Religion, Caste, and Politics in India Christophe Jaffrelot, 2010 Following independence the Nehruvian approach to socialism in India rested on three pillars secularism and democracy in the political domain state intervention in the economy and diplomatic non alignment mitigated by pro Soviet leanings after the 1960s These features defined a distinct Indian model if not the country's political identity From this starting point Christophe Jaffrelot traces the transformation of India throughout the latter half of the twentieth century particularly the 1980s and 90s The world's largest democracy has sustained itself by embracing not only the vernacular politicians of linguistic states but also Dalits and Other Backward Classes or OBCs The simultaneous and related rise of Hindu nationalism has put minorities and secularism on the defensive In many ways the rule of law has been placed on trial as well The liberalization of the economy has resulted in growth yet not necessarily development and India has acquired a new global status becoming an emerging power intent on political and economic partnerships with Asia and the West The traditional Nehruvian system is giving way to a less cohesive though more active India a country that has become what it is against all odds Jaffrelot maps this tumultuous journey exploring the role of religion caste and politics in determining the fabric of a modern democratic state the expanding global economy in the Age of European Exploration Major themes include the opening of new markets and responses to competition in the cloth trade evolving techniques and modes of production and changes in the patterns of consumption of local and imported cloth in a comparative cross cultural context Denotified Tribes of India Malli Gandhi, Kompalli H.S.S. Sundar, 2019-12-09 Social stigmatization is a virtual curse imposed on certain Indian social sections by the colonial government as part of their contextual political strategies by late nineteenth century The so called denotified tribes formerly known as ex criminal tribes in Indian society occupy this state made category According to the latest survey reports India has 198 groups belonging to nomadic and denotified tribes unorganized scattered and utter nobodies Social justice is alien to them and economic disempowerment eventually resulted in slavery bonded labour and poverty Public welfare measures pay scant attention to the issue of reform and rehabilitation of these sections and they are made to suffer from an identity crisis today Most of these communities are split under reserved categories Scheduled Castes and Other Backward Classes The work tries to present a narrative detailing the conditions of denotified tribes during colonial and post colonial India And the undeclared wish in doing so is to seek the attention of those in policy making and decision making bodies under the Indian government Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Imperial Gazetteer of India ,1908 Gazetteer of South India W.
