginning of the world releasing us from the dominion of Satan A promise which even the Pagans did not lose sight of although they confused its import as a glimmering of it may be traced through their corrupted traditions and superstitious ceremonies Has the early dream of youth faded away purposeless the ambition of manhood proved vanity of vanities Have riches made themselves wings and flown away or has fame just within the grasp burst like a bubble Have the friends the companions of youth one by one fallen off from thy converse or the prop of advancing age been removed leaving thee weak and struggling with the cares of life or has the desire of thine eyes been taken from thee at a stroke Under these and other trials the Christian looks to the anniversary of the Nativity that rainbow of Christianity as the commemoration of the birth of the Blessed Redeemer who will give rest to the weary and receive in his eternal kingdom all those who truly trust in him And well may His name be called Wonderful Counsellor the Mighty God the Everlasting Father the Prince of Peace The season of Christmas however was not only set apart for sacred observance but soon became a season of feasting and revelry so much so that even our sumptuary laws have recognised it and exempted it from their operation When Edward the Third in his tenth year endeavoured to restrain his subjects from over luxury in their meals stating that the middle classes sought to imitate the great in this respect and thus impoverished themselves and became the less able to assist their liege lord he forbade more than two courses and two sorts of meat in each to any person except in the great feasts of the year namely La veile et le jour de No l le jour de Saint Estiephne le jour del an renoef New Year s Day les jours de la Tiphaynei et de la Purification de Nostre Dame c

Another Christ Andrew D. Mayes,2024-08-30 This is a riveting book with bite an exploration with edginess Compelling and arresting images confront us with a fresh view of Jesus and of ourselves as we rediscover our vocation to be Another Christ for troubled times Recent research into the first century setting of the gospel and the author s years in the Holy Land cast unexpected light on both the identity of Jesus and our present calling while Francis of Assisi reveals how this can be creatively lived out We have a choice If we keep before our eyes images of Christ that are comforting soothing familiar traditional then our Christian life may turn out to be prosaic pedestrian and predictable a preservative to maintain the status quo But if we allow our discipleship today to be unsettled and inspired by images of Christ that are dynamic risky outrageous brave passionate radical then we open ourselves to new possibilities we embark on a liberating adventure an odyssey of the soul a pilgrimage a voyage into untested waters What will we choose Do we dare to take the unpredictable path And which route will respond most courageously to the needs of today s wounded world American

Ancient-English Christmas Carols Edith Rickert,2008-04-01 A selection of historic Christmas carols dating from 1400 A D to 1700 A D collected and arranged by Edith Rickert The New Monthly Magazine and Humorist ,1844 New Monthly Magazine and Humorist ,1844 New Monthly Magazine and Literary Journal ,1844 Ministry with the Forgotten Bishop Kenneth L. Carder,Kenneth H. Carter Jr.,2019-09-17 Dementia diseases represent a crisis of faith for many family members and congregations Magnifying this crisis is the way people with dementia tend to be objectified by both medical and religious communities They are recipients of treatment and projects for mission Ministry is done to and for them rather than with them

While acknowledging the devastation of dementia diseases Ken Carder draws on his own experience as a caregiver hospice chaplain and pastoral practitioner to portray the gifts as well as the challenges accompanying dementia diseases He confronts the deep personal and theological questions created by loving people with dementia diseases demonstrating how living with dementia can be a means of growing in faith wholeness and ministry for the entire community of faith He also reveals that authentic faith transcends intellectual beliefs verbal affirmations and prescribed practices Carder asserts that the Judeo Christian tradition offers a broader lens defining personhood in relationship to God's story and humanity's participation in God's mighty acts of creation and new creation thereby contributing to hope community and self worth Pastors and congregations will be better equipped to minister with people affected by dementia receiving their gifts and responding to their unique needs They will learn how people with dementia contribute to the community and the church's life and mission discovering practical ways those contributions can be identified nurtured and incorporated into the church's life and ministry

Give Me Back My Wife ~ Lion of Judah, Son of God Christine Beadsworth, 2017-05-22 Many things have competed for the attention of the Beloved of the Lord Religion is ever waving its tentacles trying to detain her The Spirit of this age assaults her defenses with ever increasing ferocity At times it has seemed like her attention has been completely captured by inferior suitors Now God's patience is exhausted And many can hear His Roar reverberating in the heavenlies And it is not the sound of an approaching storm front although it may be accompanied by one both in the natural and spiritual realm It's a demand a shout of ownership that cannot be silenced It is not a request nor a gentle suggestion It is the righteous demand of the Conqueror the Lion of Judah Bridegroom King Who comes to claim the one who is rightfully His He doesn't beat around the bush or employ diplomatic negotiating strategies The Bridegroom WILL have what He purchased with the Bridal Price of His precious Blood And so with a bone rattling earth shattering roar He bellows GIVE ME BACK MY WIFE
