Manuel Alvarez Bravo Photographs And Memories Aperture:

Manuel Alvarez Bravo Manuel Alvarez Bravo, 1997 This is a particularly brilliant issue of Aperture replete with full tone reproductions of some of his best known images as well as a lot of the lesser known ones and an essay by Frederick Kaufman

Manuel Alvarez Bravo Manuel Álvarez Bravo, 1997 Manuel Alvarez Bravo Manuel Alvarez Bravo, 2008-10-29 Over 370 tritone photographs arranged in broadly chronological order mark Alvarez Bravo's remarkable eighty year career Strikingly poetic and richly resonant the collection includes iconic images as well as over thirty previously unpublished masterpieces Urban and rural scenes still lifes nudes religious and vernacular subjects portraits of luminaries including Diego Rivera Frida Kahlo and Octavio Paz all illustrate the peerless acuity of the photographer's eye Above all Alvarez Bravo's work celebrates his beloved Mexico with its indigenous rituals and age old customs Jacket Pop Culture Latin America! Lisa

Shaw, Stephanie Dennison, 2005-01-14 A survey of contemporary Latin American popular culture covering topics that range from music and film to popular festivals and fashion Like no other volume of its kind Pop Culture Latin America captures the breadth and vitality of pop culture in Central and South America and the Caribbean exploring both familiar and lesser known aspects of its unique melange of art entertainment spirituality and celebrations Written by contributors who are scholars and specialists in the cultures and languages of Latin America the book focuses on the historical social and political forces that have shaped Latino culture since 1945 particularly in the last two decades Separate chapters cover music popular cinema mass media theater and performance literature cultural heroes religions and festivals social movements and politics the visual arts and architecture sports and leisure travel and tourism and language Photographs Sotheby's (Firm), 2004

National Camera Roberto Tejada, 2009 The author offers a comprehensive study of Mexican photography from the early twentieth century to today demonstrating how images have shaped identities in Mexico the United States and in the borderlands where the two nations and cultures intersect the shared image environment Cross cultural episodes that are contradictory especially in terms of cultural and sexual difference are discussed Analyzing such topics as territory sexuality and social and ethnic relations in image making the author traces the connective thread that photography has provided between Mexican and U S American intellectual and cultural production and in doing so defines both nations Back cover

Aperture 162 Jessica Porter, Aperture Foundation Inc. Staff, 2001-03 Aperture 162 Winter 2001 Issue 162 features previously unpublished work by some of photography's most masterful and remarkable artists including Richard Misrach's Cancer Alley photographs a disturbing look at environmental destruction in the American south Also here are Sally Mann's stunning photographs of her daughter Jessie These mostly previously unpublished images depicting Jessie's transformation from child to adult are accompanied by an interview in which she discusses being photographed throughout her life Nick Waplington's fabricated website images provide an ironic look at the implications of the free flowing often incendiary information that proliferates on the internet Other features include Shooting Blind work by a New York based collective of visually impaired photographers and a dialogue between David Levi Strauss and painter longtime political activist Leon Golub concerning his use of photographs for inspiration in his work Photographers Stephen Crowley James Estrin Angel Franco Paul Hosefros Kevin Lamarque Chang W Lee Sally Mann Richard Misrach Sylvia Plachy Librado Romero Rick T Wilking

Seeing Mexico Photographed Leonard Folgarait, 2008 This engrossing book presents the photographs of four historically engaged artists and explains what they reveal about the highly dramatic revolutionary and post revolutionary period in Mexico from 1910 to 1935 The works of these photographers American Walter H Horne Italian Tina Modotti and Mexicans Agust n V ctor Casasola and Manuel lvarez Bravo are discussed not just as windows onto events but as artworks that offer both objective reporting and stylized expression The twenty five years covered in the book encompass some of the most convulsive developments in Mexico from the violence and cataclysmic changes wrought by the Mexican Revolution to the immense struggles to forge a new nation and a new government During this period the work of the four photographers two primarily documentary one propagandistic and one artistic and personal enabled Mexicans to understand the forces that had brought their nation to armed conflict and social transformation

Ghosts of the Revolution in Mexican Literature and Visual Culture Erica Segre, 2013 The official centenary commemorating the Mexican Revolution of 1910 provided scholars with an opportunity to consider memorialization and its legacies and afterimages in the twentieth century through to the present time This collection of new essays commissioned from experts based in Mexico Europe and the United States plays on the interrelated notions of revisitation haunting residual traces and valediction to interrogate the Revolution s multiple appearances reckonings and reconfigurations in art photography film narrative fiction periodicals travel testimonies and poetry examining key constituencies of creative media in Mexico that have been involved in historicizing contesting or evading the mixed legacies of the Revolution The interplay of themes practices and contexts across the chapters ranging from the 1920s through to the present day draws on interdisciplinary thinking as well as new findings framing the volume s discourse with a deliberately multi dimensional approach to an often homogenized topic The contributors scholarly referencing of artists novelists poets photographers foreign correspondents critics filmmakers and curators is detailed and wide ranging creating new juxtapositions that include some rarely studied material

Intersected Identities Erica Segre, 2007 There has always been an important visual element to the construction and questioning of national identity in post Independence Mexico though one that has not always been given its due outside of the celebrated and much studied muralists Ranging from the early nineteenth century to the present from the vogue for the picturesque illustrated periodicals and the influential writings of Altamirano to a wealth of twentieth century graphic artists filmmakers and photographers this book re examines the complex variety of ways in which that visual element has operated In particular it looks at the ways in which discourses concerning ethnicity and cultural hybridity have been echoed and transformed in Mexican visual culture resulting in fields of visual discourse which are eclectic and increasingly self reflexive

History and Modern Media John Mraz, 2021-04-15 In History and Modern Media John Mraz largely focuses on Mexican photography and his innovative methodology that examines historical photographs by employing the concepts of genre and function He developed this method in extensive work on photojournalism it is tested here through examining two genres Indianist imagery as an expression of imperial neo colonizing and decolonizing photography and progressive photography as embodied in worker and laborist imagery as well as feminist and decolonizing visuality The book interweaves an autobiographical narrative with concrete research Mraz describes the resistance he encountered in US academia to this new way of showing and describing the past in films and photographs as well as some illuminating experiences as a visiting professor at several US universities More importantly he reflects on what it has meant to move to Mexico and become a Mexican Mexico is home to a thriving school of photohistorians perhaps unequaled in the world Some were trained in art history and a few continue to pursue that discipline However the great majority work from the discipline known as photohistory which focuses on vernacular photographs made outside of artistic intentions A central premise of the book is that knowing the cultures of the past and of the other is crucial in societies dominated by short term and parochial thinking and that today s hyper audiovisuality requires historians to use modern media to offer their knowledge as alternatives to the perpetual present in which we live Choice ,1998 Artbibliographies Modern ,1998 The Publishers Weekly ,2000
