Illuminations Liz Heron, Val Williams, 2021-04-26 This selection of women's writings on photography proposes a new and different history demonstrating the ways in which women's perspectives have advanced photographic criticism over 150 years focusing it more deeply and with the advent of feminist approaches increasingly challenging its orthodoxies Included in the book are Rosalind Krauss Ingrid Sischy Vicki Goldberg and Carol Squiers Photography, A Feminist History Emma Lewis, 2021-10-26 This feminist retelling of the history of photography puts women in the picture and more importantly behind the camera In ten thematic chronological sections Tate Modern curator Emma Lewis explores the vital role women artists have played in shaping the ever evolving medium of photography Lewis has compiled work from more than 200 different women and nonbinary photographers along with short essays on 75 different artists many informed by her interviews with the subjects From the studio portraiture of the late nineteenth century to the photojournalism of Dorothea Lange and Lee Miller in the early twentieth and from second wave feminist critiques of gender roles to contemporary selfies and social media personae this volume examines different genres styles and approaches to photography from the 1800s to the present UNPARALLELED IN SCOPE International inclusive and intersectional this comprehensive volume tells the story of a versatile and innovative medium From early twentieth century self portraits responding to modernity and changing notions of womanhood to photojournalistic images documenting the climate crisis the photographs in this book demonstrate the varied ways that women respond to and shape the global cultural landscape The artists profiled here include Sheila Pree Bright Imogen Cunningham Paz Err zuriz Nan Goldin Kati Horna Mari Katayama Dora Maar Lee Miller Tina Modotti Zanele Muholi Shirin Neshat Cindy Sherman Lieko Shiga Lorna Simpson Amalia Ulman And more INSIGHTFULLY ORGANIZED The thematic chapters of this project showcase photography s changing role in society and art They allow the author to explore and contextualize how this role has or hasn t made space for women and people of marginalized genders and how the work done on the margins of the medium pushes the boundaries of technology and creative expression This is not simply a collection of women photographers it s a book about how and why women and nonbinary artists have used photography to respond to and shape their own realities Perfect for Photographers artists and students and art lovers Anyone interested in the history of photography Intersectional feminists Trailblazing women and the people who love and support them

Everyday Mutinies Esther D Rothblum, Nanette Gartrell, 2013-09-13 Who are the women who struggled to form lesbian communities and how did they fund their activism In Everyday Mutinies Funding Lesbian Activism two dozen lesbians including well known activists such as Martina Navratilova Alison Bechdel Dee Mosbacher and Jewelle Gomez tell the stories of their activism with an emphasis on how they support themselves and fund their political activities Their examples can help you deal with raising and allocating money Less than 0 3 of all philanthropic dollars are awarded to lesbian and gay projects each year Yet Everyday Mutinies shares amazing success stories of women surviving thriving and making an impact by using the resources they have with intelligence and skill You will be moved and inspired by the stories behind Naiad Press The Ladder Straight from the Heart and the National Center for Lesbian Rights Everyday Mutinies presents the voices of scientists political strategists artists writers fundraisers and community organizers These courageous women discuss their strategies for getting and using money to pursue their visions including funding scientific studies in creative ways liberating corporate resources encouraging responsible stewardship of inherited wealth getting paid for working on lesbian causes choosing a job to support activism financing lesbian media from magazines to documentaries giving time versus giving money Everyday Mutinies is an essential resource on the history and practice of lesbian activism It also contains valuable ideas for any political lesbian who has wondered how she can possibly pay her bills and make the rent while remaining a full time activist

Sinister Wisdom, 2008 Exile and Pride Eli Clare, 2015-08-27 First published in 1999 the groundbreaking Exile and Pride is essential to the history and future of disability politics Eli Clare's revelatory writing about his experiences as a white disabled genderqueer activist writer established him as one of the leading writers on the intersections of queerness and disability and permanently changed the landscape of disability politics and queer liberation With a poet's devotion to truth and an activist's demand for justice Clare deftly unspools the multiple histories from which our ever evolving sense of self unfolds His essays weave together memoir history and political thinking to explore meanings and experiences of home home as place community bodies identity and activism Here readers will find an intersectional framework for understanding how we actually live with the daily hydraulics of oppression power and resistance At the root of Clare's exploration of environmental destruction and capitalism sexuality and institutional violence gender and the body politic is a call for social justice movements that are truly accessible to everyone With heart and hammer Exile and Pride pries open a window onto a world where our whole selves in all their complexity can be realized loved and embraced

The Contest of Meaning Richard Bolton, 1992-02-25 Photography's great success gives the impression that the major questions that have haunted the medium are now resolved On the contrary the most important questions about photography are just beginning to be asked These fourteen essays with over 200 illustrations critically examine prevailing beliefs about the medium and suggest new ways to explain the history of photography They are organized around the questions What are the social consequences of aesthetic practice How does photography construct sexual difference How is photography used to promote class and national interests What are the politics of photographic truth The Contest of Meaning summarizes the challenges to traditional photographic history that have developed in the last decade out of a consciously political critique of photographic production Contributions by a wide range of important Americans critics reexamine the complex and often contradictory roles of photography within society Douglas Crimp Christopher Phillips Benjamin Buchloh and Abigail Solomon Godeau examine the gradually developed exclusivity of art photography and describe the politics of canon formation throughout modernism Catherine Lord Deborah Bright Sally Stein and Jan Zita Grover examine the ways in which the female is configured as a subject and explain how sexual difference is constructed across various registers of photographic representation Carol Squiers Esther Parada and Richard Bolton clarify the ways in which photography serves as a form of mass communication demonstrating in particular how photographic production is affected by the interests of the powerful patrons of communications The three concluding essays by Rosalind Krauss Martha Rosler and Allan Sekula critically examine the concept of photographic truth by exploring the intentions informing various uses of objective images within society

Women Photograph: What We See Daniella Zalcman, Sara Ickow, 2023-03-08 Open your eyes to a new world view with 100 women and nonbinary photojournalists stories from behind the lens 85% of photojournalists are men That means almost everything that is reported in the world is seen through men s eyes Similarly spaces and communities men don t have access to are left undocumented and forgotten With the camera limited to the hands of one gender photographic truth is more subjective than it seems To answer this serious ethical problem Women Photograph flips that bias on its head to show what and how women and nonbinary photojournalists see From documenting major events such as 9 11 to capturing unseen and misrepresented communities this book presents a revisionist contemporary history pore over 50 years of women s dispatches in 100 photographs Each image is accompanied by 200 words from the photographer about the experience and the subject offering fresh insights and a much needed perspective Until we have balanced representative reporting the camera cannot offer a mirror to our global society To get the full picture we need a diverse range of people behind the lens This book offers a first step Relearn how to see with this evergreen catalogue that elevates the voices of women and nonbinary visual storytellers

Are You My Mother? Alison Bechdel, 2012-05-01 The New York Times bestselling graphic memoir about Alison Bechdel author of Fun Home becoming the artist her mother wanted to be Alison Bechdel's Fun Home was a pop culture and literary phenomenon Now a second thrilling tale of filial sleuthery this time about her mother voracious reader music lover passionate amateur actor Also a woman unhappily married to a closeted gay man whose artistic aspirations simmered under the surface of Bechdel's childhood and who stopped touching or kissing her daughter good night forever when she was seven Poignantly hilariously Bechdel embarks on a quest for answers concerning the mother daughter gulf It's a richly layered search that leads readers from the fascinating life and work of the iconic twentieth century psychoanalyst Donald Winnicott to one explosively illuminating Dr Seuss illustration to Bechdel's own serially monogamous adult love life And finally back to Mother to a truce fragile and real time that will move and astonish all adult children of gifted mothers A New York Times USA Today Time Slate and Barnes sort of like a comic book by Virginia Woolf You won't believe it until you read it and you must Gloria Steinem
